HIGH HAY PRICES BRING MANY LOADS

From Ten to Twelve Dollars a Ton—Raspberries Still Scarce.

The market was fairly large this norning considering the threatening The high price being paid for hay is attracting the farmers, and 22 loads were in today. The price was a little lower, if anything, than yesterday, none going above $13 a ton. From $10 to $12 a ton was the figure paid. The supply of raspberries continues small, while the price refuses to come down. The retail price was 13 to 15 cents a box, and the wholesale 11 and 12 cents. Other fruits are coming in slowly. A few boxes of black currants sold at 17 cents a box. Red currants are 10 cents a box or three boxes for 25c. Cherries, 10 cents a box, and $1 to $1 35 by the basket.

The supply of butter and eggs this morning was small. A few baskets of eggs in dairy hall went at 21 cents a dozen, while dairy pound prints touched the 25-cent mark in the same building. Eggs by the crate are quoted at 18 cents a dozen. Butter by the crock, wholesale, is 19 to 20 $\frac{1}{5}$ building. Eggs by the crock, wholesale, is 19 to 20 $\frac{1}{5}$ building. NEW YORK, July 21—Wall street, 10 a.m.—American in London are mostly above parity. Bank of England rate unchanged. Amalgamated Copper dividend today, probably unchanged. Roads represented by western trunk line committee voluntarily suspend rate advances until Nov. 1. London settlement begins next Tuesday, and money rates over the end of the month are expected to be unusually easy. Great railroad strike in England. Mexican roads order $4,000,000 new equipment. General market in London quiet, but copper stocks show independent strength. Total gold imports, including $3,000,000 from Mexico, now total $7,500,000, and are likely to increase. G. T. R. manager says the company will see the strike through to a finish. Virginia Chemical has completed the best year in its history. Pittsburg reports some im-

A Barn Belonging to Mr. Philip Murphy Destroyed Last Night.

A fire in a barn belonging to Mr. Philip Murphy, Second street, Pottersburg, caused about $400 damage last night. The cause is attributed to new hay which had just recently been put in the barn. The blaze was discovered about 11 o'clock. The barn stands close to the house, and it was with difficulty that the bucket brigade prevented the fire from spreading to Douglas McConnell, of Pall Mall the house. The hay and a number of fowls were destroyed.
