Sixteen Thousand Men Is The Reported Russian Loss

Battle Fought Last Thursday Said to Have Been Hardest Blow Struck During Campaign and Almost Resulted in Total Rout.

Chicago, June 25.—A special to the "Daily News" from Tientsin says: "Officers arriving at New Chang from the front say that the battle fought on Thursday at Simenting, about forty miles east of Keping, was the hardest blow the Russians have yet received. The Russians lost, according to these accounts, 16,000 men killed, wounded, missing and prisoners. That the Russian retreat did not turn into a rout was due to the dogged bravery of the men of the Ninth East Siberian Rifle Brigade under Gen. Kondratievitch, who covered the flying troops, contesting every inch of the way."
