

LOCAL MATTERS OF INTEREST.

MONDAY

The body of the late Mrs. M. McLean arrived in the city on the early train this morning. It was taken to Norton, where Rev. Father Burns read the burial service. Interment was in the Norton Catholic burying ground.

A hundred and fifty Scotch laborers are expected in St. John any day now on the Donaldson line Cassandra to work on the Transcontinental Railway. They will be taken north by an I. C. R. special.

The common clerk is in receipt of a letter from C. L. Young, an attorney at Springfield, Mass., seeking information about Benjamin Harris or relatives of his. The letter says he was a resident of St. John some years ago, and went from here to Chelsea, where he married Melissa Church.

James E. Moore, of Portland, Me., is at the Royal. He is here preparing for the opening of Keith and Proctor's vaudeville performances. Mr. Moore states that the season will open on Christmas eve. An especially strong programme has been arranged. There will be a change of bill each week and two performances each evening on Mondays when there will be no matinees.

Mr. Moore will visit the city every few days throughout the winter. He is a popular theatrical man and has numerous friends here.

The Marquis of Donegal, "hereditary Lord High Admiral of Lehigh Neagh," and the youngest member of the peerage, has reached the mature age of three years. In accordance with custom, a place is already reserved in the house of lords cloak room wherein he will hang his hat and coat what time, eighteen years hence, he legislates for his country. Between the marquis and Lord Gwydyr, the oldest living peer, there is a difference of ninety-three years.

TUESDAY

J. Roydon Thomson, the Norwegian consul here, has received the personal effects of the captain and crew of the bark Adona, which was wrecked off Richbucto. They will be forwarded to Norway.

W. E. Muldady, who resigned recently as travelling representative of the Laughrin Carriage Co., has returned from Brockville, Ont. where he was appointed Maritime Provinces representative of the Cnada Carriage Co. of Brockville. He left last night for Nova Scotia to take up the new work.

Col. H. McLean, who has been in Montreal in connection with the dispute between the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. and the Dominion Coal Co. has returned to the city, although he leaves again tomorrow. Speaking last night Col. McLean said that there is nothing new about the Shore Line. It is waiting, he said, for a purchaser as it had been for many years.

Rev. B. N. Nobles, Baptist clergyman, brother of Rev. B. H. Nobles, who has accepted a call to Victoria street church, North End, is in the city today. He comes back to St. John at the dictate of Dan Cupid, to marry the object of his hand parading of the Carleton Baptist congregation. Rev. Mr. Nobles says he is very satisfactorily situated in his Sackville parsonate.

Dr. Thomas Walker delivered an illustrated lecture on Clothing last night to the Graduate Nurses' Association at his home. The learned lecturer placed himself on record as opposed to the frivolous high heels, and looked with disapproval upon the use of the straight front. After the lecture the nurses were entertained in a very delightful manner by Dr. and Mrs. Walker with dainty refreshments and music.

Rev. Dr. Annand, who has delivered a number of addresses here, left yesterday morning for Truro. He has now completed his tour of the provinces, and will rest for the remainder of his furlough before returning to the New Edinburgh. At the lecture delivered in the Fairview Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening a young man and his fiancée were present who have signified their willingness to go to the New Edinburgh as missionaries. Their application is now before the mission board.

At a business meeting held in Brunswick street Baptist church last evening, preparatory to the annual meeting reports from the heads of various departments were received. The church was found to be in a most flourishing condition and it is likely that at the annual meeting in January the finances will show a substantial surplus. Last evening, to complete a board of seven deacons, filling vacancies, caused by death, the congregation appointed C. J. Stammers and L. A. Belyea. The office of church clerk was filled by the appointment of W. H. Golding. Rev. A. B. Cobbe presided at the meeting.

The C. P. R. steamer Mount Temple arrived at Partridge Island yesterday morning about nine o'clock and docked at Sand Point about 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon. Besides a large general cargo she brought out from Antwerp about 300 immigrants. A number of them were ill with measles, and a party of seven were taken to the quarantine station on Partridge Island.

At the quarterly meeting of the first Methodist church of Charlottetown held last evening a unanimous invitation was extended the pastor, Rev. William Dobson, to remain for a fourth year.

It is almost impossible to secure laborers for the extra work now going on in the I. C. R. yards. Several working men have been working day and night for the past three or four days at snow shovelling. Assistance is coming from the outside. — Transcript.

