Joyous Peals!

Celebration of a Royal Golden Wedding.

King Christian and Queen Louise of

Sad Tragedy in Paris-Sale of 7,000,000

Many Headaches.

London, May 26 .- The sale of Burnay' consignment of 7,000,000 bottles of port wine has been commenced in London. The prices realized varied from £13 to £30 per prices realized varied from £13 to £30 per pipe for the finest qualities. These prices are disappointing to the sellers.

A Sad Tragedy in Paris. PARIS, May 24 .- A terrible tragedy took place last evening in the Theater d'Application. The wife of an obscure author cation. The wire of an obscure author named Peralde, who could not bear to hear her husband hissed by the audience, died suddenly in the lobby, her husband meanwhile continuing to sing and play his part on the stage. The body was removed to one of the boxes, and by the manager's orders the play was not interrupted.

King Christian's Golden Wedding. COPENHAGEN, May 26.—The anniversary of the golden wedding of King Christian cen Louise was celebrated to-day At an early hour all the church belis in the city rang out joyous peals in honor of the

At an early hour all the church bells in the city rang out joyous peals in honor of the day. Bands were playing in every direction, while everywhere the city bore a gala appearance and was bright with flags, bunting and other handsome decorations. The streets were densely crowded. Early in the day all the chorus societies proceeded to Amalienberg Palace and serenaded the King and Queen and their guests. At 10 o'clock there was a grand procession from the palace to Christianberg Church, where services were held. The procession included the King and Queen of Denmark, the Car and Czarina, the King and Queen of Greece, the Prince and Princess Victoria and Princess Maud, and the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland. The route to the church was literally packed with humanity. Festivities followed in the afterneon and evening.

Lord Salisbury's Primrose Day

Lord Salisbury's Primrose Day

Speech.
London, May 26.—Lord Salisbury has sent out through his secretary a letter denying the statement of Sir William Vernon Harcourt to the effect that the watchnon Harcourt to the effect that the watch-word of Lord Salisbury's Primrose Day speech was "Let Uister robel." The letter says: Lord Salisbury used no words that could be so interpreted.

The private secretary of Lord Salisbury wrote to the Rev. Probyn Nevine the fol-lowing letter from the foreign office, dated May 4:

"Dear Sir—I am desired by Lord Salis-bury to acknowledge with thanks, the re-

"Dear Sir—I am desired by Lord Salisbury to acknowledge with thanks, the recipt of your letter on Friday last, inclosing a copy of the Oxford Times for Saturday, April 23. He is glad to see that you are impressing upon the electors of Oxford the probability that any attempt to set up home rule in Ireland will bring about a conflict which, unhappily, may take the form of what you justly term 'the greatest of all curses, religious civil war.' I am yours faithfully, Schomberg K. McDonnell."

Accident to Lord Salisbury.

Accident to Lord Salisbury.

London, May 26.—Lord Salisbury, the Prime Minister, had a narrow escape Prime Minister, had a narrow escape from serious injury or death this morning. He was proceeding through St. James street when the spirited team of horses attached to his carriage took fright at something and botted. The coachman made frantic efforts to stop the runaways, but the horses dashed along with frightful speed until the carriage came in collision with a pedestrian refuge in the middle of the roadway. The equipage was instantly overturned. A crowd quickly assembled, and Lord Salisbury was assisted out of the carriage through a window. He was severely shaken up, but was quite cool. In response to anxious inquiries In response to anxious inquiries the bystanders he said he was hurt in any way. The non the bystanders he said he was not hurt in any way. The coachman was thrown from the box and sustained severe injuries. Lord Salisbury appeared to be more concerned about him than about himself. After giving directions as to his proper attendance a cab was called, and Lord Salisbury proceeded to his destination. The carriage was wrecked.

Cholera Still Spreading. London, May 27 .- Cholera has appeared in Meshed, Persia. Many deaths are re-The Italian Crisis.

