♣ BRIDGETOWN, Oct. 27, 1890. OPELEKA REMEDIES Co

SIRS,—I sell more Opeleka Cough Mixture than all other kinds put together. I a sure you that it gives perfect satisfaction in every case.

Yours, Respectfully, DANIEL PALFREY.

Professional Lards. T. DANIEL BARRISTER,

NOTARY PUBLIC, ETC. (RANDOLPH'S BLOCK.)

Money to Loan on First-Class

J. M. OWEN. BARRISTER - AT - LAW, Notary Public, Real Estate Agent. United States Consul Agent. Annapolis, Oct. 4th, 1882-

W. G. Parsons, B. A. Barrister, Solicitor, Etc. MIDDLETON, - - N. S. Ar Office,-" Dr. Gunter" building.

FREDERICK PRIMROSE, M.D., Physician and Surgeon. Office: - MEDICAL HALL, BRIDGETOWN, N. S.

as Dentistry a Specialty. L. G. deBLOIS, M.D. PHYSICIAN and SURCEON. Office :- MEDICAL HALL, BRIDGETOWN,

Physician and Surgeon

OFFICE RANDOLPH'S BLOCK.

JR. T. A. GROCKER,

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL (HEAD OF QUEEN STREET,)

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., CILL maintains the high reputation

Bridgetown, Oct. 22nd, 1890. 29 B. B. B. Burdock Blood Bitters

of the system, and controlling their se CURES All blood humors and diseases, from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore, an this combined with its unrivalled regulating

SKIN

From one to two bottles will cure boils imples, blotches, nettle rash, scurf, tetter, nd all the simple forms of skin disease. From two to four bottles will cure salt rheum

We have undoubted proof that from thre to six bottles used internally and by outwar application (diluted if the skin is broken) the affected parts, will effect a cure. The application (unter it in a same so bear to the affected parts, will effect a cure. The great mission of B. B. B. is to regulate the liver, kidneys, bowels and blood, to correct acidity and wrong action of the stomach, and to open the sluice-ways of the system to carry off all clogged and impure secretions effectively become the story of the system to the system to the story of the system to the story of the system to the s

Liver complaint, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache, dropsy, rheumatism, and every species of disease arising from disordered liver, kidneys, stomach, bowels and blood. We guarantee every bottle of B. B. B. Should any person be dissatisfied after using the first bottle, we will refund the money on application personally or by letter. We will also be glad to send testimonials and information proving the effects of B. B. B. in the above named diseases, on application to the latter of th

to T. MILBURN & CO., Toronto, Ont. FOR SALE!

SALUS POPULI SUPREMA LEX EST.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., VOL. 19.

JUST RECEIVED: UNEQUALLED FOR STRENGTH AND FLAVOR. Head of Queen St., Bridgetown. TEAS AND COFFEES, SPICES, Warranted Pure. CANNED GOODS OF ALL KINDS

BISCUITS, Fresh from the Manufactory, SYRUPS of all kinds. UGARS, MOLASSES, PORK, BEANS, TOBACCOS, PICKLES. FRUIT: ORANGES, LEMONS, and BANANAS.

AT LOWEST CASH PRICE. GEO. H. DIXON.

Frank E. Vidito,

PORK, BAC A AND VEGETABLES.

Bridgetown, June 10th, 1890. 10 ly

CHANCE OF TIME.

W. H. BANNISTER. Optician,

New York Optical College, 136 GRANVILLE STREET - - HALIFAX, N. S.

PALFREY'S FRESH AND SALTED BEEF, LAMB,

MONEY TO LOAN.

Friday morning at 7.30, local time, for by and Annapolis, connecting at these the with the different railways. eturning will sail from Annapolis on Tues, Thursday and Saturday, upon arrival of morning express from Hallax, calling as by, and due at St. John at 7 p.m. rom 1st until 22nd June, the sailings will be, rom 1st until 22nd June, the sailings will be,

This is Business

ONE nearly new Top Buggy.

One brand new Buck-Eye Mower.
One brand new Horse Hay-Rake.

Bargains are offered. Apply at this by buying Patent or Proprietary Medicine and paying for both.

Coffee at the same rate.

To Let.—Two offices formerly occupied by myself.

PLEASANT AS MILK

Ask for Estey's. "No pity, Lord, could change the heart From red with wrong to white as wool; The rod must heal the sin; but, Lord, Be merciful to me, a fool!

$2.50. BRIDGETOWN WARBLE WORKS

THOMAS DEARNESS Importer of Marble "Our faults no tenderness should ask, The chastening stripes must cleanse the Monuments, Tablets, Headstones, &c. Also Monuments in Red Granite. Gray Granite, and Freestone.

That did his will; but thou, O Lord, Be merciful to me, a fool!"

N. B.—Having purchased the Stock and Trade from Mr. O. Whitman, parties ordering anything in the above line can rely on having their orders filled at short notice. Bridgetown, March 19th, 89. Corner Queen and Water Sts. House For Sale!

