H. M. Ley, Esq.,
Boulderfel,
Barrie, Ont.

My dear Harry:

I am glad to have your letter of February the 12th, just received. I notice by yesterday's votes and proceedings in parliament that Mr. Bennett has given notice of an amendment to the bank act. Rumour has been current that he himself has been contemplating the creation of a central bank. However, whether this be true or not, we shall no doubt have a full discussion of the subject in parliament when the bill comes before the house.

I wish I could promise to come up to Barrie for an address, but you may tell the representative of the Lions Club that, much as I appreciate his own and your invitation to do so, I cannot, while parliament is in session, take on any additional engagements which will involve an absence from the capital.

I hope you are all keeping well. My fondest love to one and all.

Yours affectionately,

King, Rt. Hon. King, Rt. Hon. William
