

INTERESTING MISCELLANY.

A MUNIFICENT GIFT. Mrs. John Preston, of our city, says the Louisville Catholic Advocate, whose munificence in the cause of Catholicity is proverbial, has given the Right Rev. Camillus Meehan, Bishop of Covington, the sum of $24,000 to be employed in the interest of the Church as he thinks most advisable.

AN UNEXPECTED RECEPTION. On Sunday during High Mass, in the chapel of the little village of Glengarriff, three ladies of the Protestant faith were obliged to take shelter from one of those heavy summer showers which so frequently occur in the south of Ireland.

TO THE SUFFERING. In one of the German galleries there is a peculiar painting. At first view, it is like our Lord to the dull gaze of unbelievers—there is no beauty that one should desire it. But as you approach near to it, it unfolds into wondrous beauty.

THE BRADY BROTHERS. The death of Judge Brady reminds me that he was the last of a pair of remarkable brothers—both lawyers and members of the New York bar, which never before had been graced by such fraternal genius.

AN ANGEL UNAWARES. It is undoubtedly true that occasionally "one touch of nature makes the whole world kin." The New York World gives an instance that illustrates the truth of the old proverb.

THE TURNING POINT IN THE LIFE OF A MISGUIDED GIRL. Baltimore, March 8.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Mirror tells this touching story of Christian forgiveness.

THE LITTLE GIRL'S TROUBLE. Mr. Henry Macombe, Leyland St., Blackburn, London, Eng., states that his little girl fell and struck her knee against a curbstone.

to Father Foley, and said: "Your honest girl proves to be a thief." Father Foley expressed great surprise, but quickly promised to right the matter, much to the lady's wondering curiosity.

TRUSTED IN ST. JOSEPH. Father O'Hare, of Ashbourne, England, recently told the following thrilling story at a church festival:

"Oh, then," said he, "if you go into the outhouse you will find a laborer who is dying—he is a Catholic."

"What has St. Joseph to do with the matter?" I asked him, and here is his story:

AN IRISH WASHINGTON. In one respect Ireland receives her highest honor in Chilli. The new-est bronck is the Captain Prat, another being the O'Higgins and another the Amlante Lynch.

Directly and Indirectly. Kidney complaint, dropsy and similar troubles depend directly on wrong action of the kidneys and indirectly on bad blood.

"TIME ENOUGH."

"Oh! time enough for that," said Mike. "I can't quite settle it now."

"Then it's a mighty long fast I shall be keeping," said poor Mike, looking hungrily at the meat.

"What a good thing it is to be happy! Of course it is a pleasant thing—everybody knows that—but I contend that it is also a good thing; that it warms our hearts, expands our minds, makes us more gentle, more tender, more full of charity to men, more full of love to God!

There is a popular idea extant that foods which abound in phosphorus are special brain nutrients, but it has no serious foundation.

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy.

move my head freely; and an ugly pain in my back."

"Look here, Margaret, you run for the doctor, and while you're gone, as he won't be able to get up to church, I'll just hear his confession now."

"Be comforted," said Father O'Finigan; to poor Margaret, "he died repentant; we may well hope. It was not the confession we could have wished, but there was enough of sign for absolution."
