HIS EXTRADITION IS ASKED.

MORE ABOUT RAYMOND G. HILTON DAVIDSON.

He Played the Organ in a Methodist Church the Night Before He Skipped—Detective Murray's Capture in Mexico. Turns Out to Be a Most Important One.

When the officials of the Attorney-General's Department picked up The World before breakfast yesterday morning they were surprised to read that C. Hilton Davidson, a young man of 24, who had been arrested in Mexico, was a fugitive from justice.

The Dominion Government had communicated with a telegram sent to the Mexican Government demanding Davidson's extradition.

The name of the firm was John Davidson & Sons, and they carried on a large nursery garden business near Burlington, Ontario.

The firm was founded by John Davidson, who was a well-known nurseryman in the province for many years.

On the morning of May 15 last he played the organ as usual in the church, and then he disappeared.

The reason he left so suddenly was that the bank of Hamilton, with which he had business, had been unable to get satisfaction from certain notes which C. Hilton Davidson had discounted.

For information his gully conscience, which, as some esteemed gentlemen have just remarked, makes cowards of us all, made Mr. Davidson think he had been discovered.

He had not been discovered up to that date. His methods had been ingenious and not of an easily detected character, and it is whispered, of a kind not entirely unknown in the financial operations of prominent firms whose names never went to Mexico.

The firm of Davidson & Sons had got into financial difficulties some time before, and they tried their account temporarily it is alleged that the accused forged notes, which he discounted with other banks.

Davidson went about his business as usual, but he was not to be deceived. He was not to be deceived. He was not to be deceived.

About a week ago a fine stallion and buggy were stolen from the stable of W. W. Mitchell, of Deloraine, Manitoba. Two men living in the neighborhood named G. E. Dunsterville and Elhan Hoover disappeared about the same time.

M. Clarke, a constable of the City, traced the men to Sarina, where he found them, though the horse and buggy were not recovered. The prisoners passed the night at Headquarters here and will start for the Prairie Province this morning.

Left for West or East.
William Wheeler, the private of "C" School who was the primary cause of the fracas in Widmer-street the other night, which resulted in the shooting of his comrade, William Ticker, has deserted.

Thursday night he was seen at the "C" School, but has not yet been caught.

A Young Pickpocket.
Detective Barrows arrested a boy last night named Fred Burnham, who was attempting the officer's clasp, to rifle the pockets of a number of laborers engaged in Queen-street east.

Has Anyone Seen George?
George Campbell, a lad living with his aunt, Mrs. Johnston, at 177 Front-street east, ran away from home last July. The aunt did not concern herself, as she considered he had gone to another relative in West York. Now she has found that he did not go there and wants the detectives to find him.

BLAME THE RIGHT PARTIES
FOR DELAYING THE CONVERSION OF THE STREET RAILWAY.

Mayor Fleming and His Newspaper Boss, Who Blocked Everything in the Spring, Now Want to Cut Down the Trolley Policy—East Enders Anxious for the Trolley Service.

The Street Railway people are not going to let the grass grow under their feet. They will replace the poles cut down by the City Engineer on Queen-street east over the Don, and the moment they can get the wires strung and the current into them they will run the King-street line clear east to Lee-avenue.

This will give a service on King-street nearly seven miles in length. They will try and do it by the end of the year.

Flaming got it into his head that the electric light should be the motive power of the street cars running the bargain with the company.

A civic delegation sent abroad to ascertain the latest developments in the progress was not able to show that the company could get the trolley system into its head.

THREW A TOOL IN A DYNAMITE BOX
ALL CATHOLIC CHILDREN
IN THE UNITED STATES TO BE PROVIDED WITH SCHOOLS.

Where They Will Be Taught the Doctrine of Their Church—Sunday and Week Day Schools To Be Under the Direct Supervision of the Clergy—Conference of the Archbishop.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A terrible explosion of dynamite took place on the Ottawa and Parry Sound Railway, in course of construction near the city, at 10 minutes to 8 to-day. A shock as of an earthquake was felt all over the town. One man was instantly killed and another fatally injured.

The ground was torn up and the debris scattered all around. The body of the unfortunate man, Julius Theisen, who was killed by the explosion, was thrown from the point where the accident occurred several yards. It was terribly shattered, and the blood and parts of the flesh and clothing entered in all directions.

There was a laboring man, middle-aged, and leaves a wife and nine of a family to mourn his untimely death. A very serious injury that he cannot live.

His right arm is a mass of pieces, and his left arm looks as if it were a bag of bones. The left hand was also shattered and two or three fingers blown off.

Mr. Mayor Fleming and the City Engineer were specially on the ground, and had him conveyed in the ambulance to the Protestant Hospital.

