THE SEABOARD PARISH :

A SEQUEL TO "ANNALS OF A QUIET NEIGHBOURHOOD."

Crown 8vo. Cloth. $1.75.

"A story of the very highest order; full of deep and healthy truth told in the most genial way; a story to be read thoughtfully, slowly, lovingly."—Birmingham Daily Post.

"The books are of their own kind. One cannot read them without being stimulated to something nobler and purer, for they may honestly be called both. They are a mine of original and quaint similitudes, and their deep perceptions of human nature are certainly remarkable. . . . On the whole, Mr. George MacDonald is a power already, and will soon be a greater one. . . . Let it stand to his credit that, in an age of loose literature, he is, like Scott, and Dickens, and Thackeray, pure-minded. He writes better English (because more imaginative and loftier) than Charles Reade or any of that ilk. And while Wilkie Collins outdoes him in plot, he outdoes Wilkie Collins and the rest of the plotters in delicacy and sweetness of touch. Should George MacDonald rise hereafter above this present point, high and good as it is, he will merit and receive distinguished praise. And, as a man hardly at the entrance of middle life, there is no reason why this should not be. His hand has not lost its cunning, and his eye is still undimmed."—Scribner's Monthly.
