September 16, 1933.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen,
57 Castle Frank Cres.,
Toronto, Canada.

My dear Mr. Meighen:

I am forwarding, by express, a box of Nova Scotia Gravenstein apples.

You will be happy to learn that the apple crop in the Annapolis Valley this year will reach a record figure -- approximately 3,000,000 barrels. Already, steamer-loads are going forward overseas. It is estimated that of this year's crop, over 2,000,000 barrels will be exported to the British Isles.

My kindest regards to you and Mrs. Meighen.

Yours very truly,

*Mrs Meighen advises apples received to day
