tiaving for its special objects the furnishing to subscribers of reliable information on the fluorial standing of otherwise of tradesmen and others, the collection of outstanding accounts and the procuring of the most reliable information from independent sources of the value and condition of landed and other properties in any part of Canada and the United States, with correspondents in Great Britain and other parts of Europe.

continuous and the United States, with correspondents in Great Britain and other parts of Europe.

Our method of procuring for our subscribers the most reliable information is through solicit one of the highest standing, and from other equalty reliable sources in the several localities indicated, who are under contract with us to supply the necessary information promptly.

The Landed Enquiry Department of this Agency, the only institution of this kind known, is invaluable to Bollotors, Loan, Investment, and insurance Companies, Estate Agency, and others, preventing fraudulent land transactions resulting from interpersontations.

The Department for the calection of ourstanding accounts is conducted on an entire change of the system usually followed by Collecting Agencies, viz.:—Subscribers may have their collections paid either direct to themselves, or to the offices of the Agency, in which interease remittances will be deposited to an account provided for thus purpose, and immediately remitted to the parties to whem it is due, and will not be applied to any other purpose.

Another important feature in cannection with this department is, that subscribers depositing accounts for collection will, if requested, be furnished with a Form of Seript, on which will be entered the name of each debtor, the amount owing, and a full report of the prospects of collection, and providing that the receipts thereof be paid to bester only, thus enabling subscribers to realize on their outstanding accounts.

The Agency will forward at least once in three months, or oftener if dosired, a report and statement of all accounts in frame.

Note.—The offices of the Agency are open to the Solicitors and subscribers there for the transaction of business with their clients and customers when in Toronto.
