

the same day, a distance of, 36 miles. But our horses were slow, & the road very soft, and we were overtaken by night, 10 miles from our intended stopping place. We came to a muddy place in the road, and were tempted to go down from the buggy, and look for the road. But it was so muddy that we could not have drawn our shoes back, if we had attempted to walk in that mud. We traveled two miles more, and could not see
