

D. Wilson, elders; and resolves to call the attention of the General Assembly to this matter, praying the Supreme Court to adopt whatever measures it may judge proper so as to afford direction to the people generally, in the grave and momentous crisis which is upon us.

On motion of Mr. Hamilton, the cordial thanks of the Synod were given to the ministers and office-bearers of Zion Church, for the use of their building and the arrangements made for the work of the Synod, to the committee on accommodation, and the friends in Brantford for the generous hospitality extended, to the railways for reduced rates, and to the press for reports of the Synod's proceedings.

The business being finished and praise having been engaged in, the Moderator declared the Synod adjourned to meet in St. Andrew's Church, Windsor, on the third Monday of April, A. D., 1890, at half-past 7 o'clock, p. m., and the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

GEORGE CUTHBERTSON,

WM. COCHRANE, D. D.

Moderator.

Clerk.
