

of a minority, protesting.
More discussion.

The Speaker
undecided

The Speaker appears undecided, or reluctant, in giving the decision of the Oronodagas, as he should do.

Note
by
Mr. Supt

The circumstances are:
At the first meeting, Chief John Buck reported in behalf of the Oronodagas, they are divided between two names; at the second meeting, that of one name only, but protested against; and, at the third, (to day) another name is reported, but likewise protested against by C. Supt.

Further discussion.

Announced
G. Smith
announces

At 1/2 past 5 o'clock, amidst much cheer, the Speaker announces the decision of the Council, that Mr. G. Smith, be named Interpreter, in succession to Chief George H. M. Johnson, deceased; but, that John Smith, shall cease to be a Chief.