Mr. P. C. Larkin,
32 Yonge Street,
Toronto, Canada.

Dear Mr. Larkin:

I have just received your letter of the 5th instant.

It is indeed kind of you to take so much trouble concerning my affairs at a time when you are so exceptionally busy with your own. I hope ere this letter reaches you that the worst of the moving will be over, and that it will not be long before you are comfortably settled in your new place of business.

I felt quite sure Sir Wilfrid would write you with the approval which your letter indicates; and I am sure Mitchell will write not less cordially.
A letter which I received from Sir Wilfrid since writing you last indicates that matters have gone forward quite a little, and that he himself is hopeful of something definite coming to pass in the near future.

I shall probably be another week in Chicago before beginning the journey eastward. I shall stop off at Youngstown, Ohio, possibly for several days, and shall hope to see you on the way through Toronto.

Meanwhile, please accept my heartiest thanks for your goodness; and with kindest regards Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