ROME, May 27 .- The Cabinet resigned to-day, but the King refused to accept their resignations. The dissolution of the Chamber of Deputies is believed to be im-

Not Feeling Well. Paris, May 27.—Jurors likely to be drawn for the trial of Ravachol at Montbrison for murder are pleading ill-health to avoid serving. It is expected the trial will begin June 1.

Heavy Failure. London, May 27.—Pechorr & Co., a Prominent firm of Biscay, have failed, with liabilities 1,125,000 marks. The fail-re is attributed to the decline invates of frazilian exchange.

Likely To Be Increased.

London, May 27.—The Chronicle's correin a conversation with an attachee of the french Embassy, declared it was more ikely that the number of army corps in the twelve to fourteen than that they would be reduced to ten."

merce meeting yesterday the announcement was made that only three firms had replied to the circulars notifying them of the allournent of free space at the Chicago World's Fair. All declined to exhibit on this ground that it is impossible to carry on business against the McKulley Bill.

Talk of Another Division.

Rome, May 27.—Signor Gielitti, the new Premore, obtained a vote of confidence in Premore, obtained and one premore that went with him are well known about town, does predect.

A Law-Brenker Puntshed.

Salt Lake, Utal, May 27.—Nicholas Graesbeck, a polygamist who has served two terms in the pententiary, the last time two terms in the pententiary when the substitute of the pententiary was killed two terms in the pentent of a near relative of heat, and the providence of the premore of the specific vote of the pentent of the pentent of the pentent the Chamber of Deputies only by a close margia, the figures being 169 to 160. Thirty-eight members abstained from voting. The Opposition is expected to make an attempt to provoke another division. The Popolo Romano says the dissolution of Parliament is inevitable.

Lady Goldsmid Dead. London, May 27 .- Lady Goldsmid, wife of Sir Julian Goldsmid, who was Miss Virginia Philipson, daughter of the late A. Philipson, of Florence, died at Cannes yesterday. She was married to Sir Julian Goldsmid March 31, 1868. Sir Julian Goldsmid is a Liberal-Unionist in politics and represents the South St. Paneras division in the House of Commons.

Outrage by Famishing Tenants. ODESSA, May 26. - Baron Mahs, a banker and merchant, recently received a demand from an anonymous letter for 10,000 from an anonymous letter for 10,000 roubles to be given tenants on his estate at Peodolia, who are said to be suffering from famine. He paid no attention to the demand and the consequences was that his farms, valuable granaries and other property were burned, and his horses and cattle were turned loose. The baron is comparable for military protection against now seeking military protection against

Late Canadian News

An Apology for Hauling Down the American Flag-Costly Break for the Caspian.

Dr. Dorland, who was once a wealthy citizen of Belleville, was on Thursday committed as a vagrant. The Toronto Summer Assizes for 1899 will be held by Mr. Justice Street and wil begin on Tuesday, the 14th June. A Halifax telegram says it is estimated that the Caspian breaking her shaft will cause a loss in expense of $25,000.

A special dispatch from Swansea says that the men supposed to be drowned in the lake have turned up all right at that

The 52nd anniversary of the Upper And a Bible Society was held Thursday evening in Knox Church, Toronto. The report showed the ordinary revenue to have been larger than in any previous year by $1,200.

Col. Cole, of the Montreal Garrison A has eastlen for the Nontreal Gartison A. A has eastlen for the North N A byc-election for the Nova Scotia Legis-ature for Annapolis will be held on

Mr. L. P. Kribs, Toronto, has withdrawn from the newspaper fraternity, his intention being to embark in commercial venture of a more lucrative nature.

An Ottawa dispatch says the resignation of Mr. Robert Watson, of Marquette, has not been received by Speaker White. Hon. Joseph Martin will probably be the Reform candidate for the vacant seat.

Mr. Robert Watson, Liberal M. P. for Marquette, Man., was sworn in Thursday as Minister of Public Works in the Manitoba Cabinet; and Mr. Smart, who retires from that portfolio, will become Provincial Secretary. Secretary.

