CLEVER CAPTURE OF BURGLAR STOPPED ERIEAU TRAIN

Detective Skirving Jumps from Moving Train and Gave Chase Effecting Capture—Spotted by Conductor on Way Down—Outlaw Turns King's Evidence at Police Cells and Further Arrests Follow—Camping in the Thicket

One of the cleverest captures in the police annals of Chatham occurred this morning, when Detective Archie Skirving, with the assistance of the crew of the early train from the Eau, nabbed Edward Hess, one of a gang which is suspected of committing the robberies which have occurred in the city and vicinity lately. Hess himself is strongly suspected of being the man who, last night, threatened harm to one of the trainmen in the Pere Marquette yards.

Conductor McGarvey had learned that a gang of obnoxious characters were in the neighborhood and were wanted by the police. He also knew of the episode of Sunday night, the man who was threatened being the brakeman of his train. When, therefore, on the way to the Eau this morning he noticed a suspicious and ill-favored character, accompanied by a woman, near Richardson, he surmised that they might be a part of the gang. He communicated his suspicions to Detective Skirving, who happened to be at the Eau.

The indefatigable Archie at once made up his mind to make an attempt to round up the gang. The engineer was told to be on the lookout for the couple on the return trip. Accordingly between Fargo and Richardson when the form of a man was espied the brakes were applied and Archie, who was on the lookout, jumped from the train while it was still in motion. The man had stepped aside in order to allow the train to pass and, after its passage, was continuing his way, utterly oblivious of the fact that the strong arm of the law, as typified by the lynx-eyed P. M. detective, was even then upon him. Archie was up on him before the man was aware of his presence, and too utterly surprised to show any fight. "Come along and get on this train," said Archie, reaching out and grabbing him. "All right, boss," was the reply.

Through a trainful of wondering passengers to the baggage car the prisoner was brought. Soon the story of the capture had leaped from lip to lip, and nothing but praise was heard for the neat way in which the round-up was made. In the baggage car the man was searched. Besides a diary, containing addresses and a Detroit ferry ticket, his pockets revealed a recent copy of The Planet, an indication that he is not utterly depraved.

GIRL FROM KAY'S

Admirable Inaugural Production at the Grand Saturday Evening—Praise for Mr. Brisco

Manager Fred H. Brisco has set a splendid theatrical pace for the ensuing season and patrons of the Grand extend hearty congratulations. The Girl from Kay's, which was presented by a clever company on Saturday night, was all that Mr. Brisco claimed for it, and was thoroughly enjoyed from start to finish.

As a bright musical comedy it is unsurpassed. Its humor was apt, clean and contagious and the roles were admirably assigned. The company was exquisitely costumed and the whole production was one of the best ever presented in the Maple City.

LOST FINAL

Chatham Lacrosse Team Beaten at Brantford in a Rough Game.

Unless the protest against the game played here with Brantford is allowed, the Chatham lacrosse team is out of the running for the junior championship. The game played here last Monday resulted in a tie, but was protested on the grounds that Brantford played men who, by reason of having played on other teams, were ineligible. If Chatham wins this protest they will get the series. Saturday's game at Brantford resulted in favor of the team of that place, the score being 6-2.

The score, however, is no indication of the merits of the respective teams. Brantford took the opportunity of being on their own grounds to rough it. That they were eminently successful is shown by the fact that hardly a member of the Chatham team escaped. There is a penalty of fifteen minutes attached to the offense of jolting an opponent in the ribs with the butt end of the sticks. Notwithstanding this the Brantford players practised this refined method of torture and, except in a very few instances, escaped being penalized. If they were sent to the fence it was for very short periods. Naturally, such rough handling wore down the locals and, in a great measure, accounted for their defeat.

Grace scored for Chatham in the first quarter. When the whistle blew the score stood 1-0.

In the second period Brantford scored twice, making the standing 3-1. They scored the same number in the third quarter—score 6-1. In the final period Brantford massed on the defence, notwithstanding which the locals scored again—final score 6-2. A crowd of 500 attended the game. Wagborne acted as referee.

J. B. Dickson, of Ottawa, an old Chatham boy, left this morning for London, after spending a few days with J. W. Aitken, Victoria Avenue. Mr. Dickson is now secretary of the Canadian Railway Accident Insurance Co.

