Mooney Gibson Will Display His Big League Menagerie At West London Ball Yard On May 9

Only Canadian Big League Manager Wires Day Before Mint League Opening Is Only Open Date-A Long. Awaited Event.

Manager George (Mooney) Gibson will bring his Pittsburg Pirates here on May 9, a day prior to the regular Mint League opening, over at Tecumseh Park. London's one big leaguer had promised to bring his big tent menagerie to Lon-don and Saturday wired Secretary Rhodes to the effect that May 9 was his only open date.

A letter is now in the mails from President Dreyfus of the Pittsburg club, stating the terms, and unless these are prohibitive, the game will be played.
Two-Day Opener, of the It will take some of the lustre off the opening Mint festivities, but the real effect will be prolonging opening day into a two-day affair.

The chance to come to L The chance to come to London with the Pirates affords Manager Gibson the opportunity he has been long awaiting, as he has often promised his many friends in London and the surrounding district to bring his big leaguers. The Pitts-burg schedule in the West ends with a series with St. Louis on May 7 at home, and at Chicago on May 8 with the 9th open for the usual jump to Boston, but instead of using the off-day to go, Gibson will bring his Buccaneers, including Maran-ville, to his home town, and then jump to St. Thomast to catch the M. C. R. for the East. The London fans will have had the distinction of seeing a major league open the season here as well as closing the past pennant race with an exhibition game with the Detroit Tigers on September 15 last.

The news of the release of Maurice Archdeacon from the Boston Nationals to the Rochester Internationals brings up again one of the slants peculiar to baseball. Archdeacon, an outfielder from the St. Louis sand lots, playing last year in South Carolina, had such speed on the paths that he drew big league scouts like a magnet. Boston landed him. Here again in training, he had all the backstops stopped dead, trying to get him at second. His speed was unbelievable, and from a standing start right from the sack. He used to get on once in a while in the minors and show off that speed, but when he looked over big league hurling, he just swung and prayed and walked back to the bench. They say he could beat Sisler by ten feet to second. But it didn't mean anything, when he couldn't get on.

The games postponed in the London and District will likely be played Wednesday afternoon. Public Utilities did not even heard the train for Si Tile. not even board the train for St. Thomas with the weather as it was, and Grand Trunk Wasps decided that they'd wait for a sunnier day to make the trip to Westminster Hospital.
