DENIES MAILING

Suspect Arraigned By Detroit Post Office Authorities.

FACES 10-YEAR TERM

Special to The Advertiser. Detroit, May 15 .- Charles Henderson pleaded not guilty today before J. Stanley Hurd, United States commissioner, of violating the postal laws by mailing poisoned candy to Miss Louise Havers, former Sarnia girl who is employed as a clerk at the Book-Cadillac hotel. His bond was set at $5,000. Bonding companies stood ready to supply it. The examination wil be held June 1.

Faces 10-Year Term.

If convicted under this warrant Henderson will be liable to 10 years' imprisonment and a $5,000 fine.

E. E. Fraser, postal inspector, agreed with Assistant Prosecutor John V. Brennan that it would be easier to convict Henderson of the mail law violation than of attempted murder, which would have been a state law charge.

Poison Accessible

In the building in which he worked, Henderson might easily obtain the poisons which were found in the poisons which were found in the candy sent Miss Havers, the police determined. These poisons are of such a powerful nature that they are not sold in drug stores or in places where they can be readily obtained. Miss Havers was a friend of Ale jundro V. Martinez, Mexican consul n Detroit, and Carlos Grimm, viceconsul. The anonymous letters threatened her life if she "continued going with Mexicans."

Henderson's friendship
