The Dantiest and Choicest of Confections,

The Catholic Register.

"Truth is Catholic; proclaim ever, and God will effect the rest—BALMEZ

TORONTO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1903

SMOKERS

Alive Bollard

199 Yonge St. TORONTO

Perfection Smoking Mixture Positively Cool and

PRICE FIVE CENTS

In Memoriam

VOL. XI, No. 36

Westminster

A London correspondent writes: come as somewhat of a surprise, as BISHOP BOURNE'S SUCCESSOR it was generally expected that the choice would fall upon either Dr. olics of this country, for Dr. Bourne during the term of his episcopacy at Southwark has shown himself to be possessed in a very eminent degree of the beautiful to be possessed in a very emi ly a Bishop of the people, and the 1887. He was appointed a professi diocese of Southwark, embracing as it at St. Bede's College, Manchester, o does the whole of London south of which institution he has been the Thames, bears abundant evidence some years Rector. of the remarkable missionary zeal foundation of the Machester Geograand great administrative gifts dis- phical Society, and has the distincplayed by him during the nine years tion of having written the first text of his episcopacy. These qualities book, published in the piece of commercial geography. will now be transferred to the larger and more exalted sphere in the Archdiocese of Westminster, where there can be little doubt that Dr. Bourne will worthily maintain the high traditions of his great predecessors. It at Saintes on Aug. 23. The town was is thought that his appointment will decorated with flags. The Premier be followed-if not immediately at was warmly acclaimed with cries of least at an early date-by the bestowal upon him of the Cardinal's hat, as in the case of previous hold- Republic," "Down with the Calotte." ers of the high office.

fact, with one exception, the youngest of the English Bishops. He was born at Clapham, on March 23rd, there existed a trend of ideas which Ware street, Surplice, Paris, and the University of Louvain. Ordained a of the Church and State. If this pospriest in 1884, he was appointed Rec- sibility should be realized, it would be tor of Southwark Diocesan Seminary both just and necessary that the in 1889. In 1895 he was named do-State should accord to all creeds the mestic prelate to the late Pope in recognition of his labors in promoting Catholic education in England, and became titular Bishop of Epiphania and Coadjutor to the late Bishop of Southwark in 1896. A year later, on the resignation of Dr. Butt through ill-health and advanced age, sor in the Bishopric. He has hitherto shown but little interest in political matters, but it is believed that of his immediate predecessor.

partment, having been previously emand that of the United States. The new Archbishop's mother. Byrne, says The London Daily Chroni-Byrne, merchant, of Dublin. Losing educated in France, and resided there and again after her husband's early death, which left her in very strait-

FURRIERS

A NEW STORE

This week we open our

newshowrooms for Ladies'

Walking Hats and Waterproof Coats. It is in itself

a whole new store, occupying one entire floor of the large addition to our building. It contains only the latest designs issued-all of these, some fifty cases,

arrived by express last

& D. DINEEN CO.

GE&TEMPERANO

The New Archbis of owing to her courage and self-sacrifice ened circumstances. It was entirely that the education of her two sons, the elder of whom died when he was ally seventeen, was not allowed to suffer in any way by the loss of their father. She died in 1900, at the The appointment of Dr. Bourne, age of seventy-three, having had the Bishop of Southwark, to the vacant consolation of seeing her surviving Archbishopric of Westminster has son raised to the Episcopate.

Father Casartelli, who has been Headley, Bishop of Newport, or Dom ceed to the Bishopric of Salford, is a Gasquet, President of the English Manchester man, having been born of Benedictines, which were the two first names submitted. The decision of the Congregation will be received here. the Congregation will be received here he had a brilliant career at Ushaw with general satisfaction by the Cath-College, Durham, and he took the the high qualities necessary for the ology and Oriental languages at Lougreater office to which he has now been called. Dr. Bourne is essential-

> He took an active part in the book, published in 1884, on the sub

Combes Insults the Papacy

M. Combes opened a new tramway "Long live Combes," "Long live the The Premier afterwards held a recep-The new Archbishop is a singularly tion of the local authorities at the young man for such a post, being in Sub-Prefecture. Replying to the Protestant clergyman, he said that 1861, and was educated at St. Cuth- tended to bring about, perhaps in the bert's College, Ushaw St. Edmonds, near future, a change in the relations liberties which they had the right to enjoy as safeguards of freedom of conscience.