At a meeting of the trustees of St. David's Church last evening, it was decided to allow the young people of the church the use of the ground in the rear for a skating rink. There is considerable space behind the church, and tennis courts were made there last spring. The place will soon be flooded, as it is meant to have skating before Christmas.

A wedding of considerable interest to St. John people took place in Winnipeg on Sunday afternoon, when Miss Agnes Hamm, of West St. John, eldest daughter of the late Robert Hamm, was united in marriage to Percy Flewelling, formerly of Mahogany Road, St. John. Both Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling are well known in this city.

Wallace Cummings, who for five years was a valued clerk in the clothing section of Greater Oak Hall, died and was buried at Lubec, Me., last Thursday after a three months' illness of tuberculosis. Deceased, who leaves a widow and two small children, was a man of a quiet friendly disposition and a favorite with his workfellows, all of whom learned of his demise with keen regret.

The big Donaldson liner Cassandra arrived at Partridge Island yesterday afternoon with a fair amount of general cargo from Glasgow and 314 passengers, 75 of whom are first class. Part of the cargo consists of 4,967 bags anthracite coal and 1,673 bags of Scotch refined sugar. She also has on board two hackney stallions, seven Clydesdale stallions and three Clydesdale fillies consigned to Bowden McDonnell, also one blood mare for J. C. C. Bremner. Capt. John Mitchell, well known in this port, is in command of the liner, and will dock his ship at No. 4 berth on this morning's tide will land her passengers. She will then move over to the McLeod wharf.

It is understood that a number of members of the City Cornet Band are planning an excursion which is out of the ordinary run. They propose a trip to Ireland to be made next summer during the time the Dublin exhibition is open. Although no definite plans have been made, several of the bandmen think that such an excursion would appeal strongly to Irishmen now residing in Canada, as well as to some few other persons who look forward to one day seeing the old country. The fare is earned, may be arranged at fifty dollars, and the round trip from St. John, and if after the matter has been agitated for a while, a reasonable number agree to go, the proposal will be carried out.

At Portsmouth, Devon (Eng.), on Nov. 25, Mrs. Shortland, widow of Admiral Shortland, died in her eighty-second year, leaving two sons—Colonel George Shortland and Capt. Frederick Shortland, R. N.—and one daughter—Mrs. Lowe—all residing in England. Two brothers—S. Jones, of Nice, France, and Douglas Jones of London; also two sisters—Mrs. Edwin Bayard of London, and Mrs. Wellington Hatch of this city.

Mrs. Shortland was the eldest daughter of the late Sheriff Jones of St. Andrews (N. B.). Admiral Shortland was on the North American station in his ship at that time, a captain, in the flites.

THURSDAY

At the quarterly meeting of the first Methodist church of Charlottetown held last evening a unanimous invitation was extended the pastor, Rev. William Dobson, to remain for a fourth year.

It is almost impossible to secure laborers for the extra work now going on in the I. C. R. yards. Several working men have been working day and night for the past three or four days at snow shovelling. Assistance is coming from the outside. — Transcript.

At a meeting of the trustees of St. David's Church last evening, it was decided to allow the young people of the church the use of the ground in the rear for a skating rink. There is considerable space behind the church, and tennis courts were made there last spring. The place will soon be flooded, as it is meant to have skating before Christmas.

A wedding of considerable interest to St. John people took place in Winnipeg on Sunday afternoon, when Miss Agnes Hamm, of West St. John, eldest daughter of the late Robert Hamm, was united in marriage to Percy Flewelling, formerly of Mahogany Road, St. John. Both Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling are well known in this city.

Wallace Cummings, who for five years was a valued clerk in the clothing section of Greater Oak Hall, died and was buried at Lubec, Me., last Thursday after a three months' illness of tuberculosis. Deceased, who leaves a widow and two small children, was a man of a quiet friendly disposition and a favorite with his workfellows, all of whom learned of his demise with keen regret.

The big Donaldson liner Cassandra arrived at Partridge Island yesterday afternoon with a fair amount of general cargo from Glasgow and 314 passengers, 75 of whom are first class. Part of the cargo consists of 4,967 bags anthracite coal and 1,673 bags of Scotch refined sugar. She also has on board two hackney stallions, seven Clydesdale stallions and three Clydesdale fillies consigned to Bowden McDonnell, also one blood mare for J. C. C. Bremner. Capt. John Mitchell, well known in this port, is in command of the liner, and will dock his ship at No. 4 berth on this morning's tide will land her passengers. She will then move over to the McLeod wharf.

