

SEEM PESSIMISTIC

Grey's Speech Will Show—May Not Make
However—The British
Papers Publish
The speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers. It is a speech of great importance, and one which will be read with interest by all who are concerned with the relations of Great Britain to the world.

The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

THE ANGLO GERMAN RELATIONS of Lords Talk On The

of Sir Edward Grey—Vis Defends the Governmen
The speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

28—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing the peace of Europe.

29—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

30—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

31—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

32—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

33—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

34—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

35—Lord Courtney
attacked the Govern
ment with the Anglo-
German relations, and
Lord Morley of Lansdowne, leader
of the House of Lords,
desired to know why
the government was not
more active in securing
the peace of Europe.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr.
Morris's Indian
Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes:

"For many years I have been troubled with chronic constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim of the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morris's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

28—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

29—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

REGINA IS FILLED WITH DETECTIVES

Are In Search of Clues To The Disappearance of Money From Office of Canadian Express—Sum Was Nearly Forty-Five Thousand Dollars.

Regina, Nov. 27.—There are almost a dozen detectives about the city in search of clues to the disappearance of the money from the Canadian Express Company, and it is now understood that the amount is nearly forty-five thousand dollars.

The money was in the hands of a man in a sack in currency, the receipts of the day from Prince Albert, and a very rainy day at that.

The latest clue is the knowledge that a man was seen sneaking across the tracks in front of the depot toward the express office as the Canadian Pacific train No. 2 was coming in at 3:05 a.m. He is believed to have known the ground thoroughly and the routine of the office, as the time of all the clerks is accounted for except for an instant when one or them turned his back and none of the others were near the door.

The man was last seen going toward the train which left a few minutes later for Moose Jaw. The man who saw him approach the office was Engineer Belfoy and Fireman Stoves, of a Canadian Northern crew, whose engine stood on a side track across the yard.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

34—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

35—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

36—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

37—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

38—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

39—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

SIR EDWARD GREY'S DIPLOMATIC SPEECH

Anglo-German Situation Now Assumes a More Peaceful Aspect—Speech Pronounced a Great Success—Foreign Minister Handled the Question in a Masterly Manner.

London, Nov. 27.—Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, cleared the political atmosphere and poured oil on turbulent waters of the Anglo-German relations in a speech lasting an hour and a half in the House of Commons this afternoon. The foreign secretary reviewed the whole Anglo-German episode from the sudden appearance of the German gunboat Panther in the port of Agadir in southern Morocco up to the signing of the Franco-German treaty. He unflinchingly upheld the attitude taken by the British Government, but at the same time declared that his action was never antagonistic to Germany or to any settlement she was able to arrange with France, which did the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

REGINA MADE C.P.R. DIVISIONAL POINT

J. K. Savage, Late Chief Dispatcher At Brandon Has Been Appointed to Superintendence of the New Division Which Includes Branch Lines.

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—The appointment of J. K. Savage as superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Regina, Mr. Savage has had a large western experience and has lately held the position of chief dispatcher at Brandon.

This appointment is made owing to the large number of branch lines that have been opened of late in Saskatchewan and the increased traffic on the main line of the C.P.R. Mr. Savage is also appointed with jurisdiction over lines from Broadview to Moose Jaw, Regina to Colony, Valeport to Stoughton to Victoria.

With this appointment, Regina has been made a divisional point on the main line of the C.P.R. Mr. Savage will also remain a divisional point although the territory covered by the superintendent at this city has been cut down. This district was until now one of the largest in the west.

34—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

35—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

36—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

37—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

38—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

39—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

40—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

41—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

How the Nations View What The Foreign Minister Said

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Sir Edward Grey's speech was read with the greatest interest in Berlin in the newspaper extra. The tone of discussion in the Berlin morning papers indicates that they are neither greatly pleased nor greatly disappointed. It is generally admitted that the speech was in a calm objective tone, in an obvious attempt to avoid irritating expressions. The Tagblatt sees in the utterances of the British foreign secretary that Great Britain arrogates to herself the function of a world judge in the mobilization of her fleet to harass France, although no treaty required this. Great Britain, says the Tagblatt, must abandon that assumption before the two countries can live on a footing of equality such as Sir Edward Grey hopes for. The Vossische Zeitung draws attention with satisfaction to the fact that Sir Edward Grey rejects any policy provocative to Germany.

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

CLEANING UP THE VICE ELEMENTS IN CHICAGO

National Vigilance Committee Officials Are Taking Action—Police Officers Reveals Gross Corruption in Big American City.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—The investigation by the civic committee into the alleged protection of vice by the police and its revelation of the conditions in the vice districts as exposed by witnesses last week and today, brought on another attack on the restricted district.

Warrants were sworn out for thirty-one women who were accused of maintaining objectionable places in the vice districts and nearly all were arrested and released on bonds. The action was taken by the officials of the First National Vigilance Committee.

The committee was formed after the publication of the revelations by witnesses in the police investigation. The cross-examination of Louis Levin today brought an admission from him that he had lived for thirteen years on "protected vice," but failed to shake his previous testimony that he had paid the police for the privilege.

34—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

35—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

36—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

37—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

38—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

39—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

40—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

41—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

THE IMMIGRATION DURING PAST YEAR

Canadian Pacific Railway Carried One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Settlers into Canada From the United Kingdom—Brought Much Money.

Special to the Bulletin.

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—The Canadian Pacific carried a hundred and fifty thousand new settlers into Canada from the United Kingdom this year. This merely shows the number of persons who actually paid transportation, whereas if the children carried free are taken into account at least 20 per cent can be added, which would swell the total to a hundred and seventy-five thousand.