Speaking at a banquet subsequently M. Combes said he had dealt such rude blows to reaction that the Dr. Bourne was appointed his succes- friends of the latter overwhelmed him with abuse. The real cause of all this was that he assumed the reins of power just after the promulgation his sympathies correspond rather to of the law (the Congregations Law), those of Cardinal Manning than those which, in the opinion of the Republican majority, was a law of defence against Clericalism, the undying ene-Westminster, Henry Bourne, was at my of the Republic. At the head of a the time of his death in 1870 princi- majority he had dislodged the enemy pal clerk in the Receiver-General's from the strong positions which he branch of the Post Office. Protracted had occupied in consequence of preand unremitting work in connection vious Governments (prolonged cheers) with the purchase of the telegraphic I am, he continued, resolved to consystem by the Government was the time the fight without mercy until direct cause of his premature death at the triumph of the Republican spirit the age of forty-four. The Bishop's over the clerical spirit is attained, regrandfather had been similarly occu- maining impervious to insults, menped in the Civil Service, and was in aces and entreaties from whatever succession President of Inland Mails quarter they may come. The country and Controller of the Circulation De- alone can say if I fulfifil my mission to its satisfaction, and it is to the ployed in 1844 and 1849 respectively country, accordingly, that I appeal in the negotiation of postal conven- (cheers). But, though the country Retions with the Egyptian Government publicans approve the struggle which we have commenced against Nation-Ellen alist and Clerical reaction and encourage the Government to persevere cle, was the second daughter of John in its task of defending the Republic, the country holds aloof from all both parents at an early age, she was adroit calculations and all interested intrigues. The one point predominfor many years before her marriage ates over everything in its eyes-that is the necessity for all-and especially all Republicans - to unite in a resodute and solid phalanx against enemy and to support the Ministry energetically in its firm determination to carry out in due order the reforms promised to the country Reaction has forsaken its old colors. It now styles itself "Action Liberale." Its language has It now exalts liberty the supreme arbitrator between the parties. It promises complete liberty on the condition only that it shall be the liberty of its friends-that is to say, the liberty of the religious congregations. He referred in derisive terms to those reactionaries, who, while pluming themselves upon their liberation, embodied their theories of liberty in a rigid system resembling the money of the Empire, which bore the words "French Republic" on one side and "Napoleon Emperor" on the other. The "Action Liberale" Party replaced the monarch's head by the cies were of equal value. He saw in the "Action Liberale" Party only the counter-revolution, which by a verbal quibble sought to substitute itself for the revolution. The Republicans, the Premier concluded, who have always shown themselves so zeafous to defend the rights of the civil authority against the encroachments of the religious authority, will not allow themselves to be tempted. The real

Republicans will remain true to the Republic, because it realizes the three great blessings which a Government ought to assure to its country-the maintenance of peace, the reign of law, and respect for public and private liberty. The present Govern-ment holds itself bound in honor to confirm the country in the possession of these blessings.

ST. JOSEPH'S CONVENT, TORONTO. CHAPEL AND ACADBMY (SOUTH EAST VIEW)

Canada Permanent MORTCAGE CORPORATION

FORMERLY The Canada Permanent and Western Canada Mortgage Corpora-TORONTO ST., TORONT

DEBENTURES

Paid Up Capital Reserve Fund Invested Funds

$6,000.000.00 1,600,000,00 23,600,000.00

Ottawa Correspondence

A desire to allow the numerous readers of The Catholic Register, who ple, was filled to overflowing, have waded through my periodical duty of a silence somewhat protracted. I am now going to break that is a problem which disturbs my "The Washington of the North' is always teeming with gosswear by The Register is, I repeat, ment. mencement than that of some referthe admirable address on Irish / affairs, delivered in St. Patrick's Hall on Thursday night last, by the "Man for Galway,'

CHARLES R. DEVLIN, M.P.

