When the Tragedy Occurred.

The schr. Bonnie Lass, which succumbed to the big storm of Sept. 24th while crossing Trepassay Bar, all her crew being lost, has since been refitted and is now undergoing repairs at Trepassay. It is supposed to have been at 4.30 o'clock, Monday, Sept. 25th, when the vessel struck the land, as the clock found in the cabin was stopped at that time.

A novel idea is bright-colored wool linings for satin suits. For winter they will be used in velvet suits.

What Are You
Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."
"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your Druggists."

HERRING PACKERS READY FOR THE CATCH.—We learn from passengers on last evening's express that the West Coast herring fishery will be carried on with greater vigour than ever during the present fall and winter, and that at every place around the coast large stocks of salt and barrels are on hand to cure and ship the catch. At Bonnie Bay a small quantity was secured on Friday and Saturday, but as the season has only begun, the real business will not commence till about a fortnight's time.

ABSOLUTELY WATERPROOF

That's the kind of roof you get by using EVER-LAS-TIC READY ROOFING, $2.70 per roll. EVER-LAS-TIC—because it lasts; there's no rubber in it. Rubber rots, you know that. READY—because each roll contains enough nails and cement to finish the job. ROOFING—because it's made to withstand sun, rain and wind.

PARTICULARS:

Each roll contains 108 square feet; one roll will cover 10 square yards. Multiply the length of your roof by its width, divide by 100 and the answer will be the number of rolls required to cover your roof.

Oct. 7th. From R. Brown (Upper Amherst Cove to Cape L'Argent).—Prospects are good and squid is very plentiful. All the fish taken this week was got on trawls. The total catch is 15,600 qts. with 600 for the week. Eighty dories and skiffs are fishing.

British Expenses Rise
Five Billion in Year.

London, Oct. 4.—Interesting figures are contained in the Treasury statement, covering the six months of the fiscal year ending September 30th. The exchequer balance sheet of that period shows: Total receipts, £1,968,687,085 ($9,843,425,425); total issues out of the exchequer, $9,710,194,015, an increase of nearly $5,000,000 over the corresponding six months of last year.

Of the receipts only $319,614,435 came from revenue, $5,215,000,000 being money raised by the creation of a debt and nearly $2,160,000,000 on credit of ways and means.

Revenue receipts show increases of $305,000,000 over the same period last year, nearly $95,000,000 of this being from property and income tax, and more than $155,000,000 from duties on excess profits. The Postal Service showed an increase of $10,444,000 and the customs an increase of $35,000,000.

VOYAGE SHORT.—The last of the Labrador fishing fleet are now on their way to their respective home ports. The voyage, it is estimated is far below the average, but this shortage is easily made up for by the high prices ruling.

In Milady's Boudoir.

TRAVELLING NECESSITIES.

Travelling is the bugaboo of the average woman. She is uncomfortable in the cars, her personal appearance suffers from the journey and all in all she dislikes the preliminaries of a journey.

Of course she should not think of travelling without a jar of cold cream. By rubbing a tiny dab of cream into her cheeks and powdering them over she can protect her complexion during the ride.

At night if she is obliged to continue her journey, before retiring, it is well for milady to wash her face in quantities of cold cream, instead of the hard gritty water found on the trains.

It is really the hair that makes women look most untidy when travelling. Leaning against the back of the seat, raising loose all the short hairs and even the prettiest of women look unattractive when their hair is hanging about in deflected strands. The careful woman carries with her several large nets and wears one every day, fitting it over the low coils at the back of the neck so that no loose hairs can escape.

The dust and cinders which get into the hair when travelling are very injurious to the hair, and it is needless to caution milady to shampoo her head as soon as she reaches her destination.