TUESDAY

J. Roydon Thomson, the Norwegian consul here, has received the personal effects of the captain and crew of the bark Adona, which was wrecked off Richbucto. They will be forwarded to Norway.

W. E. Muldady, who resigned recently as travelling representative of the Laughrin Carriage Co., has returned from Brockville, Ont. where he was appointed Maritime Provinces representative of the Cnada Carriage Co. of Brockville. He left last night for Nova Scotia to take up the new work.

Col. H. McLean, who has been in Montreal in connection with the dispute between the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. and the Dominion Coal Co. has returned to the city, although he leaves again tomorrow. Speaking last night Col. McLean said that there is nothing new about the Shore Line. It is waiting, he said, for a purchaser as it had been for many years.

Rev. B. N. Nobles, Baptist clergyman, brother of Rev. B. H. Nobles, who has accepted a call to Victoria street church, North End, is in the city today. He comes back to St. John at the dictate of Dan Cupid, to marry the object of his hand parading of the Carleton Baptist congregation. Rev. Mr. Nobles says he is very satisfactorily situated in his Sackville parsonate.

Dr. Thomas Walker delivered an illustrated lecture on Clothing last night to the Graduate Nurses' Association at his home. The learned lecturer placed himself on record as opposed to the frivolous high heels, and looked with disapproval upon the use of the straight front. After the lecture the nurses were entertained in a very delightful manner by Dr. and Mrs. Walker with dainty refreshments and music.

Rev. Dr. Annand, who has delivered a number of addresses here, left yesterday morning for Truro. He has now completed his tour of the provinces, and will rest for the remainder of his furlough before returning to the New Edinburgh. At the lecture delivered in the Fairview Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening a young man and his fiancée were present who have signified their willingness to go to the New Edinburgh as missionaries. Their application is now before the mission board.

At Brunswick street Baptist church last evening, preparatory to the annual meeting reports from the heads of various departments were received. The church was found to be in a most flourishing condition and it is likely that at the annual meeting in January the finances will show a substantial surplus. Last evening, to complete a board of seven deacons, filling vacancies, caused by death, the congregation appointed C. J. Stammers and L. A. Belyea. The office of church clerk was filled by the appointment of W. H. Golding. Rev. A. B. Cobbe presided at the meeting.

The C. P. R. steamer Mount Temple arrived at Partridge Island yesterday morning about nine o'clock and docked at Sand Point about 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon. Besides a large general cargo she brought out from Antwerp about 300 immigrants. A number of them were ill with measles, and a party of seven were taken to the quarantine station on Partridge Island.

At the quarterly meeting of the first Methodist church of Charlottetown held last evening a unanimous invitation was extended the pastor, Rev. William Dobson, to remain for a fourth year.

It is almost impossible to secure laborers for the extra work now going on in the I. C. R. yards. Several working men have been working day and night for the past three or four days at snow shovelling. Assistance is coming from the outside. — Transcript.

At a meeting of the trustees of St. David's Church last evening, it was decided to allow the young people of the church the use of the ground in the rear for a skating rink. There is considerable space behind the church, and tennis courts were made there last spring. The place will soon be flooded, as it is meant to have skating before Christmas.

A wedding of considerable interest to St. John people took place in Winnipeg on Sunday afternoon, when Miss Agnes Hamm, of West St. John, eldest daughter of the late Robert Hamm, was united in marriage to Percy Flewelling, formerly of Mahogany Road, St. John. Both Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling are well known in this city.

Wallace Cummings, who for five years was a valued clerk in the clothing section of Greater Oak Hall, died and was buried at Lubec, Me., last Thursday after a three months' illness of tuberculosis. Deceased, who leaves a widow and two small children, was a man of a quiet friendly disposition and a favorite with his workfellows, all of whom learned of his demise with keen regret.

The big Donaldson liner Cassandra arrived at Partridge Island yesterday afternoon with a fair amount of general cargo from Glasgow and 314 passengers, 75 of whom are first class. Part of the cargo consists of 4,967 bags anthracite coal and 1,673 bags of Scotch refined sugar. She also has on board two hackney stallions, seven Clydesdale stallions and three Clydesdale fillies consigned to Bowden McDonnell, also one blood mare for J. C. C. Bremner. Capt. John Mitchell, well known in this port, is in command of the liner, and will dock his ship at No. 4 berth on this morning's tide will land her passengers. She will then move over to the McLeod wharf.

