A BEAUTIFUL LECEND.

There was a dispute among three maidens as to which had the most beautiful hand. One sat by a stream, and dipped her hand into the water, and held it up; another plucked strawberries until the ends of her fingers were pink, and another gathered violets until her hands were the list with a collection of £4,323 and fragrant.

An old, haggard woman passing by asked, "Who will give me a gift, for I am poor?"

All these denied her; but another who sat near, gave her a gift. And then she asked them what was the dispute, and they told, lifting up before her their hands.

Then said she, "It is the hand that tiful." As she said these words her wrinkles fled, her staff was thrown away, and she stood before them an angel from Heaven.

"Sir," said a lad, coming down to one of the wharves in Boston, and matism are the results of a run-down "have you any berth on your ship? do not build up the nervous system." I want to earn something."

"What can you do?" asked the years and never was able to obtain gentleman.

rom rheumatism, tried all the remedies known, and yet utterly failed to find relief.

At times he was so helpless that he had to take morphine and after considerable doctoring he gave up in despair. He began studying into the causes of rheumatism, and after much experimenting, finally found a combination of drugs which completely cured him. The result was so beneficial to his entire system that he called his new found remedy "Gloria Tonic." Those of his illustrated book on rheumatism, absolutely free friends, relatives and neighbors suffering from of charge, to any reader of The Canadian Churchrheumatism were next cured and Mr. Smith con- man, for he is anxious that everybody should cluded to offer his remedy to the world. Mr. George Lees, of Dundas, Ont. says that he tried many different remedies, but found no relief until he tried "Gloria Tonic," while Clarence A. Scott writes from Tooleton, N.B., that he feels that he owes his life to this great remedy.

A case of 13 years' suffering is reported by James McFarlan, of L'Amable, Ont., but "Gloria Tonic" cured it quickly. Even prominent physicians have to admit that "Gloria Tonic" is a positive success, among them Doctor Quintero of the University of Venezuela, to whom it was recommended by the United States Consul. In hundreds of other instances the result has been the same. It cured many cases which defied Hospitals, Drugs and Electricity, among them persons of upwards eighty years of age.
