

The Committee after such hearing and enquiry shall report thereon to the Senate, and such Report shall be accompanied by the testimony of the witnesses examined and by all papers and instruments put in evidence before the Committee. The minority may bring in a Report stating the grounds upon which they dissent from the Report of the Committee.

When any alteration in the preamble or otherwise in the Bill is recommended, such alteration and the reasons for the same shall be stated in the Report.

When the Committee report that the preamble of the Bill has not been proved to their satisfaction, the report shall state the grounds on which they have arrived at such a decision, and no Divorce Bill so reported upon shall be placed on the Orders of the Day, unless by special order of the Senate.

N

The Chairman of the Committee shall sign, with his name at length, a printed copy of the Bill, on which the amendments recommended shall be fairly written, and shall also sign, with the initials of his name, the several amendments made and clauses added in Committee; and another copy of the Bill with the amendments written thereon shall be prepared by the Clerk of the Committee and filed, or attached to the Report.

O

If adultery be proved, the party from whom the divorce is sought may nevertheless be admitted to prove condonation, collusion, connivance, or adultery on the part of the Petitioner.

Condonation, collusion or connivance between the parties is always a sufficient ground for rejecting a Bill of Divorce and shall be enquired into by the Committee. And
