"I hope others will do as I did."

"I suffered for six years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of Chicago, Ill. (Lake View Postoffice.) "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite, and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I did—give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial."

LOUISVILLE.

The Planet's Louisville correspondent writes: On behalf of George Arnold and family, I desire to extend to their many friends their most heartfelt thanks for their kind help, words of cheer and sympathy and floral tributes, which did so much to lessen the sorrow of the bereaved ones. I have been requested to correct some statements about the sad accident on April 1st. Mrs. Arnold and her two sons, Arthur and Percy, were driving towards Louisville, when their horse became frightened by their dog brushing against its leg. Jim, being blind, did not keep the road, and was running towards the right side of the bridge, when Mrs. Arnold seized the left line and pulled the horse to the left and most dangerous side. Before it could be stopped it made a mad leap from the abutment of the bridge and landed clear of the spiles and piles of concrete in the soft mud of the ditch. Arthur, the older boy, was thrown twenty feet but, beyond a scratch, was uninjured. When ever heard from the blacksmith shop reached the scene Mrs. Arnold was in the cart holding the baby in her lap and tightly clenching the left line. She complained of great pain in her chest and stated that the horse had fallen on her. The innocent talk of Percy said that Jim jumped right over mamma, goes to prove it; but how the baby escaped injury is the mystery that cannot be solved.

The Oddfellows' Hall is well on its way to completion and will be quite an ornament to the "Echo of a Village."

Our enterprising general merchant, Frank Bedford, exports hundreds of dozens of eggs weekly.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Geo. Arnold took place on Wednesday afternoon from the family residence to the church, thence to the Arnold Cemetery. The obsequies were conducted by Rev. Mr. Walker, and his sermon was the most touching ever heard in this section. We might say, too, pointed in its touch. The large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The grave was fittingly decked with evergreens, and after the last sad rites the body was gently laid to rest to await its reunion with the soul in heaven. Mrs. Arnold was a member of the Methodist Church, a good Christian mother and friend of all in times of sickness and distress; and her loss to all is great.

Mrs. Sharpe, of Dresden; Mrs. Wees, of Sombra, and Mrs. Smith, of Dover, attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Geo. Arnold.

Ellie Arnold, has returned, after a two weeks' visit to his wife's family in Napanee. Mr. Arnold enjoyed his eastern trip and looks better.

Messrs. W. Stover and M. Smith jointly sold to Mrs. W. A. Kelly, of F. W. Tobey, our teacher, and brother Robert, spent Sunday the guests of G. Arnold.
