

LATEST CABLE NEWS.

LONDON, May 17, 1883. The four defeats inflicted on the Cabinet by Irish votes have thrown the Liberals into a wild state of anger. In speeches, articles, and resolutions the members of the party are denounced as "Papists," "rebels," "an unscrupulous faction," and the like. The prospect of their holding the balance of power in the next Parliament is the real ground of this outbreak of rage.

VICTORY NEARING. The Echo explains the position in these remarkable words: "The Irish people have the game in their own hands unless we disfranchise them. If they are ready to vote steady, and subscribe a third of the money they gave O'Connell for fifteen years they may be as free as Canada or Australia before the end of the century."

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE IS NOW DOING splendidly. At a meeting last week, the amount announced as received was £620, of which £214 was from Father Walsh. Mr. Redmond, M.P., who has already sent £2,000 from Australia, promises £1,000 monthly during the campaign.

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN. The campaign of meetings was opened last Sunday by gatherings in Limerick, Wexford and the Queen's County. The general tenor of the speeches and resolutions is indicated by the following, which was passed in the county last-mentioned: "That we regard the present Government as the most anti-Irish and tyrannical since the days of Cromwell, combining the craft, designing nature of the Saxon with the intolerable despotism of Russia."

THE TRIBUTE TO PARNELL. The Parnell Memorial Fund now amounts to seven thousand six hundred and eighty-eight pounds.

CRIMES ACT IN DUBLIN. The trial of Fitzharris as an accessory to the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke was begun on Tuesday in Dublin and was concluded on Wednesday morning. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against him, and he was sentenced to penal servitude for life. Judge O'Brien, in passing the sentence on Fitzharris, said: "The crime of which you are convicted is morally the same as that of murder. The deaths of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke were mainly owing to your act in inducing Smith to point out the victims."

Nearly all the tradesmen of Dublin have received a circular, which is termed "An Analysis of the Special Juries on Eighteen Trials under the Crimes Act." Enclosed with the circular was a slip containing the words: "Woe to you, if you have any of the goods of these jurors, for you and likewise they will have the blood and suffering of innocent people on your heads." The slip is signed "By hook or by crook," Patrick O'Brien, formerly secretary of the Liverpool Land League; Michael Hynde, a printer, and Patrick Slater, the foreman of Hynde, were arrested for printing and spreading the circulars. They were remanded for trial, and admitted to bail.

When Joseph Mullett was leaving the dock after receiving sentence on Thursday week, he said he would get justice elsewhere, the Irish would get justice for him.

THE DYNAMITE PRISONERS. In the Bow Street Police Court on Friday week all the dynamite conspiracy prisoners, except O'Connell, James Dalton, whom the Crown was unable to connect with the others, were committed for trial on the charge of treason-felony. Patrick Norman, the informer, was committed on a charge of misdemeanor. O'Connell, on leaving the dock, was re-arrested by detectives from London, to which city he was taken and arraigned in court next morning, and formally remanded. The charges on the 28th of June at the Old Bailey. On the arraignment of the prisoners the policemen who arrested Curtin were called to the witness stand and stated that the prisoner when apprehended said he had come from New York on February 2. His address in that city he gave as No. 301 East Forty-ninth street. The officers who arrested Dr. Gallagher testified to having found in the prisoner's clothes orders for admission to the House of Commons. The policemen also stated that although Curtin when arrested denied all acquaintance with the other prisoners he was greeted by Whitehead when they were brought face to face.

O'Herlihy and Kennedy, alias Featherstone, who were charged in Liverpool with having engaged in the dynamite conspiracy, were remanded for another week. Counsel for the Crown, in asking for their remand, stated that another arrest had been made in connection with the case, and more time was required for the development of evidence.