Secretary.

James Moore, assistant cashier of the Dominion Transport Company, Montreal, has been sentenced to three months for the embezzlement of $1,200. Moore was one of the best known young men in Montreal. He was president of the Crescent Lacrosse Club, and was a general favorite.

Club, and was a general favorite.

The funeral of Sir Alex. Campbell took place this afternoon at Kingston. The Bishop of Ontario and Canon Spencer were the officiating clergy. Among the mourners were C. J. Campbell, E. Campbell, Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. G. W. Allan, Harcourt Vernon, Commander Law, Capt. Harston, Toronto; H. G. Hopkirk, Stratton, J. Strange and five members of the deal of the control of the co ford; Dr. Strange and five members of the family, Kingston; Dr. Duft, Newburgh. There was a good representation of emi-

DIDN'T DIE AT THE FALLS. Crandall and His Family Schemed to

Defraud Insurance Companies.

Defraud Insurance Companies.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—A sensational arrest has been made by the Los Angeles police. About April 1, 1886, Bryant B. Crandall, of Bufialo, N. Y., aiter insuring his life for $20,000, disappeared. His clothing found on the bank of Nigarra Biver seemed to point to suicide. Three River seemed to point to months later a body was for Three months later a body was found below the Falls exactly fitting Crandall's description. Crandall's wife and relatives positively identified the body as that of Crandall, and part of the insurance money was paid. In March, 1887, Crandall was seen on the streets of Los Angeles by a prominent citizen of Buffaio. Some months ago Crandall was again seen in Los Angeles and again disappeared. He was finally located at Nowhall, this county, where he was working at a petroleum well.

Newhall, this county, where he was working at a petroleum well.
Chief Glass and Detective Moffet arrested him and he was conveyed to the city prison, where he has since been confined. The New York authorities were notified of the capture, and yesterday Detective Diehl, of Buffalo, N.Y., arrived here for his prisoner. Crandall's wife and children are still in Buffalo. Detective Diehl nostively identiced the prisoner in jail here as Bryant B. Crandall. The prisoner denies he is Crandall and says his name is Williamson. He refuses to give an explanation of himself. He is willing to go to Buffalo and stand trial.

ELOPEMENT RECORD BROKEN. An Ottawa Hackman Runs Away with

An Ottawa Hackman Runs Away with Three Women.

Ottawa, May 26.—Edmund Corrisse, ex-hackman and alleged puglist, eloped on Sunday night with three women. The absconders have gone to Chicago. He leaves a wife tehind him, who, according to the statement of a near relative of hers, does not mourn her loss. The women that went with him are well known about town, being residents of an island in the Rideau.

The U.S. Methodists

Conference to Deal with the Matter of Amusements.

Equal Lay and Clerical Representation Sunday Closing of the World's Fair Demanded.

OMAHA, May 26.—At yesterday's session of the Methodist Episcopal General Conference the report on the Columbian Exposition matter, demanding Sunday closing, was accepted. The report recommended the appointment of a commission to make a church exhibit.

Conference adopted the committee report on sonal representation by the following on equal representation by the following vote: Ministers—aye, 107; nay, 18; laymen—aye, 143; nay, 11. It gives equal representation to the laymen provided two thirds of the annual conferences so dement question. The majority report is op-posed to the proposal to secure a more liberal construction of the rules concerning dancing, theater-going, etc. The minority report favors having a general statement upon the amusement question, commanding all members of the church to refrain from upon the amusement question, commanding all members of the clurch to refrain from unbecoming frivolous and unchristian conduct, leaving each individual to be, to some extent, his own judge as to the nature of amusements that are becoming and Christian.

