COUNTY OF LAMBTON

Treasurer's Notice as to Lands Liable for Sale
for Taxes, A. D.
1911.

TAKE NOTICE, that the list of lands in the County of Lambton liable for sale for arrears of taxes by the Treasurer of the County, has been prepared by me and the copies thereof may be had in the office of the Treasurer of the County of Lambton, in the Town of Sarnia.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the list of lands liable for sale as aforesaid is now being published in the Ontario Gazette in the issues thereof bearing date the 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th days of July, 1911.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that in default of payment of the taxes in arrears upon the lands specified in said list so published in the Ontario Gazette, before the day fixed for sale of such lands being on the 9th day of October, A.D. 1911, the said lands will be sold for taxes pursuant to the terms of the advertisement in the Ontario Gazette.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that this publication is made pursuant to the Assessment Act, Edward VII, Chap. 23 and Amendments.

Dated at Sarnia this 8th day of July, A.D. 1911.

The Courtright Tribune will likely go out of existence unless a company is formed to buy it. Unless the business men do a little more advertising, a paper in that town will never be a success.
Strange how some business men stand in their own light.

Ryan McCandless, son of S. McCandless, butcher, Stratford, had a narrow escape Wednesday while putting the belt on the sausage machine. His shirt caught in the gearing and was torn off, but he managed to brace himself and was not injured.

While Mr. Jas. Robinson, of Wyoming and Mrs. George Eady, of Copleston, were returning from Wyoming last Saturday, they met Chas. Kemp's auto, which frightened the horse so badly that it became unmanageable, upsetting the rig into a ditch and fracturing two ribs belonging to Mr. Robinson. Mrs.
Eady received several bruises about the face. The accident happened south of Wyoming.

Important Sales Friday

The balance of this week and the first week in August will mark some of the most important clearings of

Summer Merchandise

that will take place this season, and there is not a department on either floor that is not contributing to make every day from now till the end of the first week in August the most profitable of the season for economic shoppers. Everything that is being cleared during this time is merchandise wanted for immediate use, seasonable wearing apparel and household necessities, and the point of greatest interest during the first week in August will be in the

Linen and Cotton Section

Hosiery, Parasol, Umbrella and Wash Goods Section; also in the Men's Section where all Summer Wearing Apparel for Men, Boys and Children are included in the clearing list.
