Mr. Bayne, of Ashton, was elected Moderator for the next six months, and took the chair. An extract minute of General Assembly was read, anent Rev. J. Wilson, of Lanark, and his name was retained upon the Presbytery roll. Circular letters from various Presbyteries were read anent Edward Austin, Robert Jardine and J. C. Stinson. The Clerk was instructed to issue a circular instructing each congregation and mission station to hold a missionary meeting, and to report the fact to the Presbytery not later than the February meeting; and parties were appointed to visit and confer with augmented congregations. The Home Mission report was submitted and considered, making arrangements for the winter supply of mission stations. It was also decided as to the amounts which are to be asked for the various stations from the Home Mission Committee.

The Presbytery of Hamilton met in St. Catharines on Sept. 19th. Expressions of sympathy were recorded with Rev. W. J. Dey, of Simcoe, in his long illness, and with Rev. S. Lyle and family, in the loss of his son, James, by drowning. A call addressed to Rev. W. H. Geddes, of Whitechurch, from the congregation of Hayne's Avenue, St. Catharines and St. David's, was sustained. Dr. Fletcher reported that the deficit in the grants for augmentation, had been made up. Mr. James Cameron was certified to Knox College, as a student entering on the preparatory course. Arrangements for the supply of vacancies were made, and it was resolved to apply for a grant to Pt. Dalhousie of $200, to Dunville, of $3 during the vacancy, and an increase in the grant to Fort Geddes. Three discourses from three students within the bounds, were sustained, and Messrs. Martin, McPherson and Mackenzie were certified accordingly. A petition from Mr. R. The Presbytery agreed to meet twice a year in Harrison, once in Mount Forest and once in Palmerston, unless otherwise agreed upon on account of the presbyterial meeting of the Woman's Foreign Miss. Society. A call to Rev. J. Pritchard, of Forest, from Fordwick and Gorrie, was sustained. Mr. Stewart, of Belmore, was appointed to prosecute the call before the Presbytery of Sarnia. Several reports were received, discussed, and adopted, and various decisions came to anent them. The report of most interest, was that of the Presbytery's Home Mission Committee, which was brought forward by Mr. Farquharson, the convener. The report dwelt principally with the work in the several mission fields of the bounds, during the summer, and also, with making provision for winter supply, and was, after some discussion and alterations, adopted. Baldur and Belmont asked for a settled pastor, which was granted, and in the case of Pelican Lake, it was unanimously resolved to divide that large field into two distinct and separate missions, that north of the lake to be known as Hilton, and that south, as Bellafield, each comprising three stations. Mr. Christie appeared as a lay delegate from Hilton, asking for a member of Presbytery to moderate in a call as soon as convenient for the candidate of their choice, and Mr. Hodnett, of Killarney, was appointed to the discharge of that duty. A long time was spent in discussing the proposal and scheme for Presbyterial visitation, delayed from last ordinary meeting. Objections were urged to any Presbyterial visitations of the congregations and stations in the bounds being entered upon at present, and, ultimately, it was decided, by a majority of fourteen to ten, not to conduct such. The Presbytery then took up the report of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, which had been presented at last meeting in the form of an address to the members and adherents in the bounds, pointing out the privilege, the need, and the duty of continued and even increased liberality, and specifying the schemes of the Church, with the object and claims of each. It was resolved that he complete the report as soon as as he is furnished with all the necessary information, and that he get such a number printed as to supply a copy to each family in the Presbytery. An extract minute of Synod was read, sanctioning the transfer of the congregations of Rothsay, Moorefield, and Drayton, to the care of the Presbytery of Saugeen. A committee was appointed to look into the business calling for attention on the minutes of Synod and Assembly. The clerk submitted a scheme for canvassing the congregations in the interest of the endowment fund for aged and infirm ministers, when, after lengthened discussion, it was resolved that Mr. Burns be requested to prosecute the work, and that congregations be prepared for his visit by an interchange of pulpits by the ministers, and a presentation to them of the merits and wants of the scheme.

It was agreed that Windsor Session should be instructed to obtain one month's supply in the quarter through Dr. Torrance, if an early settlement was not effected. Mr. Larkin was appointed Moderator pro tem. of the Session of Buxton, etc., in place of Mr. Manson, resigned. A circular from Dr. Reid, anent Assembly Fund, was read, and the Clerk was appointed a committee to apportion the amount asked by Dr. Reid from the Presbytery, among the various congregations. A circular from Dr. Reid, anent Home Mission and Augmentation Funds, was also read, and the attention of the members of Presbytery earnestly called to it. It was moved by Dr. Battisby, seconded, and agreed, that the hearty thanks of this Presbytery be given to the Knox College Students' Missionary Society, for the excellent services rendered by its missionaries in fields within our bounds during the summer, and that the members of Presbytery be asked to call the attention of their congregations to the needs of the Society when making their annual distribution of funds among the schemes of the Church.—W.
