A vast trial of its virtues, the roughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact that Cherny PecroRaL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs become any content of the Throat and Lungs become and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs become and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs become any cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of stiffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tenriams need this de, ence, and it is unwise to willhout it. As a safeguard to children, amid and Chest of childhood, Cherry Pecroal is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centered on them. It acts speed it vand surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. Board of Trade.

There was a meeting of the Board of Trade this forenoon to consider the new tariff, and especially the tax on shipbuild. tariff, and especially the tax on shipbuilding materials. The President, C. H. Fairweather, Esq., occupied the chair.
The meeting was objected to by several members as being illegal, the notice required by the constitution not having been given. The objection was found to be correct, and the meeting adjourned without entering upon any discussion.
Another meeting will be called at once.

The Liquor Law. The new liquor law came in force last Saturday, and the police made a visit to a large number of saloons after 10 p. m. They tried several of the hotels, including the Victoria, but did not effect an entrance into any of their bars as they were all found closed—to them at least.
Several of the licensed taverns were reported. P. McArdle, Prince William street, appeared at the Police Court this orning to answer the charge, and said American and Domestic Manu his bar was open but that he did not know the law was in force. He thought the police might have notified him as they did others. He said McCann was allow ed to keep open by the police. This was denied by McCann, who proved that his place was closed before 10 o'clock. The 60 BOXES CHALLENGE TOBACCO; police said that when they went into the office of the Victoria a bell was rung, and when they got to the bar the crowd had been hustled out and all was quiet. W. McColgan, Abraham Mundee, James Duke and John Murray are the others reported. McArdle was fined $20 and the