THE POPE ON AGITATION. A despatch from Rome says that the circular addressed by the Pope to the Irish bishops was sent on the 11th inst. The Pope, in the circular, says: "Whatever Mr. Parnell's object may be his followers have often adopted a course openly against the rules of the Pope's letter to Cardinal McCabe and the instructions sent to the bishops which were accepted at their recent meeting in Dublin. While it is lawful for the Irish to seek redress for their grievances, and to strive for their rights they should at the same time seek God's justice and remember the wickedness of illegal means in furthering even a just cause. It is the duty of the clergy to curb the excited feelings of the people and to urge justice and moderation. The clergy are not permitted to depart from these rules and to join and promote movements inconsistent with them. Collections to relieve distress are permitted, but subscriptions to inflame popular passions are condemned. The clergy must hold aloof when it is plain that by such movements hatred and dissension are aroused, or disreputable persons incited, or when crimes and murders go uncondemned, and when patriotism is measured by the amount subscribed, for the people are thereby intimidated. Therefore the Parnell fund is disapproved, and no clergyman should recommend subscriptions thereto or assume its name. It assures the clergy that they are certainly not forbidden to assist in raising collections to relieve distress. It is stated that Archbishop Crooke, on his return from Rome to Ireland, will pay a visit to Cardinal McCabe, and that the latter will come to Rome to confer with the Pope as soon as his health will permit him to undertake the journey.

Archbishop Crooke is said to have sent a communication to Cardinal Jacobini, the Papal Secretary of State, maintaining that his conduct in relation to the agitation in Ireland had been perfectly regular, and that his object was not to stimulate revolt, but to obtain for the people right and justice. The explanation of the Archbishop, it is said, was not deemed satisfactory at the Vatican.

Mr. Parnell is reported to have expressed himself as satisfied that the Government party were endeavoring to produce a spirit of disorganization in the new National League, by making false use of the Pope's letter forbidding active political agitation against the government by the Irish clergy. Mr. Parnell says that in the Papal letter is more advisory than mandatory, the Catholic Church not being a State Church. If such a letter should be addressed by the Church of England to the clergy of the Established Church it would undoubtedly be mandatory. But there being no such political relation between the Church of Rome and the Irish people, the utterance of the Pope would be properly appreciated and obeyed by the Irish Catholic clergy without in any sense interfering with their real political freedom of action.

FROM OTTAWA.

CORPUS CHRISTI. The great solemnity of Corpus Christi will be celebrated in the Capital of the Dominion by a procession on Sunday next through certain of the leading streets of the city. If the weather proves favorable there will be, as usual, an immense attendance of the faithful. We have been favored with a copy of the programme, which, with pleasure, we lay before our readers.

High Mass at nine o'clock. After Mass the procession will start from the Basilica and go down Sussex street as far as St. Andrew, thence to King, and return by Murray to the Basilica.

ORDER OF PROCESSION. Christian Brothers' Pupils. Pupils of the Grey Nuns' Schools. Girls of the Immaculate Conception. Congregations of the Holy Family. Women and Girls of St. Ann's Parish. Women of the St. Ann's Congregations Irish and French. Women of the various Congregations. St. Jean Baptiste Society gentlemen of St. Ann's Parish. Members of Union St. Thomas. Members of the Holy Family. Ladies of the Holy Family. St. Patrick's Literary Association. Ladies of the Holy Family. Men of the various Parishes. Ladies of Notre Dame Convent and Pupils. Sexton, Cross and Acolytes. Choirs of St. Ann's Parishes. Choirs of St. Andrew's Cathedral. Cross and Acolytes. Clergy.

BLESSED SACRAMENT. Ministers of the Crown. Deputy Ministers. Barristers, Physicians. Members of the Council. Employees of the Civil Service. Congregations of the Holy Family. ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH. His Lordship Bishop Duhamel held on Sunday last, in St. Patrick's Church, Ottawa, a solemn Confirmation service in the presence of an immense congregation of the laity of the parish and a large concourse of the city clergy. Ninety children, who had for weeks been under the auspicious preparation of the worthy pastor of St. Patrick's Church, received the sacred rite of confirmation at the hands of the chief pastor of the diocese. High Mass, commissio pontificis, was then celebrated by one of the young priests ordained the day before. The occasion was one of special solemnity and signal impressiveness and will not soon be forgotten by the faithful Catholics of Ottawa.

THE GREY NUNS' CHAPEL. On last Sunday afternoon, His Lordship Bishop Duhamel, Ottawa, solemnly blessed the corner-stone of the new chapel now in course of construction for the Grey Nuns in that city. The new chapel, which when completed will be its modest and simple, but tasteful decorations were one of the ornaments of the Dominion Capital, will have a frontage on Sussex Street, facing Nepean Point, one of the most lively and picturesque spots on the Ottawa river. From its turret will be visible the magnificent Chaudiere Falls, and the Laurentian mountains appear in bold and pleasing relief.

There was a large attendance at the ceremony, the discourse of the day being pronounced by the Rev. Father Fillard, O. M. I.

