"It will be five years at least before San Francisco was rebuilt as she was before the earthquake," says Charles S. Fee, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Railway. Delay in getting the insurance adjusted, and the great scarcity of labor have contributed to retard the work of rebuilding. At present the number of persons being cared for in tents and in the parks is not over 15,000. The St. Francis and the Palace hotels, both of which were destroyed, are being rebuilt on a more magnificent scale than ever.

THE GROOM'S TURN.

One of the most delightful little weddings of the leafy month of June took place at St. Austin's church on the 28th. The bridegroom, Mr. W. R. Daintee, looked charming in a frock coat of sweet black cheviot with silken lapels, gray striped trousers, extra wide at the knees and a snowy waistcoat, picked out with black polka dots. He wore lavender spots over his No. 9 patent leather shoes and carried a silk hat.—Tara Leader.
