

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Notes

The re-opening services are postponed. It was not possible to get the church ready. It is to be hoped that the dollar re-opening will be forthcoming.

We meet in our renovated auditorium for the first time next Wednesday evening. The Maritime B. Y. P. U. have an interesting program. Rev. H. R. Hatch, Wolfville, N. S., and Rev. J. H. Parshley, Moncton, N. B. will give addresses. It is hoped that there will be a large congregation that evening. The B. Y. P. U. Sessions continue Thursday morning, afternoon and evening. The "Baptist Institute" has a full program for all day Friday. The 55th Annual Meeting of the Maritime Convention opens Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, and continues with three sessions each day until Tuesday evening. The Convention closes Tuesday evening with a platform meeting in the interests of our Educational work.

Try and attend as many sessions of the Convention as possible. A great treat awaits us. Let us profit by it.

The delegates will receive a hearty welcome to our city. Each member of the church and congregation is a Committee to do everything possible for the comfort and convenience of the visiting friends. The North Church has the name of being a social church. Let us excel ourselves this time.

It has been very encouraging to see the hearty response to the call for the entertainment of delegates. The Convention is going to be a large one. We need some more entertainers. Some have already said to the Pastor, "if you are crowded, send some more to me." That is right. It would be helpful if a few more would do the same. We are not going to have any rooms to spare.

There will be a special Calendar next week.

Applications for Sitings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are signed, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people, that is to say, every member of this church is covenanted voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in their power to give, and shall so inform the Financial Secretary, and from him receive envelopes for that purpose. All bills or accounts are to be sent to A. E. Soulis, 119 Robie St. All monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to N. L. McDonald, Fin. Sec'y.
