AUXILIARY NOTES.

“Thank God for our Seventh Annual Meeting,” will, we trust, be the thought spoken or otherwise, of each member and delegate who attended the meetings held on the 19th, 20th, and 21st of April. The old church of the Holy Trinity has seldom contained a larger congregation or number of communicants. Archdeacon Morrison, a Canadian by birth, now stationed at Ogdensburg, N. Y., was the preacher, the Rev. J. Fearson, rector of the church, assisted by a number of the clergy, took the service. The choir, with their able organist, Mr. Blackburn, were most kind in their attendance, indeed every detail of the service was all we could desire.

Luncheon was served during the three days in the upper room of Holy Trinity School House, and the number to be waited upon, and the limited space, severely taxed the energies of the Lunch Committee, who proved themselves equal to everything required from them.

We were much honoured by the presence of Mrs. MacLaren, the newly elected President of the Niagara Diocese, Miss Ambrose, their Secretary, Mrs. Fessenden, Editor of the Niagara LEAFLET, and others. From Huron, we welcomed Mrs. Boomer, to whose untiring energy, Algoma and the Education Fund owe much. We believe ladies were present from the Ontario Diocese, but their names could not be ascertained. Old friends among the delegates and many new ones were to be seen, and we do hope all enjoyed the meetings and their visit to Toronto. Mrs. Cartwright, acting 2nd Vice-President, read a gracefully worded address of welcome to all present, replied to on behalf of the delegates by Mrs. Murphy, of Innisfil, always a warmly loving friend to the Auxiliary. The reports of the Diocesan Secretary, Treasurer, Dorcas Secretary, were very encouraging, showing marked progress in work done, and money contributed. Miss Cartwright read a paper upon the work of the Universities' Missions in Africa, the essay was most charmingly compiled, and was listened to with the deepest interest. The missionary meeting in the evening, held in St. James School-house, was a success in point of numbers, but still more so in the tone of the addresses given by Archdeacon Morrison, Mr. Hoyles, and Canon DuMoulin.

Thursday, the 20th, will long be remembered as the date of an unusually severe storm, despite of which the school-house was filled all day by the delegates and members of the W. A. The address given by