Memory brings me back almost to the cradle, when I heard from the lips of a patriotic father and mother the story of Saxon cruelties and of the sufferings which a brave, a generous, and I will add an intelligent race, endured under the iron heel of a foreign usurper; I have heard the story repeated by some of the leading orators of my native country; I have speaking, never backed up with a finer array of irresistible arguments, than the clever Irish-Canadian who worthily represents the city of the Tribes in the Parliament in England The magnificent hall, with its comcapacity for nearly a thousand peoaudience listening silence, but how, or by what means, William O'Brien and others, to Irenearly two hours but we whose hands were almost blistered did not think sip ever interesting, and sometimes of the meeting Mr. D'Arcy Scott, sensational, but what to cull for the who is always greeted by an Irish very best speeches, moved a cordial the perplexing question of this mo- way," which was appropriately sec-I am sure that I onded in a brief but eloquent effort by cannot thin of a better com- Hon. Senator Cloran, the son of a thanks was also presented to Dr. ence, incomplete as it will be, to Freeland, who ably presided, and with the delivery of the National Anthem, led by Mr. W. J. McCaffrey, the audience dispersed, each satisfied with the address, and with the excellent indications of social and political amelioration which mark Ire-

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Irishmen of Ottawa are just now in the throes of an annual convulsion occasioned by the forthcoming municipal battle. People are surprised that should cast their shadows so far heard it in Canada as well as in the a significance, that Irishmen may well neighboring Republic, but candidly be pardoned if their interest in its results deepens. I have heard that there is an unwritten law solemnly wirepullers, that an Irish Catholic at certain periods is entitled to the civic chair and the civic cocked hat. do not know if this unwritten compact which has been neither signed sealed nor delivered has about it the charm of that of the Medes and the

the instrument. The prise, mingled with exultation, at the he will run well with the crowd. leading men tremendous array of spell-bound to which the Dominion Capital is honorthe eloquent speaker, only punc- ed with. Following is a fractional another candidate-I should say, "the eternal bliss. lucubrations ample time to digest the tuating his address, at frequent list of those whose names are already mental pabulum always intertwined intervals, with bursts of vehement coupled with the Mayoralty of Ot- the qualifications and the claims of therewith, has imposed upon me the cheering, all the louder, and more tawa for the year of our Lord one Mr. hearty, when a tribute was paid to thousand nine hundred and four. men I need say but very little. His beautiful and Solemn Mass was cele the services rendered, by John Red- First then, and because he is a man mond, John Dillon, Edward Blake, whose weight may be fairly considered far above the average, I produce land's cause. Mr. Devlin spoke for the name of Mr. Edward Devlin, better known in popular phraseology as "Senator" Devlin. Mr. Devlin has it was half that time. At the close been a most successful man, as a cattle dealer, and is now retired on the name and the work of the next Christian Brothers were also present palates of the tens of thousands who audience in Ottawa, in one of his and industry. Mr. Devlin may be fairly designated the Ottawa orator. vote of thanks to the "Man for Gal- During several election campaigns, both in the city and throughout adjoining counties, his clarion notes have reverberated over hill and dale. Galway man. A hearty vote of mountain and valley, and it is safe to say that the echoes of his stentorian voice have scarcely yet died away. The civic chair will be well filled by Mr. Devlin if he manages to get there The next name on the list of candidates is that of Mr. John D. Grace. editor and publisher of Canada, a newspaper unique in its character, and solitary in its greatness, which, for more than a quarter of a century has championed the Irish cause at the Dominion Capitol. Efforts have been made; through the medium of other publications, also Irish in their sympathies, to plant Mr. Grace, but jaundiced rivals coming events of such a character fell before his overpowering mastery of the situation like faundiced leaves in autumn. Mr. Grace is in the field against all comers and as he is popunext January is invested with such lar and intelligent, young and active. and withal fleet of foot, I have no hesitation in predicting that he will