The report of the committee on judiciary teuching the prerogatives of bishops at meetings of the book committee when vacancies were to be filled was adopted. It decides that the bishops had a right to discuss the questions before the committee only when that committee gave them that privilege. The bishops had no right to vote in meetings of the book committee. They might vote upon the action of the book committee in their own meetings, and the bishops might concur or refuse to concur in the action of the book committee. The bishops have the veto power upon the action of the book committee. The bishops have the veto power upon the action of the book committee in all matters pertaining to elections, but they have no right to vote in the meetings of the book committee in their the book committee in the meeting of the book committee in the meeting the book committee in the meeting the book committee in the meeting of the book committee in the meeting of the book committee in the meeting the book committee in the meeting the book committee. out they have no right to vote in the meet-ngs of the book committee.

ings of the book committee.

A lively contest took place over the effort to unite the Order of Deaconesses and Woman's Home Missionary Society by placing the deaconesses work under the supervision o' the missionary society. Finally the Order of Deaconesses was left exactly where it had been during the past four years, under the care of the quarterly conferences.

THE METHODIST WOMEN'S RIGHTS.
WESTMINSTER, Md., May 26.—By a vote of 75 to 49 the four women delegates to the Methodist Protestant Church were admitted.

admitted.

THE BLAINE BOOM.

Reiterated Reports That the Secretary Will Get the Republican Nomination.

New York, May 26. — Among the visitors to Secretary Blaine to-day were Senator Hiscock and ex-Governor Ames, of Massachusetts. The latter gentleman subsequently said: "Mr. Blaine will accept the candidacy for the office of President if nominated at the forthcoming Republican convention, and I am sure he will write no more letters of declination."

IN LABOR'S FIELD.

35 cents an hour.

It was reported that a settlement has been made with the locked-out granite workmen at Cape Ann, Mass. The workmen are glad that Bishops Brooks and Williams were suggested as arbitrators to settle the difficulty.

The strike of the Lehigh Valley brake

The strike of the Lehigh Valley brakemen at Batavia has ended in the defeat of the men.

The New Orleans car-drivers strike is still on. The strikers have submitted a proposition to the railroad presidents that none but union men be employed, and the presidents are considering the union's demands.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineer on Wednesday re-elected Pastmaste Arthurs grand chief engineer for four years He desired to retire, having served eighteen years, but the convention insisted upon his taking another term. A. D. Younston was elected assistant grand chief engineer for two years, and Harry Haves was elected assistant grand chief engineer for two years, and Harry Hayes was re-elected second grand engineer for four years. The next international convention will be held in May, 1894, biennial meet-ings being substituted for annual.

The Dreaded Yellow Fever. Tuccho, Venezuela, May 27.—The yellow fever epidemic continues here at the rate of from 20 to 30 deaths daily.

Dropped Dead. Dropped Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May. 27.—S. A. Bee, for many years Chinese consul in this city, dropped dead on the street vesterday. Col. Bee came to this city from New York in the early days and engaged in building telegraph lines. He was 76 years old.

Injured at a Barn Raising. MOUST ENYDORS, May 27.—About 6 o'clock last night Mr. D. J. Donaldson, second deputy reeve of Caradoc, was hurt at a barn raising near here. He was struck on the head by a falling pike pole. He was taken home and is now doing as well as care he expected.

LAID IN THE CRAVE.

Funeral of the Late Sir Alex. Campbell,

Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario-An Impressive Event—The Procession and the Pall-Bearers.

TORONTO, May 25.—The funeral of the late Lieutenant-Covernor this afternoon was a very impressive affair. The general public were admitted to the Government House between 12 and 2 o'ciock, and many citizens took the opportunity of viewing the remains, which were lying in state.

The dead Lieutenant-Governor was dressed in the uniform of his high office.

