District Doings.

SOUTH BUNTON.

We are having fine weather since the rain and farmers will soon be able to get on their land again. Most of the seeding is done and many have their land plowed for corn. Some expect to begin planting about the 10th.

The Easter services at the Baptist Church were very pleasant and the sacred edifice was crowded to the doors. The collection amounted to $7.40.

Does it stand to reason that Perry Davis' Painkiller could have held public confidence for sixty years unless it really did cure diarrhea, cholera morbus and all similar troubles so common and so dangerous in hot weather.

LUDLOOT.

The farmers are progressing very rapidly with their seeding. Some are through and are preparing the soil for corn.

Most of the farmers are complaining of their wheat on account of the weather.

Margaret Rowe, of the 9th concession, school, has recovered from her illness. Her scholars are glad to see her back.

Wm. Wilson, of the 8th concession, left on Monday morning for Winnipeg.

George Oliver, of the Prince Albert Road, is having good success with his thoroughbred cattle.

Robert Miller, of the 5th concession, is speeding his pacing horse for the races this fall.

Wm. Colman, of the 7th concession, has purchased a new double carriage.

Laura Catton was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Bond, on Sunday last.

Wm. Mackness, of the 8th concession, is thinking of going to the Northwest this fall.

Wedding bells are ringing on the Caledonia Road.

ZONE CENTRE.

David McPherson spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. Williston, teacher at S. S. 4, Zone, is confined to his home owing to illness. He has had a substitute from Thamesville.

Miss McCulloch left Thursday for Chatham and Detroit, where she will spend the Easter holidays with relatives.

Township Council met on Monday, when a large number met to interview them in the matters of sheep-killing and the opening of a drain.

Jack McLean spent a few days last week at Dutton.

Levertton left on Monday for his farm at Clearville, to which the family removed some time ago.

Wm. Eberle is spending the week at his home with his wife, who is suffering from an acute attack of pneumonia.

It is with regret we learn that the youngest son of Dan McNeil is very low. Mr. McNeil, now of Edinwell, was formerly of Zone.

Miss Belle Timney is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. John Buchanan, of Florence.

Arthur Leverton is spending a few days here.

Church's ALABASTINE

is a SANITARY WALL-COATING. It is porous, and permits the free passage of air. Kalsomine, under whatever name or claim, is only temporary—rubs off on everything that comes in contact with it. Wall-paper with mouldy paste on the back and arsenical poisoning matter in the finish and coloring on the face is unsanitary. Besides, kalsomine, wall-paper and paint obstruct wall respiration. The walls of hospitals are never papered—the reason is obvious.

Information about how to make home healthy as well as beautiful is desirable. Write us. Our reply will be a positive benefit to you. Address

GRANDDAD WEATHERWISE.

His Barometer a Companion That Shifts From Woods to Skies.

Not a dainty affair, with silver or satin trimmings, nor yet with the credentials of officialdom attached; but a constant companion, shifting from woods and fields to skies—this was the weather bureau of our grandfathers, and mingled with the sins and omens of old times sometimes gets the best of it now in foretelling the weather.

"Rainbow at night, sailors' delight; Rainbow in the morning, sailors' take warning!"

Rainbow at noon, rain very soon."

Just adapt this couplet the next time a rainbow comes your way, says The Scientific American, and see for yourself.

A combination of rain and sunshine was also supposed to bring rain the next day.

Another verse which found favor was:

"Evening red and morning gray
Will set the traveler on his way;
Evening gray and morning red
Will pour down rain upon his head."

This is but an adaptation of the adage that a red sunset is a sign of clear weather. And if the sun goes down in a cloud, rain will surely come the next day.

If it clears off in the night, look for rain the next day. If smoke from the chimney settles instead of rising there is a storm at hand. When sound travels a long distance there is also a storm at hand. Expect much storm in the old of the moon. The absence of dew and an unusually heavy dew are alike fore-runners of rain. Not much frost need be expected in the light of the moon. An owl hooting in the hollow is a sign of a cold storm; on the hill it foretells a thaw.

If the hornets build low the winter will be hard. When leaves fall early the winter will be long. When snow falls on a hard road it will not last long. The last spring snowstorm never comes until after the "sugar snow," which may be recognized by coming in unusually large flakes and only lasting a few minutes. If the hog's melt is found big at the front, the first part of winter will be the most severe; if the reverse is true, we may look for hard weather in February and March.

