

frailty of their human nature, -- good advice, which, if only we would bear it in mind, is calculated to help the older ones amongst us in our struggle to overcome the weakness to which our flesh is heir.

At 8.30 P.M. we went on board "La Canadienne," landing early next morning at Grosse Isle. The Bishop baptised one child and confirmed thirteen Candidates, delivering one of his kindly and practical addresses, for which he is so well noted, on the great blessings conveyed by Baptism and Confirmation. After this we left for Entry Island, where nine Candidates received the Apostolic Rite of "Laying on of Hands."

We hope another time to have the pleasure of a longer visit from our beloved Bishop.

IN MEMORIAM.

ROBERT HAMILTON, Esq., D.C.L.

It is quite impossible for us in our present issue at all adequately to express either our sense of the loss which we have all sustained by the removal from our midst of Mr. Robert Hamilton, or our gratitude to God for having given to us so noble and helpful and generous a son of His Church. We hope in our next issue to offer to our readers some words of loving commemoration from the pen of the Ven. Archdeacon Roe, and with the permission of the family we should like very much to give to our readers the Portrait of one, whose name will go down to posterity as the name of an unbounded Benefactor, a devoted Churchman, and a loving Christian man.

Ad Clerum.

We would remind all our Clergy that the Provincial Synod has begged that Sunday, October 16th, may be observed as Sunday School Sunday. By this it is intended that attention shall be drawn to Sunday School work, and worshippers shall be invited to pray for God's blessing upon it and to take part in it.

First, the children succumbed to diphtheria. Soon the father and mother were both stricken down with the same dread scourge, but were recovering from it, when Mr. Nicholson's disease developed into typhoid, and a peculiarly malignant type of blood-poisoning, which in a few days carried him off. It is a matter of thankfulness that he was able to receive the Holy Communion while still in the full possession of his senses.

"We buried him darkly at dead of night ...
"By the struggling moon beams misty light
"And the lantern dimly burning."

All the externals were sad indeed, but that our brother rests in peace, we cannot doubt.

We have also lost our oldest Church member, a faithful and devoted churchman, Mr. Henry Sealey, who was buried on the 20th August.

Mr. Sealey had been for years a sufferer from chronic rheumatism, which he contracted while serving his country as a member of the Naval Brigade in the trenches during the Siege of Sebastopol. Latterly this developed into dropsy and heart-failure, to which he succumbed, retaining however, his consciousness to the last.

Mr. Sealey retired from the Navy after the Crimean War was over, and came here in 1871 to take charge of the Powder Mills. From this important post his