It is understood that a number of members of the City Cornet Band are planning an excursion which is out of the ordinary run. They propose a trip to Ireland to be made next summer during the time the Dublin exhibition is open. Although no definite plans have been made, several of the bandmen think that such an excursion would appeal strongly to Irishmen now residing in Canada, as well as to some few other persons who look forward to one day seeing the old country. The fare is earned, may be arranged at fifty dollars, and the round trip from St. John, and if after the matter has been agitated for a while, a reasonable number agree to go, the proposal will be carried out.

At Portsmouth, Devon (Eng.), on Nov. 25, Mrs. Shortland, widow of Admiral Shortland, died in her eighty-second year, leaving two sons—Colonel George Shortland and Capt. Frederick Shortland, R. N.—and one daughter—Mrs. Lowe—all residing in England. Two brothers—S. Jones, of Nice, France, and Douglas Jones of London; also two sisters—Mrs. Edwin Bayard of London, and Mrs. Wellington Hatch of this city.

ADAMS-TODD.

The marriage of Samuel G. Adams a former St. John young man to Miss Todd, of Calgary took place in that city last evening. The bride is a very well known here and was very popular. He is a traveller for the Perrin Stone Co. His many friends here will wish him and his bride every happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will reside in Calgary.

William R. Avery, one of the best known and most popular men in the city, died yesterday afternoon at his home. His death will come as a great shock to his many friends, as he was out yesterday and seemed to be in excellent spirits.

Mr. Avery entered the post office inspector's office thirty-seven years ago, when the office was located at Frederick and in charge of Mr. McMillan. He was then only thirteen years of age and worked steadily upwards until he became chief clerk, which position he has held for many years. He leaves a widow and one child, about a year old. His father and mother are both dead.

Post office inspector Colter, in speaking of the deceased yesterday, paid a very high tribute to his many splendid qualities, saying that he would be missed very much by all of his former associates, who never altogether gave up hope of seeing him back at his desk again, although the serious nature of his illness was quite fully realized.

BELYEA-GIBBONS.

Two Carleton young people were the principals in a wedding which took place at the home of the bride on Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, when Francis A. Belyea and Miss Alice M. Gibbons, daughter of Wm. Gibbons, were united by Rev. T. J. Deinstadt. The bride wore a becoming costume of brown tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Belyea will reside in Carleton.

RECENT DEATHS.

REV. GEO. W. HILL, D. D. Timothy Collins, who was so dably crushed in Hilyard's shipyard on Monday morning, died Wednesday at 11.20, at the General Public Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. Dr. Berryman will make inquiries today of the late resident, in order to determine whether he will hold an inquest or not.

Collins is survived by a widowed mother and one sister, to whom the blow is unusually severe, as his brother, Jeremiah Collins, was killed by falling from a bridge over the Lombard street to the I. C. R. railway tracks a few years ago.

O. A. BARBERIE.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Dec. 11.—O. A. Barberie, station agent here, died this evening at 7.39 after an illness of about four months. Mr. Barberie was the oldest station agent on the I. C. R. having entered the service in 1859. He was 74 years of age and was very popular and widely known with the travelling public, particularly the salmon sportsmen and being an ardent sportsman did much to make known the name of Brunswick as a sportsman's resort.

MRS. SHORTLAND.

At Portsmouth, Devon (Eng.), on Nov. 25, Mrs. Shortland, widow of Admiral Shortland, died in her eighty-second year, leaving two sons—Colonel George Shortland and Capt. Frederick Shortland, R. N.—and one daughter—Mrs. Lowe—all residing in England. Two brothers—S. Jones, of Nice, France, and Douglas Jones of London; also two sisters—Mrs. Edwin Bayard of London, and Mrs. Wellington Hatch of this city.

Mrs. Shortland was the eldest daughter of the late Sheriff Jones of St. Andrews (N. B.). Admiral Shortland was on the North American station in his ship at that time, a captain, in the flites.

JAMES MCLOON.