Persians, but the consensus of opinliamentary orators is that, in view the Mayor's chair? Ah, here is where next, so that friend and foe alike, if make a most excellent run. The next name on my list of local leaders is that of Mr. Jas. White, a Esculapius, none less than that of tion of the Municipal Government at grieved to learn of his sudden death Ottawa is somewhat deranged; many of its members are seriously afflicted Beaverton on Saturday, 29th of Auwith billiousness, and if a good medical man is placed at their head, a John Baptist. better state of bodily health, if not of mind, may be secured. Dr. Free- most kindly, retiring disposition, posland, who is in the field, will run sessed of a very fine and manly well in the crowd, as he did some pearance and blessed with the higher few years before when seeking a haven gifts belonging to a most winsome at the municipal mahogany Next on the roll of aspirants for to his many associates who admired civic fame stands the name of Mr. in him his love of the beautiful, his Bernard Slattery, cattle dealer, and admiration of the grand, esteem for who inherits in a large measure the what was good and virtuous, and excellent qualities of an excellent fa- among these was included his love of ther, who in his day was highly re- purity and chastity. These qualities spected as a successful business man at the Dominion Capital. Mr. Slattery loved him just reason to anticipate is already a member of the Civic Council, and I have no hesitation in brightest success for the man of the hazarding the prediction that if he future. From his earliest childhood, enters the race for the Mayor's chair he was studious and fond of books. he will not be the last to reach the and had a rare and cultured taste for measure of municipal experience, and as his Irish sympathies are elastic and accommodating and above all as he possesses the happy faculty of be-see no reason under the sun why he should be knocked out of time and out of wind in his stampede to the winning post. Mr. White stands against the whole field. And now I beg to present the name of a disciple

the name of Hon. John Costigues who lowed by a solid training under the has been linked with civic aspirations Christian Brothers at the De La Salle by the local newspapers of Ottawa from which institute he graduated Through vanity and stupid effrontery, with high honors, and then entered the position was offered to Mr. Cos- St. Michael's College, where he was tigan by a well-known merchant of about to commence the last year of Sparks street, who is unknown in his Classical Course. ion, to use a phrase peculiar to Par- Irish circles at the Dominion Capi- the guidance of saintly men, he tal, and who knows in his heart that sought earnestly after truth, that of the near approach of a general he himself could not be elected for having found it, he might one election, neither the manipulator, the the position of pound-keeper in any make it known to others. Fired with wirepuller nor the man who under- section of Ottawa. Mr. Costigan, I a zeal begotten of love and self-sacstands the intricacies of political ma- am informed, bluntly refused the spon- rifice, his sole desire, which had been chinery will suffer profane hands to be sorship of the office, and hence I enkindled in childhood, was to offer laid on a treaty founded upon the may, without breach of trust, elimin- his life to the service of God principles of justice. And who is to ate his name from the long roll of His Church, to stand before the altar

Irish Catholic candidate for same which is now before me. And now | submit the name of Ald. great difficulty presents itself. J. C. Enright, of Ottawa, where he We have a most luxuriant crop of as- was born, and where during his whole an atonement for our shortcomingspirants for the chief seat in the Civic lifetime, whether in his public or pri- it being the desire of his heart to Parliament, and as there is a possi- vate capacity, his career has been one day become a Jesuit priest. bility. I might say a certainty, that marked with straightforwardness. Mr. without the addition of "dark Enright, who, owing to many years dim are human eyes. The Divine Judge horses" even, this number will go on at the Council Board, has accumulated delayed not the crown, and so, inincreasing until the first of January ed a large measure of municipal ex-1 stead of a sweet living perience, and as he is a man who longst us, we have to look up not struck with anything else, will be has never wasted wind on frosty de-blinding tears, begging submissive modious gallery, which has a seating sent staggering to the wall by sur- clamations, one is safe in saying that strength to bear our cross, through

> And now last, but by no means who in dazzling glory enters already least of all, I will give the name of what our dear Lord alone can give -Candidate"-Mr. D'Arcy Scott. devotion to Ireland's cause is well, brated by Rev. Dr. Treacy, while Rev.