On his left breast was the order of St. ressed in the uniform of his high office, in his left breast was the order of St. ichael and St. George, of which he was a night-commander, while around his neck as the insignia of a Privy Councilor. The sket was of red cedar covered with black coadcloth and mounted with heavy tydized silver handles. The plate, which as of sterling silver, bore the inscription Sir Alexander Campbell, K. C. M. C., rorn March 9, 1822, died May 24, 1892." he floral tributes were numerous and

The procession formed shortly after 3 o'clock, and headed by the band of the Queen's Own Rifles, playing "The Dead March in Saul," proceeded along King street to St. James' Cathedral.

floral tributes were numerous and treet to St. James' Cathedral.

The pall-bearers were: Hon, A. S. Hardy, Ion, J. M. Glison and Hon, R. Harcourt, Jr. W. R. Meredith, Sir William Howard, Chief Justice Hagarty, Sir Thomas alt, Hon, J. C. Aikens, Justice Macennan, Sir David McPherson, Senator Memes, Mr. J. L. Baike, Mr. E. H. Kertand and Mr. W. E. Pathbun.
Many prominent citizens were in the rocession in carriages and on foot, the council and Public School Board attended in a body. The cathedral was unequal to Council and Public School Board attended in a body. The cathedral was unequal to contain the immense throng that sought admission. The funeral service was performed by the Bishop of Toronto and the Revs, Canon Dumoulin and Damon. There was no funeral address. Vicount Kilcoursic and Col. Dawson represented the Governor-General. Hon. Oliver Mowat occupied the same carriage with them. The chief mourners were C. J. Campbell, brother; E. Campbell, nephew; Hon. J. W. Allan and Harcourt Vernon. The Dominion Cabinet ordered that a guard of ninion Cabinet ordered that a guard of

TERSE TELEGRAMS.

Sylvester Silver, a museum freak, 20 Sylvester Silver, a museum Ireak, 20 years old, well known throughout the country, died in Baltimore on Tuesday. He weighed 50 pounds.

Israel Zipping and his 16-year-old son Maurice were killed by a New York Central train on Wednesday between Cold Spring and Garrisons, N. Y.

Louis Kretz, who was thought to have perished in a fire in Buffalo seven years ago, has been wandering insane about the streets in that city. He could give no account of himself.

The U. S. State Department is officially advised of the conclusion of a treaty of commercial reciprocity between Austro-Hungary and the United States under the provisions of the McKinley Act. provisions of the McKinley Act.

The monitor Miantonomah on her way from New York to Annapolis had to put into Delaware Bay in distress. She will into Delaware Bay in distress. She will have to choke up her turrets and swing her turret aprons before she can continue her

NO SUNDAY SHOW.

Action of the United States House of Representatives in Re the World's Fair. Washington, May 26.—In the House

WASHINGTON, May 26.—In the House the pending question was on the subject of the Sunday closing of the World's Fair. A resolution was adopted providing that no part of the amount appropriated for the World's Columbian Exposition shall be available unless the doors of the exposition shall be closed to the public on Sunday.

Two Men Killed by Lightning.

Brownsville, Ind., May 27.—A mos disastrous rain, hall and electrical storm passed through Jackson county last night. Thousands of acres of fine wheat were destroyed. J. D. Johnson and Levi Miller, farm, laborers, were killed by lightning. Struck Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

Struck Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

Boise City, Ia., May 26.—Geo. Gillett, a commercial traveler, was struck deaf, dumb and blind on Sunday. Yesterday surgeons found a clot had formed on the brain. A trephaine was inserted and the button of the skull was removed. Gillett's surgeons found a proposed saving him to senses returned one by one, leaving him as clear as ever. Brakeman Berry, of Fort Gratiot, Killed.

Brakeman Berry, of Fort Gratiot, Killed.
Bellevue, Mich., May 26.—There was a fatal accident on the Chicago and Grand Trunk Railway at this point yesterday.
Brakeman James Berry, of Fort Gratiot, was thrown from a rapidly-moving through freight going east, striking on the top of his head and killing him instantly. Deceased was a married man and apparently 30 years of age.

Lost His Eve. Lost His Lye.

Lost His Eye.

