MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

To-Day's Messages.

AFTER HIS SCALP.

LONDON, Oct. 1. It is forecasted that the British Cabinet, which meets to-day to discuss the Irish situation, will ask an explanation from General Sir Frederick Neville MacCreedy, commander of the military forces in Ireland, in connection with a recent interview, which has been interpreted by newspapers as condoning reprisals by Black and Tan police. British newspapers are clamoring for an authoritative government statement as to this policy regarding reprisals, and several journals maintain that if the government policy does not coincide with that of Sir Frederick, he should be recalled.

Permanencia

Soon Ready.

The concrete steamer Permanencia, the first ocean-going concrete steamer ever built in Can., which was launched at Jackson's wharf last Spring, is still at Salter's wharf awaiting the finishing touches. Repeated and annoying disappointments in securing metal fixings from outside concerns is the chief cause of the craft's enforced idleness. However, home brain is doing what other concerns failed to do, and it is expected the Permanencia will sail on her first trip in the course of a couple of weeks, barring accidents. As yet it has not been decided what trade the steamer will be engaged in.—North Sydney Herald.

U. S. Hunger Striker Fed Forcibly.

Travers City, Mich., Sept. 24.—(United Press).—Asylum officials endeavoring to break the hunger strike of Dr. Otis S. Sedgwick, alleged slayer of his wife and daughter, have placed handcuffs on Sedgwick and are feeding him by force, it was learned to-day.

Sedgwick went on a hunger strike eight days ago, and has not voluntarily tasted food or water. A few days ago his condition became so serious that he was removed from jail and taken to the insane asylum here. Sedgwick also has refused to talk.

Serbian Torture Enemies.

Women, Children and Old Men Are Murdered and Burned.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Terrible tortures and hardships were inflicted upon the Montenegrins by the Serbian army of occupation, according to an official report of a commission of investigation appointed by the Montenegro foreign office after the withdrawal of the Serbian troops. "Brutal violence and abuses are recorded," says the report. "For instance owners of homes and huts were compelled to set fire to their humble dwellings and then the soldiers pushed them among the flames where they perished."

"Women and children shut in their homes were submitted to the additional torture of being thrown in so that they might sting those pitiful bodies; they even had the cruelty of putting cats under the skirts of women that were then sewed around the limbs. The animals were then whipped, so causing awful pain to the victims."

"Old people, women and children were beaten mercilessly with heavy sticks or iron rods and also with wet ropes; inmates of prisons were left without nourishment sometimes as long as ten days; the bodies of the dead in the prison were left among the prisoners for seven days, the prisoners were forced to put their feet on the fire and nails were thrust under their finger nails; youths were hung by the hair and plunged into water up to their mouths; men were attached to carriages in the place of horses and then killed."

"The corpses of Montenegrins monstrously murdered were left in the middle of streets to be prey for dogs; mothers of the rebels were thrown upon the fire; old men had their teeth pulled and the women were violated."

The commission said it examined more than 100 eyewitnesses. Among them were several of the victims themselves who succeeded in escaping.

Summer Superstitions.

Never make a present of a bunch of violets with an Ivy leaf tied up with them. If you do you will surely quarrel with the person to whom you make the gift.

This is all very regrettable, no doubt, since ivy is convenient as a cheap and easily obtainable ornament; but if one wants to safeguard oneself against bad luck one must be prepared to make sacrifices.

The unlikelihood of bringing hawthorn indoors is so well known as hardly to need mentioning, but fewer people are aware that yellow flowers are unlucky unless they are mingled with flowers of another colour. For instance, yellow roses are supposed to cause lovers to quarrel.

Never have only yellow blooms in any room in which you are saying good-bye to someone who is going away. If you defy this superstition there is a strong probability that you will never see the departing person again.

Never pick up a dropped flower that you find in the street. No matter how fresh and inviting it may look, you must pass by and leave it where it lies. Otherwise you may bring misfortune upon your unwise head.

Respect for National Anthem.

During the war and the preparation for it, largely through the example set by the soldiers in training, who acquired it through army discipline, audiences at theatres and other public gatherings stood in respectful attention during the singing or playing of the National Anthem. This good custom is being disregarded most disgracefully. At the theatres now the first bar of the National Anthem is taken for a signal to don overcoats and wraps and make for the door. It is a vulgar, and ignorant habit, and should be sternly checked. The theatre management would be doing a good educative act if they informed the audience, either on the street or otherwise, that ladies and gentlemen always stood at attention during the rendition of the National Anthem, and that others would be expected to do so.—Charlottetown Guardian.

IN LOVING MEMORY.

of Albert D. Sphire, died Oct. 1st, 1919. The tie that earth has broken And severed one year ago, Fond memories of you my darling, Will eternal peace bestow. He suffered much, he murmured not, We watched him day by day Until at last with broken hearts We saw him pass away. Softly at night the stars are shining On a lonely, silent grave. Where thou lie my dearest Albert, Whom we loved but could not save, But your chair stands alone and empty In the home you loved so well; And how much we miss you darling, Only God alone can tell. He died in life's fair summer God kneweth what is best; May the Sacred Heart of Jesus Grant his soul eternal rest.—Inserted by his loving mother and sister.

A Veteran Mariner.

One of the passengers on Saturday's Sable I, was Capt. George Rumsey, who was in town for a few days supervising some repairs which were being made on one of his vessels.

Capt. Rumsey has the record of having crossed the Atlantic 156 times. He is now 66 years of age and says that he feels as good as when he first put foot on a ship some 54 years ago. He has served 47 years in the capacity of master mariner, in which time he has sailed all over the globe. His first vessel was the Checkers, a small schooner of about 99 tons, bound for the West Indies and the Mediterranean. Since then he has been in command of a large number of ships and has never lost one, which is a credit to his ability as a mariner.

It is only a few years since Capt. Rumsey quit sailing, and now he and his brother Thomas have gone into partnership and have a fleet of vessels of their own, which they are running with as much success as they had when they were commanding vessels themselves.—North Sydney Herald, Sept. 27.
