No. 8.]

BILL

[1857.

An Act further to secure the Independence of Parliament.

FOR further securing the freedom and independence of Parliament, Preamble. Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows :

I. Any person who shall directly or indirectly, himself or by any person No contractor 1. Any person who shall directly of indirectly, minsch of by any person with the Gov-in trust for him, or for his use and benefit, or on his account, undertake, with the Gov-ernment or 5 execute, hold or enjoy, in the whole or in part, any contract or agreement, with any made or entered into, with the Crown or with any department or officer incorporated of the government, for or on account of the public service, or with any Company re-public or incorporated company, for the construction of any railroad, canal guarantee or other work for which such company is or shall be incorporated, and in from the Gov-10 aid of which any pecuniary grant or assistance, or any pecuniary guarantee enameut to be and of which any pecuniary grant or assistance, or any pecuniary guarance a member of shall be extended or given by the government of this Province, shall be the Assembly. incapable of being elected, or of sitting or voting, as a member of the Legislative Assembly during the time that he shall execute, hold or enjoy any such contract or agreement, or any part or share thereof, or any benefit 15 or emolument arising therefrom.

II. If any member of the Legislative Assembly shall accept from the Seats of mem-Crown any office or employment of profit or emolument of a temporary bers accepting nature, not paid by annual or stated salary, his election shall be and is here-ployment to by declared to be void, and a new writ shall issue for a new election, as if be vacated. 20 such person so accepting were naturally dead : Provided nevertheless that But they may such person shall be capable of being again elected at such new election. be re-elected.

Act to apply to elective memgislative Council.

III. If any Member of the Legislative Assembly shall before the passing Members now of this Act have accepted any such office or employment as in the next holding tempreceding clause mentioned, the duties of which he shall continue to per-25 form at the passing of this Act, and shall not immediately thereafter resign them or vathe same, the election of such Member shall be declared void, as if he were cate.

naturally dead, but he shall be capable of being again elected at such new But may be re-elected. election.

IV. All the provisions of this Act shall be extended and applied to the bers of the Le-30 elections of Members of the Legislative Council.

V. Nothing herein contained shall repeal any Act or part of any Act Former indenow in force for securing the independence of the Legislative Council or pendence Acts not repealed. Assembly.