The accident occurred through the throwing of a working tool into a box containing twelve sticks of dynamite, instead of into the tool box, which was close by.

MERRICKVILLE, Nov. 18.—Quite a number of people were gathered at the arrival of the train from Ottawa, and the crowd was very large.

POISONED OYSTERS.
A Seizure in Toronto of Some Oysters Which Had Been Poisoned by Sewage.

Inspector Aude yesterday seized six units for food a large quantity of oysters which had been shipped from Baltimore to a wholesale oyster merchant of this city. Some of the oysters had died in transit, and the poison from these dead oysters affected any healthy oysters that were shipped with them.

Mr. Thomas Heys, analytical chemist, was seen by a World reporter and said: "Cases of the kind are of rare occurrence, but have come under public notice several times in New York. Oysters become poisoned through having been propagated in water which is rank with sewage. In such a case they turn pale green in color and very unhealthy indeed. At one time in New York the scare became so great that the sales of the oyster materially decreased."

"In the case of the oysters seized in Toronto, the poison was probably communicated from the poisoned oysters to the healthy ones by means of the solution in which oysters are usually packed, and which penetrates the shells."

French Representation.
Lower Canadian Opposition to the Entrance of French Delegates to the Conference of the Commonwealth.

[From Le Monde, Montreal, Nov. 17.] The federal constitution gives only 65 seats to our province (Quebec) in the Commonwealth. Of these 65 are occupied by English-speaking members. In fact, counting an Acadian (New Brunswick) member and the member for Provence (Manitoba), we have only 52 French representatives at Ottawa.

The English side is steadily augmenting Ontario gains at each census some seats. The representation given to the Northwest has swollen the English delegation by four votes, and, thanks to an immigration directly encouraged, this representation will be more than double in ten years.

While the French population cannot increase its territory as far as the Commonwealth is concerned the gradual reduction of seven-eighths of the land.

Now that Newfoundland is about to enter the confederation we will be inundated for all time. This annexation is a danger to our national interests, not only because the English representation will be enlarged by eight seats, but, worse than that, the Newfoundlanders are more hostile to our race than the most ferocious, Equal Rights.

Lively Scene At An Eviction in Ireland—The Bailiffs Had to Fight Their Way from Room to Room—Several Men Burned and Scalded in the Attack.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Cork correspondent of The Times describes an evicting scene at a tenement in the city.

The sheriff's party and 20 policemen went to evict Caretaker Murphy. They found the crowd of about 100 men, the trees in the orchard uprooted and the houses barricaded.

The inmates kept the party at bay for two hours with red hot iron and boiling water. The bailiffs having finally effected an entrance, had to fight their way from room to room, eventually succeeded in arresting 8 persons. Several of the bailiffs and policemen were burned and scalded.

They Drag a Bishop Through the Streets and Nearly Kill Him.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Standard's Shanghai correspondent gives Bishop Hughes' account of a Chinese attack made at Nanking, Shensi, in August, upon an English magistrate belonging to the French Franciscan mission.

The bishop says that in revenge for his attempt to get redress for a former outrage, a horde of fanatics dragged him through a public street, and then after stoning him, beat him for hours. The local officials took steps to punish the ringleaders, but unless the European governments act with vigor there will be safety for European in China away from the treaty ports.

That, as He Has an Assumed Name, His Identity is Unknown.

John Dunlop Taylor, jr., a Harlem, New York, photographer, is being sued by his wife for divorce. Taylor's father is worth $200,000.

His wife is a daughter of Mr. Jaubert, who claims to be a widow, but Taylor says Mrs. Jaubert is not a widow—that she has a husband living in Toronto, Canada, under an assumed name—that, in fact, the whole family used to live here.

Disenfranchisement.
Every lady and gentleman in the community is interested in wearing furs. Furs are necessary in this climate. Although the weather has been mild for some time it will be long before the northern winds will come down in all their fury and probably stay for some time. We direct our attention to the advertisement of Messrs. W. & D. Dusen on another page of this paper.

Why Do They Buy Furs?
When a merchant refuses to buy goods from a firm who sell his neighbor it means that he fears him. The idea is being practiced a great deal in the shoe trade just now towards one of their number, who has probably gone to the extreme limit of large turn-over of goods with the aid of cash discounts. Mr. Howell of the Wide-Awake Shoe House, 542 Queen west, says he can afford to laugh at all the boycotting, as no shoemaker will refuse his cash.

Word Not Pen.
Not fully describe the surprising operation of nature's gentle remedy, St. Leon. Partaking of it heartily everyone will find it more than a cure as I did my head aches, dyspepsia and kidney troubles all vanished after years of suffering on constant attempts with medicine to find a cure.