The new chapel will be connected with the mother house of the grey nuns of Bolton Street and St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, on Cathcart—between both of which institutions their foundations have been laid.

ORDINATION. On Saturday last, His Lordship the Bishop of Ottawa held an ordination in the College chapel, Ottawa. Six young levites were advanced to the order of priesthood. All are members of the congregation of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. They are Rev. Fathers Leyden, Legault, Beaulieu, Maron, Blais, and Laporte. We tender them our best wishes for many years of happiness and usefulness in the holy ministry of God.

Where the Money Goes. From the Christian Register. In a certain manufacturing town, an employer on Saturday paid to his workmen $700 in crisp new bills that had been secretly marked. On Monday $450 of those identical bills were deposited in the bank by the saloon-keepers. When the fact was made known, the workmen were so startled by it that they helped to make the place a no-license town. The times would not be so "hard" for the workmen if the saloon-keepers did not take in so much of their wages.

FROM ONTARIO.

The Bazaar organized by the Rev. Father Cadigan, the zealous and indefatigable pastor of Onslow, in aid of his church of St. Catharine. The purpose of its promoter originally was to hold it in June, but the project has met with such ready, generous and widespread support that its postponement will admirably serve to give the many friends of the good priest of Onslow and of the excellent work he has in hand, full opportunity of doing all that they wish to do in furtherance of the erection of a temple worthy the solemn rites of Catholic worship in the parish under his care.

The prize list of the Bazaar is steadily on the increase and the tickets being disposed of with a success rarely attempted when the numbers of such undertakings is held in consideration. The temperance association organized some months ago by Father Cadigan is already bearing fruit, and the fidelity of its members to their voluntarily contracted obligations exemplary in every regard. There have been various attempts made in the county of Pontiac outside the Catholic Church to check the torrent of intemperance, but none have accomplished a tithe of the good already effected by Father Cadigan's organization. This organization, as already shown in the record, is a financial success on those necessarily unflattering sources of good—prayer and the frequenting of the Sacraments. Two of the parishioners of Quio mission have lately given testimony of a generosity alike creditable to their ardent faith and honorable to the parish at large. These worthy Catholics are Messrs. James Kirwan and P. Clarke, who have kindly donated magnificent statues to fill the niches at each side of the Sanctuary in St. Mary's Church, Quio. The former gentleman gave a statue of the Blessed Virgin and the latter one of the Sacred Heart.

The Parnell Fund is meeting with generous support from the warm-hearted and patriotic people of Onslow. His Lordship Bishop Lorrain will visit this parish on his Vicariate some time in June. His Lordship will be accorded a hearty reception by the faithful Catholics of the place.

THE RECORD has two earnest and energetic agents in this parish, Mr. P. Clarke in the village of Quio and South Onslow, and Mr. M. Dolan in North Onslow, and adjacent municipalities.

Mr. Stephen Smith is agent for the town of Onslow. By his efforts these worthy Catholics of the Record will soon be found in every family of this Catholic district. OCCASIONAL.

