Sale of Work.

The committee in charge of the W. C. T. U. Refuge Home have decided to hold a sale of work some day during the week before Christmas. The articles offered will be most laborious work on account of the the work of the inmates of the Home during the past year, and are both numerous and useful.

Last evening there was a good crowd of spectators at the auction ware rooms of Messrs. J. P. Davies & Co., viewing the handsome collection of pictures which will be offered for sale to-day, the first one being put up at 11 o'clock sharp.

Among the pictures are two magnificent ones, Nos. 25 and 26. The first is a view of the great Chimborazo, South America, 23,000 feet above sea level, Prof. Loemans' most laborious work on account of the fidelity of the tropical plants in that region. The second named is of Stanley in Darkest Africa. These are large pictures, 30x48 Dr. W. A. Richardson forwarded his report for the month of November for the quarantine station. The British bark Highlands, 1,236 tons, Capt. Owen, was towed up to Vancouver from Port Townsend by the tug Wanderer on Tuesday night. She will load lumber at the Hastings sawmill for Montreal. THE MARINE REGISTER.

In proof of the growing importance of Victoria's shipping interests the marine register tells a very significant story. Year by year it has been steadily growing, but the largest increase is scored to the credit of the twelve-month now drawing to a close Since January 1, 1:92, no less than forty-two vessels have been added to the register, two vessels have been added to the register, made up chiefly of vessels joining the fleet from foreign ports. The sealers have contributed largely to this total, but there have been a number of new craft built in the local yards, which are a credit to the port.