in that rising continent on the Fathers Minehan and Murray, and reother side of the globe, amongst the expatriated. Celts, who there also, Rev. Fathers Frachon, Burke and are swelling in numbers and influence, the fruits of well-directed enterprise Mayor of Ottawa, are not altogether with a full attendance of the Sanctuunknown, Jealousy, that foul de- ary Boys, of which society deceased mon, for reasons easily understood, was a member. Rev. Dr. Treacy and has been somewhat industrious in Fathers Burke and Plomer accompanmanufacturing feeling against this jed the remains to their final resting man. Irishmen of a certain brand, place in St. Michael's Cemetery, whose patriotism is scarcely skindeep, tell us that his father never had much sympathy for Ireland, and parents, brothers and sisters who are that he never held himself in proper left to mourn his loss. May his soul touch with men of Irish blood. Weil, rest in peace. hold no mandate to champion the cause of Senator Scott, and if I had would prefer at once that his long and blameless life in capacities both public and private was entrusted with its defense. Does he need a defender? Well, then, let the family which he has raised and which has shouldered Irish and Catholic responsibilities in the discharge of which they have played no ignoble part, make common cause with him, and if the slanderers' tongues continue wagging, why let us hear the stories which can be selated in abodes of want and of misery as well as in asylums of charity and the venom is rendered innocuous. Would to heaven that some of the Irish Catholic millionaires whom I have known throughout Canada had raised up defenders of such a charac-

Senator Scott not an Irishman! and deliberately enacted by Ottawa man who has acquired already a large Well, I was not born for several years after my native county elected Daniel O'Connell, and paved the way for Catholic Emancipation, but have good reason to believe that the fight carried on at that memorable period against Cromwellian Landlords who were then a far more dominant faction than they are today, was bitter, and if the incorruptible forty shilling freeholders, were able to chase the Vandeleurs, the Bloods and the Gores with the base spawn who rallied around from the polls and into the River Fergus at Ennis, it was due largely to the spirit and genius of a near relative to the Canadian Secretary of State, another "Dick" Scott, who, during that momentous struggle acted as agent for O'Connell! Mr. Scott, we are told, is not in sympathy with Ireland's cause. Well, his methods for exhibiting his want of sympathy are very strange, and entirely at variance with those employed by his slanderers; for whilst he has warmly espoused the political and religious faith professed by the majority of the Irish people, and through the agency of voice, pen and purse, has endeavored to promote the advancement of both, sufficient to buy a pound of salt could not be wrung from some of the llows who are decrying him.

coming all things to all men, I can John Aloysius Doyle, Died Aug. 29th. 1903, Aged 18 Years, 2 Months and 8 Days

The many friends of John Aloysius Doyle, eldest son of Bernard J. and Julia M. Doyle, 77 Anne street, Tomy friend Dr. Freeland. The constitu- ronto, were sadly surprised and deeply by drowning, which took place at gust, the Feast of Beheading of St. The deceased young boy was of a noble character, which endeared him gave to the many who knew and from the boy of the present the music. His first education was receiv-Next in the list of candidates comes |ed at Loretto Convent, this being foland there put all our sorrows offer them to the Eternal Father as

How little is earthly planning, how the intercession of our young saint,

His funeral was held on Tuesday from the home of his parents to St. Scott for the support of Irish- Michael's Cathedral, where a most understood in Ottawa, a knowledge of Father Rohleder presided at the orit has invaded two hemispheres, and gan. In the Sanctuary were Rev. presenting St. Michael's College were Plomer. The sympathy of the entire community is with his sorrow-stricken

DEATH

CRUISE-John Cruise, at his residence, 206 Bleecker street, Toronto, on Sunday, Sept. 6th, 1903, in the 76th year of his age. Funeral at 9 a.m. Tuesday from the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes.

The Highest Type of Excellence in Musical Instruments is Exemplified

BELL PIANOS

GUELPH, ONTARIO

PERPETUAL SECTIONAL BOOKCASE

Piano is well constructed. It has been used by some of the world's greatest musical artists, who have been manimous in describing it

The merits of a piano lie in the construction, on which depends the tone, quality and the endurance Heintzman & Co.

The Office Specialty Mfg. Co. 77 BAY STREET, TORONTO, CANADA

which converts more raw material into earning power and places more young men and women in good positions than any institution of the kind in Pope's slipper, but the two curren-CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

> SHORTHAND, TYPEWRITING and TELEGRAPHY

Ontario

Always open. No vacations, Twelve teachers. Fine equipment, Special Summer Session for July and August

W. H. SHAW, Principal