THE NATIONAL ANTHEM—PEACE
VERSION.
God bless our native land;
May heaven's protecting hand Still guard our shore.
May peace her power extend,
Ere be transformed to friend,
And Britain's rights depend.
On War no more!
May just and righteous laws Uphold the public cause, And bless our isle.
Home of the brave and free,
The land of liberty,
We pray that still on thee Kind Heaven may smile.
And not this isle alone,
But by thy mercies shown From shore to shore.
Lord make the nations see That men should brothers be,
And form one family
The wide world o'er!

MISCELLANEOUS.
WARNING.—A late number of the Courier du Pas de Calais, contains the following:— Two men lately entered an inn in Cambria, ordered coffee, and died shortly after swallowing a cup each. The landlady summoned the police, who declared that the men poisoned. 'Impossible!' cried the landlady, 'they have only drunk a cup of coffee a-piece, and that can do no harm.' She at once drank a cup to prove its innocence. The same result, however, ensued in her case, as she was seized with terrible pains and also died. On examining the pot a box of lucifer or locofoco matches, was found lying in it.

THE IDEAL WOMAN.—The true woman, for whose ambition a husband's love and her children's adoration are sufficient, who applies her military instinct to the discipline of her household, and whose legislative powers exercise themselves in making laws for her nurse whose intellect has field enough in communion with her husband, and whose heart asks no other honours than his love and admiration; a woman who does not think it a weakness to attend to her toilette, and does not disdain to be beautiful; who believes in the virtue of glossy hair and well-fitting gowns, and who eschews routs and ravelled edges, slipshod shoes and audacious makeups; a woman who speaks low and does not speak much; who is patient and gentle, and intellectual and industrious; who loves more than she reasons, and yet does not love blindly; who never scolds and never argues but adjusts with a smile;—such a woman is the wife we have all dreamed of once in our lives, and is the mother we still worship in the backward distance of the past.—Charles Dickens.

REVIVAL OF THE STOCKS.—On Monday no trifling amusement was excited in Halifax by the report that, by order of the borough magistrates, two men had "their feet made fast in the stocks," at the gates of the parish church. It turned out to be true. One of the men, John Petty, had been charged with drunkenness, an offence not punishable, we understand, by committal to Wakefield, unless accompanied by disorderly conduct. Petty could not pay the penalty, and had consequently, for six hours in the stocks. The other was an Irish youth named John White, who had been apprehended for Sunday gambling in Charlot-tewna. He was ordered to have three hours' confinement. Both sentences were strictly carried out, and the spectacle, now so unusual, attracted thousands of visitors. During the dinner hour especially, the number of mill-workers who viewed the sight was enormous. Their amusement seemed to be considerable, and the jokes they passed at the expense of the imprisoned ones were some of the choice, rudely expressed.

When is a lover justified in calling his sweetheart "honey"? When she is beloved.

NEWS BY THE ENGLISH MAIL.
The Royal Mail Steamer Niagara, Capt.
Leitch, arrived at Halifax on Tuesday about seven o'clock, in ten days from Liverpool. She had one hundred and thirty-one passengers, thirty-two for Halifax; and Specie to the amount of two thousand three hundred and thirty pounds sterling.

The Money Market continued in a very easy position.
Cotton market manifested an advancing tendency.
Flour 1s per bbl. lower.
Wheat 2d per 70 lbs. lower.
Indian Corn 1s per qtr. lower.
Sugar quiet; Molasses at a stand.
Coffee scarce.
Tea market continues heavy.

THE HARVEST IN FRANCE.—The accounts from the departments are unanimous in speaking of the fineness of the weather which prevails at present, and of the magnificent appearance of the crops in all the places not ravaged by the late inundations.
The harvest is going on actively in the extreme south of France, and several sacks of wheat of this year's yield were last week offered for sale in the market of Maubourguet (Hautes Pyrenes). The price of wheat and flour has commenced declining in the southern markets. The Lyons journals speak of the appearance of the vines in Burgundy as highly satisfactory.

Mrs NIGHTINGALE has been presented by the Sultan with a magnificent bracelet, set in brilliants, as a mark of his estimation of the devotion evinced by this esteemed lady in the British hospitals.

LETTERS from Sebastopol affirm that only 2,000 of the French army remained in the Crimea, and that the English troops had evacuated Kerch.

CIRCASSIA.
A letter from Trebizond of the 10th, in the Hamburg News, says:—A Russian corps of 40,000 men has been sent against Schamyl. The Turks have abandoned all the fortresses of the Asiatic coast and completely destroyed that of Shekstil. The Russians have as yet only occupied Redoubt Kale; they dare not occupy the other points for the present, the population of Abassia and Circassia having sworn that no Russian shall touch their territory so long as there is a Circassian alive. The whole population is under arms.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT.
The Globe says that it is not at all improbable that the prorogation of parliament will take place on the 24th instant.
