

Walk-Over For Ald. Hayward

Defeated Mayor Redfern in Mayoralty Contest by Two to One.

Only Two of Last Year's Aldermen Defeated—The New Trustees.

While it was generally expected that Ald. Chas. Hayward would be elected mayor yesterday and there were many who were willing to wager that his majority would be between two and three hundred, nobody expected that he would have such a complete walkover for walk-over it was. The popular adage that received the largest majority candidate and polled the largest vote in the history of the city. The result was:

Charles Hayward..... 1,533
Charles R. Redfern..... 622

Majority for Mr. Hayward..... 911
Spilled ballots..... 18
Total vote cast..... 1,551

While in each ward one candidate had a good lead from the start, the result was not as certain as it appeared. In the North ward, Mr. J. Stewart Yates supported Mr. Hayward, and in the South ward, Mr. J. Stewart Yates supported Mr. Redfern.

As usual, Ald. Williams won by a good margin in the North ward, Mr. Stewart Yates being second and Mr. J. S. Yates third, while the other members of last year's board, Ald. MacGregor, lost by one vote.

Ald. Cameron ran away ahead of the candidates in South ward, Mr. Henry Cooley being second and Mr. J. H. Hume being third.

The votes by wards follow, the first three in each ward being elected:

NORTH WARD.
John Kinsman..... 674
Thos. A. Brydon..... 574
Ed. Brazg..... 488
George James..... 439
G. Tharks..... 224
Total vote cast, 1,115; spoiled ballots, 21.

CENTRE WARD.
R. T. Williams..... 562
Alexander Stewart..... 313
J. Stuart Yates..... 298
P. C. MacGregor..... 193
Joseph Kootenay..... 125

SOUTH WARD.
W. G. Cameron..... 403
Henry Cooley..... 398
John Hall..... 293
John Wilson..... 233
William Humphrey..... 218
Richard Drake..... 125
Total vote cast, 855; spoiled ballots, 12.

THE TRUSTEES.
The ladies were successful in their campaign for school trustees. In the first round, heading the poll with 1105 votes, Trustee Belyea second with 942, Mr. J. G. Brown third and Mr. R. L. Denby fourth. The vote follows, the first four being elected:

Mr. Grant..... 1,105
L. Belyea..... 942
J. G. Brown..... 854
R. L. Drury..... 806

Beaumont Boggs..... 770
W. J. Hanna..... 372
W. Bebrah..... 372
A. Williams..... 328
Aaron Lewis..... 275

The arrangements for the election were perfect, and the staff of assistants carried them out without a hitch. The result in the mayoralty and aldermanic contests were known before six o'clock and the count for trustees was completed by eight o'clock.

In last year's contest Mr. Redfern received 1,850 votes, just one less than was cast for Mr. Hayward yesterday, while Mr. Morris last year received 1,200 votes, 122 more than Mr. Redfern received this year.

The new council will probably be sworn in on Saturday and will have to assume in its address thanking the electors

Gossip of the Legislature.

Government Feel Their Ground Slipping From Them and Confer for Safety.

Work for an Active Attorney General—Settlers of Chilcotin Seek Their Rights.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cannermen Confer.—A number of representatives of the Mainland cannermen met yesterday evening for the purpose of discussing the season's operations.

"Pacific Sport"—This is the title of a new magazine of field athletics launched modestly, yet with a distinct and recognized place in the world to fill, by a group of enterprising. It is small as yet and applies for recognition and support with becoming humility, yet there is reason to believe that it will be a good medium for legitimate sports, and eventually prosper.

United in Marriage.—Mr. John Park and Miss Mary Douglas were united in matrimony yesterday (Thursday) evening at the residence of Mrs. McLennan, Catherine street, Victoria.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Gossip of the Legislature.

Government Feel Their Ground Slipping From Them and Confer for Safety.

Work for an Active Attorney General—Settlers of Chilcotin Seek Their Rights.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cannermen Confer.—A number of representatives of the Mainland cannermen met yesterday evening for the purpose of discussing the season's operations.

"Pacific Sport"—This is the title of a new magazine of field athletics launched modestly, yet with a distinct and recognized place in the world to fill, by a group of enterprising. It is small as yet and applies for recognition and support with becoming humility, yet there is reason to believe that it will be a good medium for legitimate sports, and eventually prosper.

United in Marriage.—Mr. John Park and Miss Mary Douglas were united in matrimony yesterday (Thursday) evening at the residence of Mrs. McLennan, Catherine street, Victoria.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

Off for Dawson.—The outfitting firms of the city again began to get busy for the effects of the movement towards the northern goldfields. One of the first parties of the year to take a large outfit for the Yukon was that of Messrs. Wm. D. R. Black, and the bride by Miss Kate McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Park will make their home on Craigflower Road.

Installed Officers.—At the meeting last night of the Victoria Sons of England, the officers for the year as follows: P. P. O. Thomas; W. P. J. S. Nankivell; V. P. H. Wagner; committee: W. E. Warden and Snell and their men.

CARPETS, RUGS, ART SQUARES

Advertisement for Weiler Bros. Carpets, Rugs, Art Squares. We show 10 patterns to any other stores one. WEILER BROS., Victoria, B. C.

DEATH OF MR. C. F. JONES.

Well Known Victoria Stenographer Called to His Last Long Home.

AGRICULTURISTS MEET.

Annual Session of the Fruit Growers' Association Held at Vancouver.

