COMMERCIAL.

London Markets.

There was an exceedingly good market to-day considering the bad roads. Besides the small stuff there was considerable grain, for which the prices remained the same. We quote:

Hicks & Co., West Smithfield, London, England, supplies weekly, a circular showing the state of the sheep and cattle market, and as it comes direct we think it may be of importance to many of our readers, both buyers and sellers.

Market finished up well last week, which together with short supplies this week, led to active demands at enhanced rates, especially for mutton. The Canada beef offered was of inferior quality, and can only be quoted at 13½c for best. Good Canadian mutton being scarce, brought readily 10c. A clearance was effected for both beef and mutton.