The month of May carried off the record for the largest colonization traffic this year, when thirty thousand persons paid for transportation. The figures show that settlers arrived at the St. Lawrence ports during the two months at the rate of a thousand a day. Fully seventy per cent of these newcomers have gone through to Western Canada.

The majority of these immigrants brought in money with them, averaging $300 apiece, which would show that they brought in altogether forty millions. It required 500 special trains to bring this phenomenal concourse of people to their innumerable destinations in the west.

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

GOMPERS RE-ELECTED A. F. OF M. PRESIDENT

No Fight Developed in Connection With Re-Election of Distinguished President—Innocent Selected as Successor of Meeting of Convention.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 26.—After selecting Rochester, N.Y., as the place for holding the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor in 1912, the delegates of the A. F. of M. met for the purpose of electing a new president. The meeting was held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the delegates were elected without opposition.

The delegates of the A. F. of M. met for the purpose of electing a new president. The meeting was held at the Hotel Hamilton, and the delegates were elected without opposition.

34—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

35—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

36—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

37—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

38—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

39—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

40—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

41—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

CAPITALIST SEES GREAT INDUSTRIAL FUTURE

E. Miles Bailey, Representative of British Capitalists, Believes Edmonton and Calgary Have Tremendous Industrial Possibilities.

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—Edmonton and Calgary will soon be no longer dependent for their prosperity on agriculture alone, thinks E. Miles Bailey, representative of British capitalists, who is at present here after having spent several weeks in the west.

"During the last month or so," he said, "I have been knocking about the west and have had a good opportunity for observing the men and the industries of the country."

A remarkable feature of most western cities, and especially of Edmonton and Calgary, is the extreme youth of the men occupying important positions. I was prepared to find that Canadians did not place so high a premium on age as we do in England, but I was not prepared to see bank managers and heads of large business concerns of twenty-five or thirty years of age. I cannot say, though, that I observed any bad effect from the placing of responsibility on youthful shoulders.

It was also struck with the industrial possibilities of Calgary and Edmonton. In close proximity to the mighty Rockies they have at hand sources of abundant raw material, and it cannot be long until their industries become as important a means of income as their agriculture. Potential power is being discovered in all parts of the country. The Bow river will eventually furnish plenty of power to Calgary, as will also the Saskatchewan to Edmonton. The development of industry is therefore certain.

"But the possibilities of the mountainous province, to my mind, are greater of all British Columbia. It is a vast province, and the possibilities of its development are almost unlimited. The natural difficulties are greater, but that she will in time reach a wealth and power seems to me very likely."

A couple of weeks ago I sailed down the Fraser river and the scenery of activity I observed all along the bank impressed me. The whole valley of the Fraser is an extended construction camp. Everywhere steel is being laid and mountains tunneled. It is easy to foresee that that valley a large and prosperous population within a very short time. The west is wonderful."

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

STOKES CASE IS RESUMED.

Edith Conrad and Lillian Graham
Now on Trial.

New York, Nov. 26.—The chorus girls, Edith Conrad and Lillian Graham, who shot William E. D. Stokes, the millionaire horseman and hotelier, were brought to trial today in the Supreme Court. The girls, who are charged with the murder of Stokes, were brought to trial today in the Supreme Court.

When the chorus girls' case came up one juror was called and then the case was adjourned until tomorrow. The trial will continue tomorrow.

34—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

35—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

36—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

37—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

38—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

39—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

40—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

41—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

EFFECTS WERE MARVELLOUS

When I Tried "Fruit-a-tives"

HARDWICK, N.B., Jan. 17th, 1910.

"I feel it my duty to give you a statement in respect to the wonderful cure I received by taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. Chronic constipation was the complaint I suffered from for years. My general health was miserable as a result of this disease, and I became depressed and alarmed. I was treated by physicians without the slightest permanent benefit, and I tried all kinds of pills and tablets.

"I saw the strong testimonial in favor of 'Fruit-a-tives' by New Brunswick's 'Grand Old Man' Senator Cowan, and I knew that anything he stated was honest and true and given only to help his fellow-men. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effects were most marvellous, and now I am entirely well from all my chronic constipation that I suffered with for years." A. G. WILLISTON.

"Fruit-a-tives" will cure you, just as they cured Mr. Williston. Get a box, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

30—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

31—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

32—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

33—The afternoon
publish the full text
of Sir Edward Grey's
speech, and the British
papers publish the
speech of Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, in the House of Commons, on November 27, 1911, is published in full in the British papers.

ARTHUR HAWKES IS NOW AT THE COAST

Is Confering With Premier McBride and His Colleagues in Order to Improve Methods of Getting Immigration for Coast Province.

Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Arthur Hawkes, special immigration commissioner of the Dominion Government, is here today in connection with his task of inspecting the work of the methods adopted by the Dominion and various provincial governments to obtain immigration and devising means for more effective co-operation with a view of increasing permanent immigration to Canada. He will go to Victoria tomorrow.

"I shall confer with Premier McBride and his colleagues to ascertain whether inducements are being offered to get the people on the vacant lands. Obviously if general policy has to be resoundingly supported, it must be based on a reliable and effective basis. A tremendous impetus to immigration can be given by the creation of old country people who have already settled and prospered in Canada. The settlement of these people on these lines could be made as systematic as the mail order business."

He will return here on Thursday and address the Canadian Club on the subject, "How to Canadianize Britain."