Mr. J. R. Anderson, deputy minister of agriculture, accompanied by Prof. J. Sherrin, Dominion chemist for agricultural farms, and Mr. Marker, Dominion dairy superintendent for the Northwest Territories, returned last evening from Vancouver where the annual meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association has just been concluded.

The session lasted all day on Tuesday and until 1 p.m. on Wednesday. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Wm. Wilson; vice-president, Mr. Henry Kipp; 2nd vice-president, Mr. J. C. Cameron; secretary, Mr. W. H. Hayward, and fifteen directors.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock the annual meeting of the Dairyman's Association will commence at the office of the department of agriculture, when a very interesting session is promised. The meeting will be held in the afternoon and will be presided over by Mr. O'Connell.

The meeting of the delegates to the Central Farmers' Institute will begin this morning at 10 o'clock in the hall of the department of agriculture, when all matters pertaining to the welfare of agriculturists will be considered.

Following are the prices obtained at the Hudson's Bay Company's and the Hudson's Bay Company's sales of skins in London on December 15:

Wigs, middlings..... 696 44
Mid. and smalls..... 738 84
Smalls..... 798 00

REMARKABLE SALVAGE OF THE MILWAUKEE.
Probably the most remarkable achievement in the line of wrecking and rebuilding was found in maritime history by the reconstructed steamer Milwaukee, which was turned out of the summer of 1890 at the yard of C. S. Swab & Hunter at Walden-on-Tyne, England.

The Milwaukee, a vessel of 483 feet length and 56 feet beam, was ashore near Aberdeen in September, 1898, a huge rock penetrating the hold for a length of 80 feet, and to a height of 8 feet above the tank-top.

CHINATOWN'S UNCLEANLINESS.
The Bubonic Plague Scare May Cause a Clean-up.

The prevalence of the dread bubonic plague in Oriental ports and in Honolulu has alarmed all maritime officials and has resulted in a general clean-up of Chinatown.

London, Jan. 12.—Mr. Chamberlain has received telegrams from Ceylon, showing that the executive council met to send 125 mounted armed men to South Africa.

Ralph Smith Flays Old Ally.

Ex-Attorney General Denounced as Dishonorable, Bombastic and a Bluffer.

But Debate on Address Continues Without Word in Premier's Defence.

Mr. Higgins' Criticism of the Ministry—A Voice from the Interior.

Discussion of the speech from the throne occupied the entire afternoon of the legislature yesterday. Mr. Ralph Smith "opening the ball," to be followed by Mr. Higgins on the other side (who was unfortunate in being so ill as to hardly do himself justice in vigor although the matter of his remarks made a decided impression upon the house).

The news of the death of Mr. C. F. Jones, senior member of the well known firm of Jones Bros., stenographers and typists, which occurred yesterday at the Jubilee hospital, will surprise to a certain extent the great majority of whom were perhaps not fully aware that sickness had laid his hand upon Mr. Jones.

He had indeed been falling for some months past, although the immediate cause of his death was not ascertained until he was taken to the hospital. He was a man of great energy and was engaged in reporting an important case at the city of Nanaimo.

On the opening of the house with prayer by Rev. Mr. Clay.

A PETITION.
Was presented by Mr. Clifford, for the incorporation of the Kitimat and Columbia Rivers, and for the building a wagon road from the head of Kitimat Arm to Hazelton.

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW.
Mr. Higgins, before the orders of the day were taken up, enquired of the Premier when the House might expect to receive the correspondence asked for with regard to the operation of the eight-hour law in the Kootenay and British Columbia provinces.

Mr. Higgins, before the orders of the day were taken up, enquired of the Premier when the House might expect to receive the correspondence asked for with regard to the operation of the eight-hour law in the Kootenay and British Columbia provinces.

DEBATING THE SPEECH.
MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

MR. RALPH SMITH, in resuming the debate upon His Honor's speech, said that he did not propose to confine himself in any way to replying to the junior member for Vancouver who had preceded him—although he would have greatly desired to have Mr. Smith present, as in his absence he would leave much unsaid that otherwise he would have said.

the government, and I us train and special steamer least have straightforwardly by his own hand he had acted the part of a critic.

Mr. Martin had gone to compare Mr. Dunsunui P. R. in their mutual regard. The O. C. he was with organized labor departments; while Mr. Dunsunui had objected to an organization of the mutual strength. This was the antagonism Mr. Dunsunui given to him. In this case, steamer and train Mr. Martin had not the at first supposed to be, by the worst order. In this case, steamer and train Mr. Martin had not the at first supposed to be, by the worst order. In this case, steamer and train Mr. Martin had not the at first supposed to be, by the worst order.

In connection with the aid, of which he was quite sure that he and the Premier would be able to follow, and as for the paragraph Mr. Martin had taken special notice of, it was a suggestion or a recommendation. The Nanaimo Herald had a right to exercise its own judgment and to exercise its own right to print. If the editor of the Nanaimo Herald had done something with which he would have been content, he would have been content. As a matter of fact, the editor of the Nanaimo Herald was Mr. Martin. He was old Mr. Martin's old friend, and he had merely in the carried out the same method as Mr. Martin.

Reverting next to Mr. Martin's disclosure of confidences of the Premier, it was a personal attack, the member of the House had intended much less for the electors than for the Premier. It was a personal attack, the member of the House had intended much less for the electors than for the Premier. It was a personal attack, the member of the House had intended much less for the electors than for the Premier.

As for Mr. Martin, he had not the least intention of making a personal expression of opinion. He had only intended to read the resolution, and also a resolution of the House, and to declare his sympathy for, and to support Mr. Martin's course.