

(e) sell or lease any surplus power which it may develop or acquire, either as water power or other motive power, or by converting the same into electricity or other force for the distribution of light, heat or power or for all purposes for which electricity or other motive power can be used, with power to transmit the same ;

Surplus power.

(f) subject to such regulations as are imposed by the Governor in Council, acquire and dispose of lands and construct, acquire and dispose of buildings and other erections and plant for the purpose of supplying water for the use of its works, railways and branches.

Water supply for Company's works.

18. If the Company requires land for wharves, docks, warehouses, elevators or bunkers, and cannot agree for the purchase thereof with the owner of such land, it may cause a map or plan and book of reference to be made of such land, and all the provisions of sections 107 to 111, both inclusive, of The Railway Act shall apply to the subject matter of this section and to the obtaining of such land and determining the compensation therefor.

Expropriation of lands.

1888, c. 29.

19. The Company may from time to time receive by grant from any government, municipality or person, as aid in the construction of the railway, bridge and works provided for in this Act, any real or personal property, sum of money, debentures or subsidies, either as gifts by way of bonus or guarantees, or in payment, or as subventions for services, and may dispose thereof, and may alienate such property as is not required for the business of the Company.

Aid to Company.

20. Nothing in this Act contained, or done in pursuance thereof, shall take away or prejudice any claim, demand, right, security, cause of action or complaint which any person has against any railway company whose railway, rights and property are acquired by the Company, or against any company which may be amalgamated with the Company under the provisions of this Act, nor shall such company, by reason of this Act, be relieved from the payment of any debt or the performance of any obligation, contract or duty.

Rights and obligations of companies amalgamated not affected.

21. Nothing in this Act, or in any agreement under which the Company acquires the charter, privileges and franchises of any railway company, shall be held to relieve any such company from any of its duties or liabilities under the railway laws of Canada or under the laws of the Province of New Brunswick.

Liabilities under railway laws continued.