James McLoon, one of the oldest residents of Carleton, died suddenly yesterday at his home on Market Place. He was 83 years of age and had been ill for some time. Mr. McLoon's parents came here from Ireland and settled in Sunbury Co., where James was born. Deceased was a lumber surveyor and retired from active life three years ago. He was a member of Carleton Masonic Lodge, and a regular attendant at St. George's church, until his illness confined him to his home.

Besides Mrs. McLoon two sons and four daughters survive. They are Samuel of Miramichi, and Herbert of Carleton Place, Mrs. W. Roberts, Mrs. S. G. McLoon, and Mrs. M. G. McLoon, all residing in Carleton.

EVERY PALE WOMAN.

Read This and Learn the Way to Good Color and Better Health. Pale people have pale blood. In other words, the blood is watery and lacks red corpuscles. The stomach is wrong. Assimilation is poor and food is not changed into blood. Naturally the system is robbed of vitality, lacks strength and reconstructive power. Don't slip from vigor into weakness. Don't allow the appetite to fail, but instead use Ferrozone.

You're bound to feel rejuvenated and strengthened at once. Appetite is braced up, digestion is stimulated, vigor imparted to the stomach. Every thing you eat is transformed into nutriment that supplies what your thin, weak system needs.

Vital, life-giving blood that makes your cheeks and dancing eyes—that's the kind that Ferrozone makes.

The strength and buoyancy that defies depression and tiredness, that's the sort you get with Ferrozone.

Every pale woman can transform her pached-out appearance with Ferrozone. Not only will it improve looks and spirits, but by rebuilding all weak, tired organs, Ferrozone establishes a soundness of health that's surprising.

For women and girls who want to feel well, to look well, to be well, to stay well, nothing known in the annals of medicine is so certain as Ferrozone.

Don't you try Ferrozone? Concentrated cure in tablet form, that's Ferrozone, 50c. per box or six for $2.50, at all druggists.

TOWNSEND-HORTON.

ST. MARTINS, Dec. 10.—A very pretty home wedding took place Monday evening at the residence of George Parks, when the Rev. C. W. Townsend united in marriage his youngest daughter, Nellie Blanche, to Capt. Amos Horton of Port Bickerton, Guysboro County, N. S. The bride, who was attended by her sister as bridesmaid, looked very charming indeed as she entered the parlor leaning on the arm of Mrs. W. Fowles, who gave her away.

The bride was becomingly dressed in white organdie with chiffon trimmings. Wesley Long acted as groomsmen. Immediately after the ceremony the large company of upwards of eighty guests was seated at a supper. The bridegroom display of presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton leave Wednesday morning for Port Picketon, and after a short honeymoon there will go to Halifax to make their home. The going away gown is of blue broadcloth with white trimmings and hat to match. The groom's present to the bride was an elegant set of furs.

MURRAY-ROBERTSON.

The marriage of Miss Annie Ray Robertson, of Robinsonville, Restigouche County, to Mr. Murray of the same place, was solemnized in St. Paul's Church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Archdeacon Forsyth. The bride wore a becoming travelling outfit of gray cloth and gray hat. She was unattended.

At the same time and place Miss Jane Firth of Robinsonville and David Cochran, now of Campbellton, but formerly of New Richmond, Que., were united in matrimony, the same clergyman officiating. The bride was wearing a stylish gray broadcloth suit and hat of same shade. She was unattended. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Cochran left for their respective homes in Robinsonville and Campbellton.

TIMOTHY COLLINS.

Timothy Collins, who was so dably crushed in Hilyard's shipyard on Monday morning, died Wednesday at 11.20, at the General Public Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. Dr. Berryman will make inquiries today of the late resident, in order to determine whether he will hold an inquest or not.

Collins is survived by a widowed mother and one sister, to whom the blow is unusually severe, as his brother, Jeremiah Collins, was killed by falling from a bridge over the Lombard street to the I. C. R. railway tracks a few years ago.

MRS. EDWARD CULLINAN.

After illness extending over some time, Mrs. Elizabeth Cullinan, wife of Edward Cullinan, teamster for the W. Edward Co., Ltd., died Thursday at her home, 115 Queen street. Mrs. Cullinan was in her twenty-sixth year and is survived by her husband and three children. She was a daughter of John Dunn, of Newcastle (N. B.), by Herring Bay, of Newcastle. She leaves two brothers—Martin Dunn, in Newcastle, and William Dunn, in Milnokeet (Me.), and one sister, Mrs. William Walsh, in Newcastle.

REV. WM. DEWARE.

