

MAKING COLORS FAST

To preserve the colors of gingham, printed lawns, etc., and before washing almost any colored fabrics, it is recommended to soak them for some time in water to every gallon of which is added a spoonful of ox-gall. A strong, clear tea of common hay will preserve the color of French linens. Vinegar in the rinsing water for pink and green fabrics will brighten these colors, and soda answers the same purpose for both purple and blue. The colors of the above fabrics may be preserved by using a strong, milkwarm lather of white soap, putting the dress into it instead of rubbing it on the material, stirring into a first and second tub of rinsing water a large table-spoonful of ox-gall. To prepare ox-gall for washing colored articles empty it into a bottle, put in a handful of salt and keep it closely corked. A teaspoonful to five gallons of the rinsing water will suffice.

DO SOMETHING FOR SOMEBODY

Do something for somebody somewhere, While jogging along life's road; Help someone to carry his burden And lighter will grow your load.

Do something for somebody gladly, 'Twill sweeten your every care; In sharing the sorrows of others Your own are less hard to bear.

Do something for somebody, striving To help where the way seems long, And the homeless hearts that languish Cheer up with a little song.

Do something for somebody always, Whatever may be your creed; There's nothing on earth can help you So much as a kindly deed, —(Author Unknown.)

SAFETY FIRST

In The Home

Keep poisons in a special cupboard for the purpose where they are out of reach of children.

Read the directions on a bottle of medicine before taking.

Keep matches out of reach of young children, and where mice cannot get at them.

Never attempt to light a fire with kerosene, gasoline or benzine.

Store combustible or explosive substance in a safe place, preferably in an outbuilding.

At Work

Keep away from moving machinery. Never attempt to make repairs to a machine while it is in operation.

Do not stand in front of a mower or binder to free the knives while the team is hitched.

Place edge tools with the cutting surface so that the passerby will not be injured by striking against them.

MUSIC HELPS THE MIND

A leading educationalist has this to say concerning the value of music: "I cannot think of an ideal home without music, for it would surely be very incomplete without it. To me, the beauty of music cannot be described in words. There seems to be no state of mind that one can be in in which music is not welcome. Even in the Bible we read that David played on the harp for Saul to quiet his troubled mind. We need music every day in our home more than any other place for the good of our mind and body.

"The benefits of music are also reaching the hospitals, the homes of the sick, and busy people after a hard day's work find it refreshing to come home and hear its soothing strains.

"We also enjoy music in our homes of learning—the schools. The school orchestra and the songs we sing in assembly make us feel more like starting out on the day's study in an excellent mood."

SCHOOLBOY HOWLERS

Here are some more schoolboy howlers:

Ambiguity means telling the truth when you don't mean to.

The flammelette peril means petticoat government.

Much butter is imported from Denmark because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.

A triangle is a square with only three corners.

The principal vegetable and mineral products in America are tinned meat and barking strictors.

The temperate zone is the region where no one drinks too much.

A corpse is a dead gentleman; a corpse is a dead lady.

To keep milk from turning sour you should leave it in the cow.

To the question, "How would you divide four potatoes among five persons?" came the answer "Mash 'em."

A ROMAN CATHOLIC ON A METHODIST LEG.

Dr. Grenfell, after amputating the limb of a Roman Catholic patient, wrote an appeal for a wooden leg to enable the man to move about. This was published in the Congregationalist, and read by a Baptist woman whose husband, a Methodist who had worn a wooden leg, had just died. So the Methodist leg given by a Baptist woman in answer to a Congregational appeal is now being used as a perfectly good interdenominational understanding.

MY PRAYER

I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be A Pleasant road; I do not ask that Thou wouldst take from me Aught of its load. I do not ask that flowers should always spring Beneath my feet, I know too well the poison and the sting Of things too sweet.

I do not ask my cross to understand, My way to see; Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand, And follow Thee. Joy is like restless day; but peace divine Like quiet night. Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine Through peace to light. Amen.

"WHAT YOUR HUSBAND NEEDS"

"One night my husband came home looking so ill and worn out that I thought he would faint. I knew there had been something wrong with him for some time, but I could not get him to tell me what it was. Finally he confessed he was tired and sore all over. I made him go to bed. Next morning he insisted upon going to work although he was anything but well. I knew that his trouble was partly due to worry because for some months before he had been out of work. This put us so heavily in debt that the grocer and butcher refused to give us more credit. It was being out of work that worried my husband. He wouldn't eat because he was afraid there would not be enough food for the children. We were so poor that we had to keep the children from school because they had no clothes. I knew that if I could only get my husband strong and well again everything would be all right. He is a carpenter by trade and when in good health earns good wages and he is always sober and industrious. But I knew that it was impossible for any man to do good work when he was ill and worried. I decided to speak to our old family doctor, who had retired from practice. When I explained how we were situated he gladly offered to do all he could to help us, although he didn't like to interfere with the new doctor's practice. Finally he said, "What your husband needs is a good tonic and I know of nothing better than Carnol." I thought that if our old family doctor recommends Carnol it must be all right. On my way home I got a bottle and before the first bottle had been used, my husband was a changed man. After he had taken four bottles his appetite returned, he had more energy, that tired look in his eyes disappeared and what is most important his wages have been more than doubled and he is now superintendent of the wood working shop in which he formerly worked as a carpenter. Thanks to Carnol our troubles are over and we are once more a happy and contented family."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.
