Kino's College Windson.—By the report of the recent examination at this institution, we are gratified to learn that Mr. J. M. Hensley, Cogswell Scholar, (son of the Hon. C. Hensley of this island) has so acquitted himself, as to obtain the first class B. A. or optime degree, as well as the President's prize for proficiency in Hebrew. The former is the highest honor which the University confers; and when we tell our readers that the course of classical study at Windsor for an ordinary degree, is similar to that prescribed at Oxford, and that the qualifications for mathematical honors (indeed the very

The remains of the late Jumes Dechman, sonr, Eq., aged 79, a very old and highly respectable inhabitant of this city, were interred on Sunday har the Camp Hill Cemetery. The flaesal obsequates were attended by a large concourse of citizens, including the Carpenters' Society, of which deceased was, we believe, one of the original founders; by the members of the Union Engine Company, with which he had been associated as an active and Honorary member for upwards of halfa century; and by the North British Society of which he had been long a member. Mr. D. was a native of Soutland, but came to this country when quite young.—Halifax Paper.