Rev. Wm. DeWare of Waterville, a well known clergyman, died at his home on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, in the 53rd year of his age. Mr. DeWare had been ill for about six years. He was a preacher of great power and eloquence. The funeral was held on Thursday, the sermon being preached by Rev. N. Barnes, who more than forty years ago baptized him. A widow, two daughters and a son mourn their loss.

ROBERT T. HOLMAN.

ROBERT T. HOLMAN, a prominent merchant, died at his home on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, in the 53rd year of his age. Mr. DeWare had been ill for about six years. He was a preacher of great power and eloquence. The funeral was held on Thursday, the sermon being preached by Rev. N. Barnes, who more than forty years ago baptized him. A widow, two daughters and a son mourn their loss.

CAPTAIN SAM. MUNROE.

Captain Sam. Munroe, of the Salvation Army, after a very trying and lingering illness, passed away yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Chetley, City road. Captain Munroe was at one time in charge of the Brindley street corps and has many friends around the city; he has spent quite a number of years in Army service, and has now gone to receive the reward of the faithful.

CHARLES G. TAYLOR.

Death came Tuesday morning with great suddenness to Charles G. Taylor at his home in Rothesay. He had been enjoying excellent health this fall, and Monday had breakfast at the usual hour and afterwards spent some time in walking about the place. It was on his return that he was stricken down just as he reached the vestibule expiring almost instantly. Mr. Taylor was a man about seventy years of age, and a native of Dorchester, N. B., his father having settled there on coming over from England many years ago. He was well known in St. John and throughout the province as a member of the firm of Taylor Bros., having been associated in the shipping business with his brother, John F. Taylor, who resides in Rothesay. The firm were very successful in their business ventures. Mr. Taylor resided for a long time in the city, but since his marriage a few years ago has made his home in Rothesay. His wife was an American lady, survives. Besides his brother, there is a sister, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, residing at Rothesay.

MRS. J. T. McLEOD.

The death of Mrs. Sarah R. McLeod, widow of J. Tatnell McLeod, of Norton, occurred on Saturday after a brief illness. She was aged about sixty years. The deceased had come to the city three months ago to visit her sister, Mrs. William Kelly, Hazen street, and was taken sick about a month after her arrival. Mrs. McLeod was a native of Norton. She was well known to all who knew her late husband Ruland of that place. Her husband predeceased her a number of years. There are no children. Two sisters survive—Mrs. Carney of Bloomfield, Kings county, and Mrs. William Kelly, at whose house she died.

MORRIS-DOUCETT.

William Morris and Miss Edna Teresa Doucett of this city were married Wednesday afternoon at 41 Douglas Avenue by Rev. D. Hutchinson. The young couple will reside here.

SMITH-TOWN, K. C.

On Tuesday last this community received such a shock as it has not felt for years, when the death of Moses D. Smith was made known. Up till Monday night he was apparently in good health, but remains in his business as usual, but that evening he was stricken with apoplexy and died in a few hours.

The funeral took place on Thursday, 6th inst., from his home at Smithtown, and was attended by a very large number of people. Rev. E. S. Parker preached from the text Hebrews iv: 9, "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God," and the hymns "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep, Days and Moments Quickly Flying, and Abide With Me," were sung. Despite the dreadful weather a long procession followed the casket to its last resting place at Titusville, everyone being anxious to pay a last tribute of respect to one who had ever been a true, unselfish friend.

MRS. ELIZABETH MAGEE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Magee, widow of John Magee, died at her residence, St. Patrick street, Thursday, aged eighty-nine years. She had been ill but a short period. Two sons and three daughters survive.

HANSEN-McKAY.

Monday evening at the Carleton Methodist parsonage, Robert A. Hansen, Dr. butcher, was married to Miss Ellen A. McKay, daughter of the late James McKay, of New River, Charlotte county, N. B. Rev. H. D. Marr performed the ceremony. The young couple will reside at 69 Water street, West End.

MISS BESSIE BOTSFOED.

Dr. Skinner returned Monday from Boston, where he had gone to attend the funeral of Miss Bessie Botsfoed, sister of Mrs. Charles Skinner of Boston. Miss Botsfoed was a daughter of the late George Botsfoed of Fredericton, and had been resident in Boston, Boston, for some years with her mother, who survives. Mrs. Skinner is her only sister. Brothers are Harry and George Botsfoed of Boston. The deceased was a very estimable lady and many friends in Fredericton and Fredericton heard of her death with great regret.