THE subscriber has lately established business in the premises known as the PAYSON PROPERTY, first door east of the Post Office, where he intends to conduct the Meat and Provision Business in the best style, and so as to meet the requirements of the trade in all particulars. By strict attention and by dressing the best of stock, he hopes to receive a liberal patronage.

ARTHUR PALFREY.

Bridgetown, Oct. 22nd, 1890. 291y

DUISC TOI NOIL!

THE subscriber is prepared to furnish the public with all kinds of Carriages and Buggies, Sleighs and Pungs, that may be during the court House, consisting of house, barn, and suniting Repairing and Vanishing executed and small garden or building lot. Buildings in good repair, and furnished with town water service and sewerage.

ARTHUR PALFREY.

Bridgetown, Oct. 22nd, 1890. 291y

Corner Queen and Water Sts.

THE subscriber offers for sale her property on Court Street, next to the Court House, consisting of house, barn, and small garden or building lot. Buildings in good repair, and furnished with town water service and sewerage.

Apply on the premises.

C. PIPER. Apply on the premises.

C. PIPER. Bridgetown, March 4th.

PRODUCE. BAY OF FUNDY S. S. CO., Nova Scotia Permanent Building Society and Savings Fund of Halifax.

THANKING a generous public for their valued favors in the past, we take this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of n fact, everything in the way of Countries Produce. FOSTER, FOSTER & Co. Foot of Bell's Lane, Halifax N.S.

An Immense Stock

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1891. winter was very discouraging. Warm to hurry on.

that kind was going to happen to us."

"I shouldn't wonder," answered Lizzy,

very fond of day-dreaming.

The Royal feast was done; the King Sought some new sport to banish care, And to his jester cried: "Sir Fool, Kneel down and make for us a prayer." The jester doffed his cap and bells,
And stood the mocking court before;
They could not see the bitter smile
Behind the painted grin he wore. will take to and ask for more He bowed his head and bent his knee

Poetry.

The Fool's Prayer.

"'Tis not by guilt the onward sweep Of truth and right, O Lord, we stay; Fis by our follies that so long
We hold the earth from Heaven away. These clumsy feet, still in the mire, Go crushing blossoms without end; hese hard, well meaning hands we the Among the heart strings of a friend.

The ill-timed truth we might have kept-Who knows how sharp it pierced and stung?
The word we had not sense to say—
Who knows how grandly it had rung? all;
3ut for our blunders—oh! in shame
Before the eyes of Heaven we fall.

Earth bears no balsam for mistakes; Men crown the knave, and scourge t Granville St., Bridgetown, N. S. The room was hushed; in silence rose The King, and sought his gardens cool, and walked apart, and murmured low.

Select Literature. The Milham Children's

l'ramp.

children," she went on: "but to be sure, Uncle Patterson has got a nice house, and a big barn, and cows and chickens and horses, and we will live in clover, if he makes up his mind to have us. So, if you want to go, remember you must all behave so like little ladies when he first comes that he'll say to himself, "Those children won't to the family in the little brown house that they all gathered around Mrs. Milham as she looked it over on the outside. with many speculations as to whom it had come from, and at last cut away the end of the envelope and drew it forth.

"Chear it out, read it out, mamma!"

"Children," she went on: "but to be sure, Uncle Patterson has got a nice house, and a big barn, and cows and chickens and he house, and a big barn, and cows and chickens and he most aggravating tone. "I wish Uncle Patterson could see you now. Wouldn't he think you was a nice, lady-like little girls."

"I don't care," screamed Bess, resisting all Lizzy's efforts to pacify her. "I wish an old tramp would come and carry you off. I do—"

At this moment the front gate clicked. "There!" said Lizzy, "there's mamma to the window and peeped through the eventful day came at last. Saturday dawned clear and dry and warm. There was no danger lest Uncle Patterson should pattered Carry, in her most aggravating tone. "I wish Uncle Patterson could see you now. Wouldn't he think you was a nice, lady-like little girls?"

"I don't care," screamed Bess, resisting all Lizzy's efforts to pacify her. "I wish an old tramp would come and carry you off. I do—"

At this moment the front gate clicked. "There!" said Lizzy, "there's mamma to the window and peeped through the winterson could see you now. Wouldn't he think you was a nice, lady-like little girls?"

At this moment the front gate clicked. "Uncle Patterson!" The children stopped their screaming, and gazed velope and drew it forth.
"Read it out, read it out, mamma!"

THE WILLIO CARSE OF CASE OF CA

Jas. J. Ritchie, Q.C., Barrister and Solicitor.

ESTATE SECTIBITY AGENT OF THE CITY OF LONDON FIRE INSUR-

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL

ANCE COMPANY. 22 Solicitor at Annapolis to Union Bank

clothes were yet to be bought, and wood- "Well, I declare," exclaimed their tions? Not exactly! They did indeed shed and potato bin to be filled, and it was mother, hurrying suddenly out of the follow her out from under the table, but hard to lay by anything from the small wages that she was able to earn by her daily work. And now there was a chance grain in the house, I do believe. Here, ing the rafters ring with their screams.

was left to be desired?"