St. Thomas, May 26.—Mr. Richard C.
Williams, manager of the Ideal factory,
Catharine street, was the victim of an unfortunate accident yesterday afternoon.

THE DREANEY'S CORNER OUTRACE.

Robert McAlpine, the Girls' Companion, Tells His Story.

Damaging Evidence Against the Deiendants—How the Witness Was Knocked in the Head—The Girls Roughly TORONTO, May 25 .- The funeral of the

The "Dreaney's Corners' outrage," of which the McGeary sisters were the victims, came up for legal investigation for the first time this morning. The preliminary examination is being held at the Police Court, and as it is a county matter, Squires Smyth and Lacey are the presiding magistrates.

The usual crowd who dote on such cases sought admittance, but were promptly shut.

The usual crowd who dote on such cases sought admittance, but were promptly shut out. Only the lawyers, witnesses, reporters and interested parties were allowed to remain. Three of the five young East London men charged with the crime, namely, George and Thomas Lee and George Armstrong, the oaly ones who have been caught, were brought up on remand and listened stolidly to the evidence given.

Robert McAlbine was the first witness and listened stolidly to the evidence given. Robert McAlpine was the first witness called. He said that on the evening of April 30 he took the young ladies out for a drive. They were then living with their widowed mother on Dundas street, between Weilington and Waterloo streets. They got into the rig at their house about 8 o'clock. They drove around the city a little and then out towards Dreaney's Corners, five miles from the city, arriving there five miles from the city, arriving there about 9 o'clock. They went to Carrol's hotel and into the parlor. While there about 9 o'clock. They went to Carrol's hotel and into the parlor. While there the girls each drank a small glass of whisky and witness took a cigar. One of the young ladies suggested that they pay a visit to Mrs. Young, with whom they were well acquainted, at a hotel just across the street. They then went to Young's hotel and into a sitting room off the bar. When on the way over they saw Thos. Lee, David Moore, George Lee, George Armstrong and Harry Allaster in Carrol's hotel. He could not swear positively that Armstrong was one of them. Carrol's hotel. He could not swear posi-tively that Armstrong was one of them. One of them (Thomas Lee, he thought) spoke to him and said "Mac, it will cost you 25 cents for the drinks," Witness made no reply, but got the girls and went to Young's hotel. Wm. Young, son of Mrs. Young, the proprietor of the hotel, came into the room. There was a rigno and Miss Kate McGeary was playing hotel, came into the room. There was a piano and Miss Kate McGeary was playing on it. Harry Allaster peeped in but did not come in. Mrs. Young went out and came back and asked her to stop playing came back and asked her to stop playing the pisno as there were five fellows outside creating a disturbance, and she was afraid that they would come in. The music ceased at once. Wm. Young came in shortly afterwards and asked witness and the girls it they 'would have anything' before they went home. Three glasses of native wine and a cigar were brought in. Witness took the eigar, as he is a total abstainer, and Young and the girls drank the wine. It was Young and the girls drank the wine. It was Young and the girls drank the wine. It was then 9:45 and the visitors decided to start for home. They bade Mrs. Young good-bye and went out by the front door. When they got outside it was dark, the sky being cloudy. Witness walked between the young ladies. When nearly across the road Mo-Alpine heard the five young men come out of Young's and follow them. They ran right up to the three. Moore said to witness: "You ——, I'm looking for your blood," and struck him with a whip-stock on the side of the neck. Witness then kicked Moore, and received a blow that on the side of the neck. Witness then kicked Moore, and received a blow that stunned him. In the meantime the other four fellows had hold of the girls, and were The joint committee of granite workers at New York on Thursday issued a circular addressed to all the labor organizations throughout the country, in which they set forth their grievances against the Granite Manufacturers' Association, and appeal to to workingmen generally to aid them in their struggle.

Youngatown, Ohio, street cars are all tied up by a strike. Conductors and motor men want an increase of 24 cents a day.

Chicago tin and sheet iron workers and cornice makers have decided to strike for an eight-hour day and a minimum rate of 35 cents an hour.

