

retirement of Prof. Ashley, was placed in charge of the pol. science dept. until the arrival of Prof. Mavor, the new incumbent. He was then apptd. lecturer in the same dept., a position he held for one year. Besides contributing to mags. and reviews, Mr. McE. is the author of "The Ontario Township," a history of the growth of municipal institutions in the Province, which was printed by the Ont. Govt. as the first in the series of Univ. of Toronto studies in pol. science; an "Essay on Can. Currency and Banking," which was awarded the Ramsay Scholarship and was printed at the request of leading bankers of Can.; "Karl Marx's Theory of Value," an essay which Prof. Ashley declared to be the ablest exposition of the kernel of abstract theory of value that it had been his good fortune to have heard or read on any occasion. At the invitation of the Am. Acad. of Pol. and Social Science, he contributed a series of articles to their publication, the Annals, upon subjects of economic and historical importance to Can. Mr. McE. believes in the doctrine of revenue tariff. He favours some system of mutual help among the whole Anglo-Saxon race, as a defence against Russian ambition, being much impressed with the danger that Russia, by overthrowing India, may be able to displace the present routes of commerce and to impose her civilization in place of Saxon civilization upon the world.
