LUTHERAN WOMEN'S ELEVENTH ANNUAL

Many Delegates Attend
The Eleventh Annual Convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary Societies of Central Canada convened in St. John's Lutheran Church yesterday there being a large attendance of delegates present from all parts of Ontario and Quebec. The sessions opened at 9.30 o'clock and were busy transacting business until 6.30 in the afternoon. While it had been hoped the session would be concluded yesterday it was found impossible to complete all the work and the sessions were continued this morning at the Seminary.

Rev. M. Voelker of Preston extended the greetings of the Canada Synod while Rev. J. Maurer of Kitchener extended the greetings of the Central Canada Synod. Most encouraging reports were received from the Treasurer, Stationary Executive Committee, Delegates to Merger, and by the Department Secretaries.

A noon luncheon was partaken in the basement. The afternoon sessions were fine, interesting talks, transaction of important business intermingled with musical numbers making up a most helpful and profitable afternoon.

The Worth While Hour was indeed full of interest, papers being read by Mrs. Sorenson, Mrs. M. Hagey, Mrs. M.J. Bieber and Mrs. Stahlshmat.

The delegates were entertained in the evening to a Missionary play entitled "A Strange Five o'clock Tea", given by the W.M.S. of St. John's Church and the visitors were delighted with the production. The Society were assisted by Mrs. Thiel who gave two dramatic readings with piano accompaniments in most pleasing style. Mrs. Hagey of Hamilton also delighted the delegates with a vocal solo while Miss Florence Mueller rendered a piano solo in a most artistic style.

During the numbers short addresses were delivered by Rev. L. Hogstedt, M.A. Chicago and Rev. J.R.E. Hunt, also of Chicago.

The audience also had the pleasure of hearing a few words from Mrs. Knuffman of Chicago who will have charge of the Mission Class during the summer school course the speaker extending greeting from the cousins across the line.

All the delegates will remain in town and take in the lectures at the Seminary which will be continued the balance of the week.

The chief item of business was the appointing of a committee to arrange attractions and make preparations for the annual Tattoo to be held on Friday evening August 1st. It is the intention this year to make this year's tattoo the best ever and the very best of attractions will be secured.

The Committee also decided to hold a grand dance on the evening of July 1st, and also on Tattoo night.

The game last night between the Methodist Church indoor Baseball team and the Baptist Churchine of Kitchener was not concluded the game being called on account of rain.

This afternoon the Clerks have their weekly half holiday and they are experiencing much the same weather as last year when the majority of Wednesday afternoons were wet. The rain is badly needed, however, and garden produce will benefit thereby.

W. M. S. MEETING AT ZION CHURCH

OFFICERS ELECTED AND OTHER PRELIMINARIES DECIDED ON.
A large delegation of members and friends of the Women's Missionary Societies of the Canada Conference of the Evangelical Church met at Zion Bible School yesterday afternoon and evening, June the 24th to organize a conference branch and hold their annual convention.

The different congregations as well as ladies' aid and kindred societies have been doing active missionary work for over thirty years, but these various efforts were never organized into a Conference Branch Society to be affiliated with the general W.M.S. of the church, which, however, was consummated at yesterday's meetings.

Rev. J. P. Hauch, pastor of the church, occupied the chair, while Mrs. F. Haight, Waterloo, was chosen as Secretary pro tem.

The chairman spoke of the past history of the W.M.S. in the Conference, and of the educational value of young people relative to missions.

Dr. Helmiller, of Cleveland, Ohio, for many years a member and officer of the General Mission Board of the church, gave a very helpful and illuminating address, encouraging the women in their future work, emphasizing the words, "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

Miss Agnes Good, organizer of the work, addressed the meeting, defining the plans of the branch for the future, and explained some of the methods to be adopted for the affiliation of the various societies.

At the evening session Mrs. S. E. Schrader, Waterloo, gave an exposition on "Prayer and Missions," followed by another address by Bishop Heilmiller, outlining women's work and position in the kingdom of God upon the mission field, citing many touching illustrations of his observations.

It was announced during the course of the convention that the next Quadrennial convention of the W.M.S. would convene at Monroe, Wisconsin in the closing days of August, and Miss Agnes Good was elected as delegate, and Mrs. S. E. Schrader, Waterloo, as alternate.

Officers Elected.
The following officers were elected at the close of the afternoon session: Agnes Good, Kitchener, President; Miss Agnes Good, Kitchener, Vice President; Mrs. S. E. Schrader, Waterloo, Secy.

Rec.-Secy.—Mrs. F. Haight, Waterloo. Corr.—Secy.—Mrs. W.W. H. Umbach, New Hamburg.

Treas.—Mrs. A. C. Bender, Kitchener. Secy. of Young Women's Work—Miss Mildred Wagner, Kitchener.

Secy. of Message bearers—Mrs. E. Scholtzauer, Stratford.

Secy. of Little Heralds—Mrs. Thos. McWhinnery, Crediton.

