

Saturday July 2d, 1768.

Mr. Hinsbelwood, from the Committee appointed Yesterday, to confer with the Committee of His Majesty's Council, upon the Amendments proposed to be made to the Act in Addition to an Act relating to the Maintenance of the Poor, Reported, that the Committee had agreed to some Alteration of the Amendments proposed, and the House having resumed the Consideration thereof, agreed to the Bill with some Amendments, and Ordered the same to be engrossed, and sent up to his Majesty's Council.

Poor Bill amended,

and sent to the council.

The House then took into Consideration a Bill in Addition to the Act relating to Treasons and Felonies, which was read ; whereupon they Resolved, that a Message be sent to his Majesty's Council, to desire they would appoint a Committee to join a Committee of the House to confer upon the subject Matter of the said Bill, and of an additional Clause to be made thereto.

Act relating to Treasons and Felonies,

Committee of Conference thereon.

The House also took under Consideration the Bill, intituled An Act for granting to his Majesty a Duty on Wheel Carriages within the Peninsula of Halifax, which being read, was Ordered to be committed, whereupon the House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, and having spent some Time therein, Mr. Tonge, from the Committee, reported, that the House had gone thro' the said Bill, and had agreed to the same with Amendments, Ordered, that the same be engrossed and sent to his Majesty's Council.

Bill for laying a Duty on Wheel-Carriages,

sent to the Council.

The Council acquainted the House by Message, that they had appointed Mr. Gerrish, and Mr. Zouberbubler a Committee, to join a Committee of the House, to confer upon the Bill in Addition to the Act relating to Treasons and Felonies, agreeable to the Request of the House this Morning, where-
