

"Canadian Nationality: its Growth and Development" (do. 1875); and "The Medical Profession in Upper Canada: an Historical Narrative, including some brief Biographies" (do. 1894). It should be added that Dr. C. originated the U. E. Loyalist Centennial celebration held in Toronto, 1884. In religion, a Meth; politically, he is a Con. He m. 1st, Miss Hamilton (she d.); 2ndly, 1859, Eliza, dau. of Jas. Foster, Toronto. —42 Grange Ave., Toronto.

"A profound student and a close observer."—Dr. Thomas Moffatt, N.Y.

CANNON, Lawrence John, Quebec civil service, is the s. of the late L. A. Cannon, City Clk., Quebec, and was b. there, Nov. 18, 1852. Ed. at the Quebec Semy., he graduated LL.L., at Laval Univ., and was called to the bar, 1874. Mr. C. practised for 15 yrs. at Arthabaskaville. In 1891 he was apptd. Asst. Atty.-Genl. P.Q., an office he still retains. He was an unsuccessful candidate, in the Lib. interest, for Drummond and Arthabaska, Dom. g. e. 1882. In 1897 he appeared for the Province before the Privy Council in Eng., in the Fisheries case. He is a mem. of the R. C. Ch., and was m. Aug., 1876, to Miss Aurelie Dumoulin, of Arthabaskaville. —5 Collins St., Quebec.

CANTLIE, James Alexander, merchant, is the s. of the late Francis Cantlie, of Mortloch, Banffshire, Scot., by his wife Mary Stuart, and was b. at Mortloch, June 5, 1836. Ed. there, he entered an Aberdeen wholesale dry-goods house, and has since been more or less connected with that branch of commerce. Coming to Can. 1863, in the employment of Wm. Stephen & Co., Montreal, he remained with their successors, Robertson, Linton & Co., up to 1868, when he established the well-known firm of Jas. A. Cantlie & Co., his partners, who have since retired, having been Alexander Ewing and Wm. Stephen. Mr. C. was elected Presdt. of the Dom. Commercial Travellers' Assn., 1880, and Presdt. of the Montreal Bd. of Trade, Jan.

1895. He is also Presdt. of the Dom. Transport Co., Mang.-Dir. of the Almonte Knitting Co., V.-P. of the Cobourg Woollen Co., a gov. of the Montreal Genl. and Western Hospitals, and a gov. of the Royal Vic. Hospital, Montreal. Politically, he is a Con.; in religious faith, a Presb. He m., May 1866, Eleanor Simpson, 2nd dau. of the late Wm. Stephen, and sister of Lord Mount Stephen. His s. Wm. Hy. Northcote Cantlie, graduated from the R. M. Coll., Kingston, and was apptd. Lieut. R. A., 1896. —1151 Dorchester St., Montreal; St. James's Club.

CAPEL, Rev. Edgar Tracy (Ch. of Eng.), was b. in Montreal, and ed. at St. John's sch., in that city. After serving as a clk. in the Bank of Ontario, he entered the Montreal Diocesan Coll., as a student for the ministry. Ordained to the priesthood 1888, he was successively curate at Sorel and asst. at Christ Ch. Cath., Montreal. In 1893, he was apptd. rector of Sutton, and, in 1897, was elected Presdt. of the Quebec S. S. Union. —The Rectory, Sutton, P.Q.

CAPPER, Stewart Henbest, educationist, is the 2nd surviving s. of Jasper John Capper, by his wife, Harriet Millington Jackson, and was b. in London, Eng., Dec., 1859. He received his primary education at the Royal High Sch., Edinburgh ("Dux"). In 1875 he entered the Univ. of Edinburgh, passed through the complete Arts course and in 1890 graduated as M. A., with 1st class honors in Classical Literature, obtaining the Pitt Club Scholar in classics. He also studied at the Univ. of Heidelberg. From 1879 to 1884, Prof. C. resided in Portugal and Spain, as a mem. of the household of the British Minister, Sir Robt. Morier, and spent much time in studying the architecture of these countries. In 1884 he became a student at the École des Beaux Arts, Paris, and entered the studio of Mons. J. L. Pascal, architect, mem. of the Inst. of France. He also travelled for