It was reported that a settlement has been made with the locked-out granite workers and broke up his home.

trip.

Death adjourned the breach of promise case of Esther Jacobs vs. Henry B. Size in Judge of Esther Jacobs vs. Henry B. Size in Judge of Size in Judge of Size in Judge over till fall.

The New York Supreme Court has dismissed the action of Miss Anna Dickinson against the members of the Republican that the contracts made for he lecture in aid of the election of Harrison was illegal.

C.E. Montgomery, of the German Bank at Line contracts made for he lecture in aid of the contracts made for he lecture in aid of the election of Harrison was illegal.

C.E. Montgomery of the German Bank at Line contracts made for he recovered his senses. All was quiet then and the girls and were to taking them down the road towards the case of Esther Judges over till fall.

The New York Supreme Court has disminstent the girls and young men were out of sight. Witness went over to Young's network the contracts made for he recovered his senses. All was quiet then and the girls and young men were out of sight. Witness went over to Young's network the contracts made for he citre four fellows had hold of the elad in taking them down the got the horse and buggy and drove to where the girl was lying. Young, Carrol and two other men went ahead. One of them had a lantern. About 125 yards down the road Kate McGeary was found. She was lifted into the buggy in an unconscious state and taken to Young's hotel. Her dress was covered with mud and her hair was all over her face. Her clothing had been loosened. Mrs. Young and witness both thought that the girl was going to die. After about ten the girl was going to die. After about ter minutes witness got into the rig and droved down the the road about half a mile to see down the the road about half a mile to see if he could find any trace of the other girl. He returned and shortly afterwards Carrol came up and said he knew where the other girl was. They went up the road 250 yards and turned south through a gateway, across a lot and over a tence. Here they found the five fellows who were at Young's hotel. The five moved further back into the field and away from where the girl was lying. Her clother from where the girl was lying. Her clothes were in disorder. Carrol attempted to lift her up, but she fell back again. She seemed stupid. Carrol and witness lifted ned stupid. Carrol and witness lift up, but she did not recover for ute, when she asked Carrol if he w minute, when she asked Carrol if he was Young. She was very weak and had to be lifted over the fence. They walked up to Young's hotel and the girl was helped upstairs. Her face seemed all bruised and she looked as if she had been rudely handled. Witness then went to where Kate, the first girl found, was lying and found here. girl found, was lying and found her rav ing. She recovered, however, in a few minutes and the girls were taken home. Witness remained in bed ail day Sunday, being not able to get up. The complaint was laid on Monday morning.

The court here adjourned for an hour.

FATEFUL FLAMES

Two Lives Lost and Several Men Injured in Boston, Mars.

Loston, Mass., May 27.—Fire broke out about 2 o'clock this morning in the upper part of the Hotel Royal, a cheap lodging house at 143 Court street. The fire was easily subdued by the department, but not before one man had been suffocated and several others overcome by smoke or burned. There were some 25 lodgers in this portion of the building and many escaped with difficulty. John Quinn, aged 20, was found in the upper hall unconscious and died at the hospital. F. E. Parks, a cripple, was badly burned, but will recover.

will recover.

The medical profession approve of Pile-kone for those suffering from piles.

WHOLE NO. 9265.

CAIRNCROSS & LAWRENCE 256 Dundas Street, London.

INCIDENTS OF INTEREST

The News of the Day Culled and Condensed.

It is thought that O'Brien the bunco teerer is now in Paris.

Spain has concluded a copyright treaty with the United States. The Brazilian monitor Bahia, which it was feared had been lost, is reported to Sir Henty Isaacs, ex-Lord Mayor of London, has been indicted for conspiring to defraud the Hansard Publishing Com-pany of upward of £30,000.