Secy. of Literature—Mrs. V. Damm, Ayrton.

All matters of unfinished business was referred to the General Executive for further attention, such as the fixing of the date of the next annual convention and so forth.

At the close of the Convention Bishop Heilmiller asked for life and honorary membership and in a short time to life members and one honorary were reported, and $125 for the missionary treasury. Thus the first session came to a close, sending all away inspired to do practical extension work during the year.

on the part of a number of the members to adopting the report. However it was pointed out by the clerk that the fact that the report would be adopted now would not effect a member changing his stand when the Bylaw came up for its third reading. With this understanding the motion for its adoption passed.

Before adjournment Capt. Bole of the Sailors Navy League addressed the Council urging that a grant be made to this most worthy cause.

In a clear and forceful manner he outlined the magnificent work done by the sailors of the deep. He told how it was the boys who manned the ships that saved this world of ours for Democracy. For 41 years the speaker said, no appeal has come from these men for aid, 50,000 men have left behind them 45,000 widows and orphans and now it is up to us to do our duty to these dependents and save them from a paupers home.

The speaker's gift to the bride was a cut glass water set and to the bridesmaid a brooch and to the best man a tie-pin.

How Sarrisa Men Remove Eyesore

Over 200 of the business men of the city have been offered the Chamber of Commerce to assist in the digging away the Grand Trunk embankment, which will be undertaken tomorrow afternoon. The embankment has long been an eyesore to tourists passing in boats and the action of the Chamber of Commerce shows the kind of co-operative spirit which they are bringing about.

acting in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce in this move the retail merchants of the city will close their stores at 12 o'clock tomorrow and will assist in the work. Dr. William Logie heads the committee in charge of the arrangements for the work and Thomas Grace will direct the operations to-morrow. Refreshments will be served while the work is in progress.

GROWTH NECESSITATES OTHER QUARTERS

The growth of another local industry has necessitated removal to larger quarters. The Mitchell But-Company have found it necessary to look about for more space. Accordingly they have leased part of the basement of the Star Whitewater Company on Gault street. Removal operations are underway now. It is expected that within a short time the plant will be operating in the new quarters.

The company have been occupying a floor in the Pequegnat block on Frederick street.

Greatest Man

the governing members were annoyed by his persistent criticism and verbal rocks hurled across the floor of the house. So he rose from one post to the other. "Why certainly. Anything that I can do my country" was his reply whenever he was asked whether he would accept a post of duty.

He outlined how the initiative and the brains of Lloyd George were responsible for the organization of Britain's forces and in fact the allied strength so that victory was secure. As a result of this Lloyd George became the premier but more than this he was the savior of mankind. He impressed the fact that it was Lloyd George who had held out until absolute victory for the allies had been assured. The world today did not know that at one time during the course of the war some of the diplomats of Europe were thinking of coming to terms with Germany but Lloyd George held out, impressing the will of the British people that they would sooner go down to death than submit to tyranny.

As gained from his personal experiences with Lloyd George he could say that he was possessed of a deep conviction that the cause of the allies was one of righteousness and that God who was still in heaven would see to it that evil forces in this world would be stopped.

The refinement and the gentlemanliness of the premier besides his quickness at repartee and his wit were referred to. In conclusion he reminded the hearers to consider the little Welshman now the Prime Minister of the Great Empire the world has ever seen an example of determination and will power to do what a conscientiousness tells one is right.

Other Features of the Day
In the afternoon a splendid address was delivered by L. Jean A. Picard on the Spirit of France. The French journalist in characteristic manner of his race enthusiastically showed what spirit the French people had set to the task of assuring the preservation of all that is dear in their country, why the French people are so very apprehensive of their neighbors to the east. But despite all the trials and hardships of the past years they will come out stronger than ever.

The first part of the evening performance was a musical program by the Charles Edward Clarke Company. The company consists of a harp, a lady violinist and a pianist. The entertainers are an able trio and fulfilled all expectations. The various numbers showed a wide range of choice and there was something for everybody. The stringed instrumental numbers, the humorous and more serious vocal selections and the piano numbers were splendidly rendered. In fact so well that the encores were repeated time after time.

The junior Chautauqua again was encouraging and was enjoyed by the young people. As the days go by during this one joyous week the delight in this part of the program will become still more intense.

This afternoon the program was in the form of a concert by the Vischoi Florentines and a lecture by Fred G. Bale of Columbus, Ohio. The same entertainers will be on the platform this evening.

The music of the fourth day will be furnished by this well-known Toronto Quartet, composed of Artists, all of whom are well known as Solo Singers, and accompanied by a Pianist of note. Their programmes will constitute one of the great features of Chautauqua week.

The repertoire of the quartette includes selections from the great oratorios and operas, the choicest of the English, Scotch, and Irish melodies, standard and popular songs. Not alone as a quartette do they excel, but in concerts, recitals, oratorios, and opera selections, each individual member stands distinct, having been accorded marked recognition because of his virtuosity.
