

at Tadoussac, which has resulted in great benefits, not only to them, but to the fur trade which is carried on there. Nouvel travels up and down the Saguenay, seeking his scattered flock wherever they may be hunting. In June, Bishop Laval visits this church; he is welcomed most cordially and hospitably by the savages, and administers confirmation to those who are ready for it — 149 in all.

R. G. T.

MADISON, WIS., August, 1899.