Bright "northern lights" bring severe cold. If the sun shines on the second day of February to permit the woodchuck to see his shadow, it will go back into its hole and remain six weeks. If March comes in like a lamb, it will go out like a lion; if it comes in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb. In other words, an extreme at the beginning promises the reverse at the end of the month. Sundogs indicate a bad storm.

Distant sounds distinctly heard forebode no good weather. If the wind "draws up water," it will rain. The pitcher sweating and the tea kettle boiling dry also indicate rain. Cobwebs thickly spread upon the grass are an indication of fair weather.

Animal life seems, according to the popular notion, to have peculiar warnings regarding the weather changes. Some of these are explainable by natural causes; it is a fact recognized by all intelligent stockmen that cattle have an intuition of an approaching storm some hours before it is visible to the human eye. There is a certain restlessness which the cowboys have learned to interpret at once. When you see a pig pasturing in the field build for itself a nest you may look for a storm.

Chickens take extra pains in oiling their feathers just before a rain. Poultry feed forth their shrill cries as a warning, and when the quail cries "more wet" from the meadow the farmer goes brisly to get his hay under shelter. If the chickweed and scarlet pimpernel expand their tiny petals, rain need not be expected for a few hours. Bees work with redoubled energy just before a rain. If the bees are unusually persistent either in the house or around stock there is rain in the air. The cricket sings at the approach of cold weather. Squirrels store a large supply of nuts, the husks of corn are unusually thick, and the buds of deciduous trees have a firmer protecting coat if a severe winter is at hand. If the poplar or quaking aspen leaves turn up the under side, rain will soon follow.

If the fog rises in the morning, it is a sign of rain; if it settles, a clear day may be expected. Watch the smallest cloud you may be expected. This idea has seemingly been utilized in the manufacture of some of our cheap barometers. The main trouble is, they seldom forecast the change until about the time it arrives.

Last, but not least, rheumatism can always tell it "in their bones" when a storm is approaching, and of the proposition the ologographer of to-day is as firm an advocate as were his forefathers.

Muffs Worn For Ages.

In many of the portraits of the sixteenth century one often sees a strip of rich, soft fur wound around the wrist of a noble dame. This was used to cover the neck or fulfill the function of the muff, and to it was often attached a small animal's head or a skull, cunningly wrought in metal and adorned with precious stones.

As was the case with so many articles of dress, the muff was first the exclusive property of the nobility, and was carried by the commonest women of Venice as well as by the women of the highest rank.

The first Venetian muffs were small, made of a single piece of velvet, brocade or silk, lined with fur, the opening enriched with gold or silver buttons set with precious stones. By 1652 the muff seems to have been recognized as the necessary adjunct of the wardrobe of a woman of fashion.

Oakum picking by female prisoners in English prisons has now practically ceased; instead, they make their own garments and those of the male prisoners.

BABY TODD'S CURE OF SORE EYES

Over Two Years of Awful Suffering—Eyes Stuck Together and Would Bleed When Washed Open in the Morning—Every Lash Fell Out.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I feel it my duty to tell of two most wonderful cures of sore eyes by Cuticura Ointment. My little son had an attack of measles which left the eyes in a shocking condition. The lids became inflamed and sore and every lash fell out. For two years and ten months I tried many eye ointments and lotions, besides following every advice given me, but nothing seemed to do them any good. They would be stuck in the morning, and I had to bathe them in warm milk and water, which was a very trying duty, as the eyelids would always bleed, causing the child untold suffering.

"I had heard a lot about Cuticura Ointment, so I thought I would try it, and from the first application I have had cause to be thankful. Before I had used one box of Ointment the lashes showed signs of growing, and at the end of a few months he had a crop of lashes of which any person might be proud.

"I recommended Cuticura to a Mrs. Phillips for her child, who also had sore eyes, and her little one was cured with less than one box. I have advised dozens of people to use Cuticura Ointment, often stopping them in the street, as I did Mrs. Phillips, who was a total stranger to me. I have such implicit faith in it that I have written to relatives in England and Ireland telling them of its wonderful virtues.

"I am sending you this testimonial of my own free will, in the hope that it may be benefited as we have been. (Signed) Mrs. C. Todd, Old South Head Road, Waverly, Sydney, N. S. W." Reference, Messrs. R. Towns & Co., Sydney.