"It's like a fairy story," said Lizzy.
"Don't you know how the fairy godmother came to Cinderella and changed her old dirty clothes to a silk dress, and each of the horrible tramp should be someless the horrible tramp should be somewhere lying in wait and should bear there.

"Iner mother went away, and Lizzy immediately locked and bolted the door, shut to try to pull it off, but in so doing grew unsteady on the window sill, and aided by a second blow from the broom, fairly lost his balance and toppled over in a strugwhere lying in wait and should bear there ave her the glass slippers and took her off where lying in wait and should hear them, gling heap, but, unfortunately, not on the ave her the glass slippers and took her off on the ball? I always thought something of the ball? I always thought something of the ball of hat kind was going to happen to us."

Lizzy was a great reader of stories, and box, that a great long arm was reaching courage failed her. She dropped her broom out of it to grab her. ery iond of day-dreaming.
"Will Uncle Patterson give us silk resses?" asked Carry.

The shrick with which she greeted this and fled to unbolt the front door. The two children in the kitchen set up a louder

"I shouldn't wonder," answered Lizzy,

—E. R. Sill, in New York Independent.

God never let a flower fall to earth.
But that his dews had quenched its thirsting once.
God never let a streamlet reach the sea But that his rains had filled its channel once.
O human heart! thou too shalt feel the airs. Blow from some dim, sweet future drawing near.
And feel God's friendship closing round you once.

—Helen Lee Carey.

—Helen Lee Carey.

"I shouldn't wonder," answered Lizzy, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to play together more naturally than they shad all day.

But Bess and Carry could no longer agree, and, despite all Lizzy's attempts to quiet them, they soon squabbled more vigorously than they had in a week past. In despair, Lizzy longed for her mother's return. In vain she reminded them of Uncle Patterson's displeasure; for the time even that had lost its terrors. The hands of the clock moved on to four. By that time care, at the spell of alarm, and they soon began to play together more naturally than they had all day.

But Bess and Carry could no longer agree, and, despite all Lizzy's attempts to quiet them, they soon squabbled more vigorously than they had in a week past. In despair, Lizzy longed for her mother's return. In vain she reminded them of Uncle Patterson's displeasure; for the time even that had lost its terrors. The hands of the clock moved on to four. By that time care the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon began to the spell of alarm, and they soon squabbled more vigorously than they had in a week past. In despair, Lizzy longed for her mother's return. In vain she reminded them of Uncle Patterson's displeasure; for the time even that key.

"If you don't stop quarrelling, he surely won't like either of you," said their mother, looking in the door at that moment.
"Don't get your ideas too high up, my children," she went on: "but to be sure, Uncle Patterson has got a nice house, and a big hore, and cover a delice word and cover with the look of the property of the

NO. 11.

of Halifax, and Bank of Nova Scotia Annapolis, N. S.

for an easy and respectable situation where you run down to the village-no, I can go But their dauntless champion, when she her children might be warmed and fed and quicker myself. There'll be plenty of time threw open the pantry door, found her worst fears realized. The strange man had tothed and get a good education! And yet before the stage comes."

She hastily put on her sun bonnet, but indeed got the window raised, and was the had heard of this old uncle. all depended on the way in which he might be first impressed by those children. They were, plainly, the only doubtful point in were, planny, the only doubtful point in his mind. "But I'll never give them up," said Mrs. Milham to herself. "I'll starve myself first, and Uncle Patterson can keep house for himself. But oh! if I can only get them to keep quiet and not offend him!! Ocked. Don't let anybody in unless it is locked were the door shut and locked. Don't let anybody in unless it is locked we can be said, "I keep activate anybody in unless it is locked we can be said to the reciphors. If any attraction on the sill, and in that critical attitude It's the first time, really, that I ever wished one of the neighbors. If any strange man looked up at her with immense surprise hey didn't have quite so much life in them. should come, looking like that tramp, and and the dawning of a grin on his face, as knock, keep quiet and don't pay any attention, so that he'll think there's no one at brandished. For the fraction of a second suppose I can trust the Lord to do what's home and go away."

The caution was enough. The children's did not stop for question or parley. With th, and needn't worry too much about We've been cared for thus far, and we late suggestion. They had come to think a Comanche Indian, she lifted her broom will be still."

In the meantime the children, in a state of great jubilation, were discussing the wonderful prospect which had so suddenly opened before them. To go and live in the suggestion. They had come to think a Comanche Indian, she lifted her broom and brought it down on the top of that anscient beaver with a whack that sent the theorem of the fairy stories—a creatures whose very least offense was devouring children alive. There was no dancer of a comanche Indian, she lifted her broom and brought it down on the top of that anscient beaver with a whack that sent the hat not only down over its owner's eyes and ears but over his nose as well, and opened before them. To go and live in Blue Corners—a very metropolis compared with their little village—to live in a big house with a rich uncle—what more in life was left to be desired?"

whose very least onense was devouring and ears but over his nose as well, and children alive. There was no danger of their not keeping their promise to be careful in this matter.

Their mother went away, and Lizzy imwere buried in his hat. He lifted one hand