Take my advice dear, and tell him you are not running a storage warehouse for damaged goods.

JAPS ARE IN AMUR NOW

Bombarded and Destroyed Two Russian Guard Stations.

How the Armies Stand to Re-Commence Active War if Peace Negotiations Fail—Both Armies Have Been Reinforced, and Their Fronts Have Been Greatly Extended—Wireless Enlarges Field of Operations.

Tokio, Aug. 28.—Rear-Admiral Kataoka has reported to the Imperial navy department that the naval division sent up the Amur River bombarded and destroyed two Russian guard stations at Zharef and Lazierve, on the south bank of the river. These stations had recently been reinforced.

How the Armies Stand. Guns in Pass, Manchuria, Aug. 28.—Since the Japanese reconnoitered the Russian centre about 25 or 30 miles on Aug. 10, which resulted in retaliatory skirmishing as well as the checking of a wide movement of considerable bodies of troops throughout three days, nothing important has occurred. During the long quiet there have been reinforcements to both sides, giving the theatre of war a much changed appearance. The front has been greatly extended, made possible by the use of the wireless telegraph and because of the unexampled size of the armies, the character of the third stage of the war, whether it be active hostilities, demobilization or the garrisoning of contested territory will be complicated.

Comparable to a Year Ago. The relative positions of the two armies is comparable to that of a year ago, and the country immediately facing the Japanese is almost identical to that which confronted them at Liaoyang. The acquisition of the railway and rivers by the Japanese at Mukden, together with their Fengwang-cheng communications, and General Kawamura's new line of communication and defence, running from the head of navigation on the Yalu River across to Kalyuan, with the occupation of the Chang Pashan Mountain region, makes control of the administration of South Manchuria as complete as that achieved in the north, by similar organization, and in the rapid consolidation of these connections. The destiny of Manchuria is clearly fixed, regardless of other influences.

After an enormous rainfall during the past ten days it is believed that the rainy season is closed.

RUSSIAN AGRARIAN DISORDERS.

Peasants Are Terrorizing the Nobles—Fighting With Cossacks.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—There is a great increase in the agrarian agitation in various parts of the country, notably in the Caucasus, where there have been serious disturbances. In the Gori district the peasants are forcing the nobles, under the menace of death, to announce to the newspapers that they are handing over their holdings to the peasants freely, or accepting one-tenth, instead of one-quarter of the crop yield.

The refusal of the peasants in the village of Inchaledshen to pay Prince Inukhransky, the proprietor of the crop to which he was entitled to a serious conflict between the peasants and Cossacks. The Cossacks fired on the peasants, killing and wounding, according to an official account, 19, and according to an unofficial account 10. Peasants from the mountains came to the assistance of the villagers, resulting in fresh conflicts, in which one Cossack was killed.

Prince Inukhransky himself had a narrow escape from shots fired at him. Where Anarchy Is Active.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—The police department has drawn up a report of the disturbances among the Letts in the Baltic Provinces, which, of late, according to the report, have assumed an anarchical character. Within four months, in towns in the Provinces of Courland and Livonia, there have been four attempts on the lives of officials, four attacks on private persons, six attempts against the lives of police officers, three attacks on Cossack patrols, and two cases in which bombs were thrown. At Riga an attempt was made to set fire to the powder stores in a cartridge factory.

SIR WILFRID LACKS COMPANY.

Ministers Found Excuses For Not Going to New Provinces.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Premier Laurier and Hon. William Patterson left on the Imperial Limited last night to participate in the inaugural ceremonies of the new Provinces in the west.

It was expected that Sir Wilfrid would be accompanied by several of his Cabinet, but they with one consent began to make excuses. It is understood that several were asked to go, but that they could not see it that way. Even Mr. Oliver found his work could not be arranged to make his presence elsewhere seem imperative.

Earl Grey and suite left in special cars on the same train to participate in the ceremonies.

Notables From Old England.

New York, Aug. 28.—Among the passengers who arrived yesterday on board the Celtic from Liverpool was Sir Edward Boyle.

The Umbria, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, brought 229 cabin, but no steerage passengers. Among the passengers were Right Hon. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Bart., Lady Beach, Major Henry Guise, Capt. W. C. Pakenham and Prof. Charles V. Farnsell.