BERLIN LETTER. Grand Sacred Concert. The sacred concert and organ recital given on Pentecost Monday (May 14th) by the Catholics of Berlin, in aid of the new organ fund, was a magnificent success financially. In an artistic sense it was one of the best ever given in that city. The place taken in this vicinity. Although during the day and evening the weather was most disagreeable and depressing still a very large audience assembled to do honor to the occasion; the first families of the town and county being well represented. Everything went off with a dash and vim that spoke well for the capacity of the Rev. manager, Rev. Dr. Speck. C. R. The music, which was rendered in a most artistic manner, was of the highest order, being selections from such masters as Mozart, Rossini, Haydn, Mercadante, etc. No much cannot be said in praise of the Guelph choir, which sang in a magnificent manner in which they gave their part in the programme (and it was no small part either). The general verdict was that Guelph possesses one of the finest and best trained choirs in Ontario. The chorus is really magnificent, and they sing together in a manner that is admirable. To mention each individual member in so large an organization would occupy too much time and space, but of Miss Hayes, the principal soprano, it is but just to say that she has a voice of rare sweetness and purity, and which she uses with great skill. Her singing in the "Inflammatus" from Rossini's Stabat Mater, and her part in the religious in feeling and sung in an artistic manner that reflects great credit on the ability of her Rev. tutor and upon her own appreciation of the beautiful score. The great success of the Guelph choir is a matter of no small degree to the efficiency and musical training of their conductor, Rev. Father Fleck, S. J. This gentleman is a finished conductor, a grand musician, and wields the baton in a manner that carries everything along with him. He is now here, now there, encouraging, sustaining, in fact he led the singers through in a manner that allowed of their failure. The Berlin choir did excellent work in their two selections, the Ave Verum by Mercadante being especially well rendered. The tenor in this piece, Mr. Miller, possesses a voice phenomenal in range, clear in tone, beautiful in quality and showing the effects of careful training. He is easily one of the best tenors in the province. Miss Dornier sang with great feeling and expression, displaying her pleasing voice to advantage; and Brother Alexander gave excellent assistance with a powerful baritone which he uses with exceeding taste. Miss Donahue surprised her friends by her singing in the "Agnus Dei" by Bolla-mann; she proved that she is the happy possessor of a remarkably sweet soprano voice. The Berlin Orchestra Society added their share to the evening's amusement by the rendition of some beautiful music; and by their efforts they highly pleased. The star of the evening was master George Fox, of Walkerton, the wonderful child violinist. This little boy commands his bow with a master-hand and plays with such passion and pathos as to fairly entrance his audience. Those who heard this child genius will not soon forget it, for such mastery playing is not often heard. Prof. Franz A. Appel, of Detroit, Mich., fully sustained the enviable reputation that preceded him here. His interpretation and rendering of the different works selected left nothing to be desired. His touch is firm and at the same time musical in the extreme; he never pounds the instrument and his technique is almost perfect. The most difficult passages seemed but child's play for him. The new organ, which was used for the first time on this occasion, is a fine instrument built by Mr. George Vogt, of Elmira, Ont. This gentleman has also constructed other splendid organs in this province. It is a double rank, pipe organ, having fifteen full sets of pipes; in these sets are embraced about nine hundred pipes; there are some twenty-three stops, and the cost of all was two thousand dollars. All those who have seen the organ have praised it highly for its richness and sweetness of tone, thorough workmanship and artistic finish. The excellence of the swell organ enables the performer to execute the most delicate crescendo and decrescendo with great ease.

The placing in position of their fine organ has now completed the interior of the church of "Our Lady of Sorrows." Very Rev. Dr. Funcken, C.R., has displayed great taste in furnishing and decorating this new beautiful little church; it is a perfect gem, and it would be difficult to find a more handsome little temple anywhere.

With many hearty wishes for the continued success of your estimable and truly Catholic paper, J. A. L.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH. Within the walls of Christ Church Cathedral, in the city of Dublin, but a few weeks ago a scene worthy of a painter was enacted. That ancient pile, with buttresses and carven and solemn Gothic arches transfixed to stone, as though by the days of the Norman invasion, seven hundred years ago, was tenanted by the members of the synod of the government Episcopal Protestant Church, and one of the questions before it was how to deal with an old oak box "falling to pieces," that contained what they called "the ancient silver vessels."

Chalice and pyx and ciborium and monstrance, that were spared from Cromwell's robbers and William's pillagers, are there, unused, unreverenced and midwived, the testimonies of transmitted robbery. They are testimonies against the creed-masters whose descendants control and defile the sacred old temple, and they mutely tell how they once shone on the altar before which, for hundreds of years, has hung no lamp or knee as without play of rust and the dew and time consume them.

What a mockery for a Protestant synod to gather to-day in that old church of a Catholic nation and a Catholic people! The dead in their tombs beneath the slabs of aisle and chancel and transept, from whose tombs are without play of rust and the dew and time consume them.

At that old altar, carved centuries ago, there was a strange episode when Sarsfield sailed away from Limerick forever with the gallant army that fought with him at his walls. The Protestant Bishop of the time, who was without play of rust and the dew and time consume them.

It was a terrible gospel to preach from a hallowed spot, but it had its effect. The nation was to lose all if it remained Catholic. The rapine of the soldiers of Elizabeth and Cromwell and William was to be legalized and prosecuted until the Irish people, that were without play of rust and the dew and time consume them.

IT LEADS ALL. No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint in the system, Sarsaparilla will cure it. For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the only medicine that will stop the noxious material discharge, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin. "Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882. 'Ulcerous' "At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with sores with ulcers running sores on its face and neck. At the same time its eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful purgative medicine must be employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies, and no treatment of any disorder was ever attempted, more prompt or effectual results. Yours truly, B. F. JOHNSON." PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5. $5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address Sisson & Co., Portland, Me.
