Tuesday was a very busy day on the Lake Eric. The first of July be-ing a general holiday the traffic was increased all over the line. About 1626 passengers were taken to Rond Eau. The railroad was rather handicapped for coach room for the Eau service. The coaches from the Sarnia and London trains, however, were taken to the Eau at night and all of the excursionists were brought home. The Lake Erie deserve great credit for the splendid manner in which they handled the large crowds.