MRS. EDWARD CULLINAN.

After illness extending over some time, Mrs. Elizabeth Cullinan, wife of Edward Cullinan, teamster for the W. Edward Co., Ltd., died Thursday at her home, 115 Queen street. Mrs. Cullinan was in her twenty-sixth year and is survived by her husband and three children. She was a daughter of John Dunn, of Newcastle (N. B.), by Herring Bay, of Newcastle. She leaves two brothers—Martin Dunn, in Newcastle, and William Dunn, in Milnokeet (Me.), and one sister, Mrs. William Walsh, in Newcastle.

REV. WM. DEWARE.

Rev. Wm. DeWare of Waterville, a well known clergyman, died at his home on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, in the 53rd year of his age. Mr. DeWare had been ill for about six years. He was a preacher of great power and eloquence. The funeral was held on Thursday, the sermon being preached by Rev. N. Barnes, who more than forty years ago baptized him. A widow, two daughters and a son mourn their loss.

ROBERT T. HOLMAN.

ROBERT T. HOLMAN, a prominent merchant, died at his home on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, in the 53rd year of his age. Mr. DeWare had been ill for about six years. He was a preacher of great power and eloquence. The funeral was held on Thursday, the sermon being preached by Rev. N. Barnes, who more than forty years ago baptized him. A widow, two daughters and a son mourn their loss.

CAPTAIN SAM. MUNROE.

Captain Sam. Munroe, of the Salvation Army, after a very trying and lingering illness, passed away yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Chetley, City road. Captain Munroe was at one time in charge of the Brindley street corps and has many friends around the city; he has spent quite a number of years in Army service, and has now gone to receive the reward of the faithful.

CHARLES G. TAYLOR.

Death came Tuesday morning with great suddenness to Charles G. Taylor at his home in Rothesay. He had been enjoying excellent health this fall, and Monday had breakfast at the usual hour and afterwards spent some time in walking about the place. It was on his return that he was stricken down just as he reached the vestibule expiring almost instantly. Mr. Taylor was a man about seventy years of age, and a native of Dorchester, N. B., his father having settled there on coming over from England many years ago. He was well known in St. John and throughout the province as a member of the firm of Taylor Bros., having been associated in the shipping business with his brother, John F. Taylor, who resides in Rothesay. The firm were very successful in their business ventures. Mr. Taylor resided for a long time in the city, but since his marriage a few years ago has made his home in Rothesay. His wife was an American lady, survives. Besides his brother, there is a sister, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, residing at Rothesay.

MRS. J. T. McLEOD.

The death of Mrs. Sarah R. McLeod, widow of J. Tatnell McLeod, of Norton, occurred on Saturday after a brief illness. She was aged about sixty years. The deceased had come to the city three months ago to visit her sister, Mrs. William Kelly, Hazen street, and was taken sick about a month after her arrival. Mrs. McLeod was a native of Norton. She was well known to all who knew her late husband Ruland of that place. Her husband predeceased her a number of years. There are no children. Two sisters survive—Mrs. Carney of Bloomfield, Kings county, and Mrs. William Kelly, at whose house she died.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson. In Use For Over Thirty Years. CASTORIA. THE CAFFREY COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

COUNTRY MARKET. Wholesale. Turnips, per bl... 0.50... 0.60. Beef, western... 0.07 1/2... 0.08. Beef, butcher, carcasses... 0.15... 0.16. Beef, country, per lb... 0.04... 0.05 1/2. Lamb... 0.09... 0.10. Mutton, per lb... 0.05... 0.06. Pork, per lb... 0.08 1/2... 0.09. Butter, per lb... 0.25... 0.27. Tub butter, per lb... 0.20... 0.24. Eggs, case, per dozen... 0.24... 0.25. Turkey, per pair... 0.18... 0.20. Fowl, per pair... 0.50... 0.50. Potatoes, per bl... 1.50... 1.50. Hides, per bl... 0.09... 0.10. Calf hides, per lb... 0.00... 0.14. Lambskins, each... 0.80... 0.85. Sheepskins, each... 0.00... 1.50. Cabbages, per crtn, native... 4.00... 4.00. Chickens, per pair... 0.40... 1.00.

WANTED. A second or third class female teacher for Grove Hill District No. 21 in the Parish