The members of the corporation of London had a heated discussion Thursday over don had a heated discussion Thursday over the question of opening the Guildhall Art gallery on Sunday. After a debate lasting three hours, it was decided to reject the petitions in favor of the opening. A special cable dispatch calls attention to the fact that the Archbishop of Canterbury some time ago attended the opening of an art gallery on Sunday in the Whitechapel dis-trict.

WHO WILL PAY THE COST? Of Gates at the Crossing of the C, P. R. and Adelaide Street—The Privy Council to Decide.

T. H. Carling et al. applied to No. 2 Committee last evening for an artificial stone walk on the north side of Carling street, from Richmond to Talbot. If there are the necessary number of signatures on the petition the walk will be done at once. There was a petition for a drain on Dufferin avenue, between Ontario and Quebec streets, but the work had already been done and the petition was filed.

E. Sutton applied for the use of Queen's Park for the retail grocers on July 27.

Elliot & Jarvis claimed remuneration for Elliot & Jarvis claimed remuneration for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. May, of London township, for damage said to have been done to their rig while driving along Dundas street near Rectory when the cobble-stoning was being done. Referred to engineer.

The member for each ward will interview residents of streets heaving duplicate and the residents of the streets the street ward will be supported to the streets of the streets the streets of the streets and the streets of the streets are streets. residents of streets bearing duplicate names in order to have the bylaw prepared to change the names. The tastes of the people will be consulted in the choice of new names.

The matter of the Wreay street drain in

The matter of the Wreay street drain in South London was referred to the engineer and member for the ward.

The question of erecting gates at the C. P. R. crossing of Adelaide street was once more brought up. A letter was read from the C. P. R. authorities offering to hear half the expenditure. The committee will not agree to their terms, and will recommend the council to request the Privy Council to compel them to pay all the costs.

The engineer was instructed to prepare plans for the proposed alterations to the course of Hunt's millrace.

The casket factory company have erected a platform on Dundas street between the sidewalk and the pavement for shipping purposes, and they will be ordered to remove it.

Alex. Harvey, who recently obtained from the city a portion of Talbot street north on condition that he would improve north on condition that he would improve it, wished to stop up a drain on the street, but will not be allowed to do so. The council will to be used in city drains, all other grades being considered unsatisfactory by the committee.

Accounts were passed and the committee adjourned. Ald. Connor (chairman), O'Meara, Jones, Shaw, Bartlett and Garratt, Street Commissioner Owens, City Engineer Graydon and Secretary Rell were present.

If troubled with piles use Pilekone

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and, is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases." A Pleasant Herb Drink.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases." "How to Cure All Skin Diseases."

Simply apply "SWAYNES OINTMENT."

No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nove, etc., leaving the skin cleer, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for SWAYNE'S OINTMENT. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, wholesale agents.

E.B.SMITH

IMPORTER OF

Wines and Liquors

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,

12 Market Square London, Ontario.

FINE CON

UNCH 220 DUNI IRTHS, MARR

ICE CREA FINEST F

E NO N'S FORM 25 CENT

JSS& L PRESBY

of the Gen Portland, (re., May 27 Presbyteri in the here the capac he assembly or the appel self and his hy the appell mod of Net upon the phe book of ally be take ook the floor of the app esponsible f and for is he and for it he lled to appea ssbytery. H count of the l his reasons lat strong r departure fro be allowed. fcCook had nn & Kellam's

o the Syn

n adopted wi

he question

thy dispute ided that rece e minutes as nographic re-clerk of the D e Strevell ga he admission t because of mal rights of

Oregon, Mayon of the Pr

under the re

rein propose the Presby ends the que of 1892 is con

ITS THAT

RIDOU FAIR FASHIONABL

ittee were a PLACE YOUR

ntain to pie l's love in a m body ever find PLUMBE

s not able to many people think of anythink papers have to main reaso

Ram's Horn. the tenden ion from mora superstition as an adequate hout religion ation for man Christianity and see and two subjects conversational PECIAL I sing. One of ation and the we think r COCK

SALE AND irket S

don, Onta

O DUNDA