The House of Quality & Good Value

Something New Every Day

"We Invite Our Friends With Confidence Knowing That We Shall Serve Them Well"

TO ACHIEVE, the mind must focus on one point. This great bright store means much more to the people of the city and country than just a shopping place. To-day it stands out as Brantford's great central point. It brings to you all the advantages and conveniences that one could find in a city many times Brantford's size. Not only is this a place of cheerfulness--a place full of happy workers--and a place where you are welcome to come and admire to your hearts content the great array of beautiful goods gathered from the world's markets both far and near. This is as you would have it.

WE focused on one point—and we feel we have achieved. We ask you to prove this store. Let your own self-interest decide.

AWARDED DIPLOMAS TO GRADUATING NURSES

Pleasant and Pretty Function Yesterday at Nurses' Home When Four Nurses Were Honored on Occasion of Their Graduation.

Honored by the presence of Mayor Spence and several city Aldermen, the graduating nurses of the Brantford Hospital were yesterday afternoon presented with their diplomas before a large audience, at the nurse's home. Mr. C. H. Waterous, president of the Board of Governors, presided. After opening prayer by Dr. Mackenzie, he thanked the ladies and gentlemen who had honored them with their presence and outlined the very onerous duties nurses were called upon to perform. Mr. Waterous told, on behalf of the Board of Governors, how highly they appreciated the friendly attitude of the people of Brantford toward the hospital and extended to them a hearty invitation to visit the new buildings at any time.

A fitting address was also given by Dr. J. A. Marquis, who spoke very highly in praise of the Board of Governors, and Miss Ford, the Superintendent. Dr. Marquis said Miss Ford's ability was recognized not only throughout Brantford, but throughout the whole of America. He also praised the nurses on their cheerful looking faces, saying that sympathetic cheerfulness was one of the essentials to good nursing, and although it is in some cases not easy to be cheerful, he believed that forbearance and tact were two of the greatest virtues. Miss Ford, the Superintendent, read a very excellent paper on the work of the past year and gave a few words of advice to the nurses, and presented them with their diplomas.

The graduates were: Miss Lulu Simpson, Miss Gertrude Best, Miss Georgina Barwick and Miss Margaret Gilchrist.

Mayor Spence gave a short speech and presented the graduating nurses with class pins on behalf of the Board of Governors.

Mrs. Julius Waterous, President of the Hospital Aid Society, made a few well chosen remarks, and presented the young ladies with thermometers on behalf of the hospital aid.

The graduates also received beautiful bouquets, gifts from their sister nurses.

During the programme a solo was rendered very sweetly by Miss Day, one of the nurses.

At the conclusion of the presentations, tea was served to the guests by the ladies of the institution.

Many ministers and their wives and doctors and their wives were among those present.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

UNDER ORDERS.

"Under Orders" is the name of the new war play written by Albert Cowles, which will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Saturday, October 30th, by the Princess Producing Company, Inc. It deals with war in all its pomp and panoply, not the sordid side which many of the yellow journals of to-day would have one believe is the rule instead of the exception, and incidentally has a clean and pretty love story running through it. It is said that there is not a dull moment in the play, that from the rise of the curtain to the end, it is replete with new and thrilling situations. Probably the most intense and touching scene in it is shown in the first act. This scene in which Patricia O'Grady gets up in the recruiting stand and talks to the crowd of men and women assembled, brings forth no end of men willing and anxious to "take the King's shilling." It is made most impressive when old Mrs. Emmet brings up her only son to offer his services for his King and country; this recruiting scene will be carried home in one's thoughts, for it is a fine exhibition of the patriotism that is being daily displayed by thousands all over the United Kingdom and Provinces. Plenty of exciting and comedy scenes, a charming love story and an excellent cast are all conducive to a highly meritorious performance. Remember, this is a play, not a picture.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Paris, Oct. 30, 2.35 p.m.—French progress last night at Bois-en-Hache, and the repulse of a German attack this morning near Souchez are set forth in the official announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

The text of the communication follows: "In the Artois district last night we made progress at Bois-en-Hache and occupied a section of the enemy's trenches.

"To the southeast of Souchez the Germans this morning undertook an attack in the vicinity of Hill No. 140. They were repulsed by a curtain of fire from the French machine guns.

"In the Champagne district the fighting is still going on in the vicinity of the position known as 'La Cortine' with the greatest ferocity. On four different occasions the enemy has endeavored to recapture from us the trenches we took possession of yesterday. These four counter-attacks all completely failed before the energetic resistance of our troops, who were successful everywhere in retaining the advances made.

"There has been no other important action on the remainder of the front.

Mrs. Edna Marchant, sixteen years old, was found guilty of slaying her husband at Independence, Kan.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Beautifully it! It is only a matter of using a little Danderine occasionally to have a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, wavy and free from dandruff. It is easy and inexpensive to have pretty, charming hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can't find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a comb with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.
