PRESIDENT.

In view of the action taken by President Roosevelt to bring the coal strike to an end, deep interest at- Name taches to a petition circulated throughout the country by the menbers of the various organizations cemprising the American Federation of National Executive.

The petition does not ask the President to interfere in a political way. It simply asks him to use his good offices as the first citizen in the land to bring about a settlement. The petition says:

"We, whose names are underwritten, citizens of the United States, most carnestly ask you to use your good offices in bringing to an end the unhappy strike now prevailing in the coal regions. We feel that we have a right to call on you as our representative to see what you can do to make peace.

"We do not ask you to use any oficial power in the matter, for you have none to use, we only ask you as the first citizen of the nation to wedlate between these centending parties. You can speak as no one else can speak for the plain people of the country. We want no coorcion to be used or threatened,

"We recognize the fact that would hesitate to interpose, even in the interests of peace and good-will, lest you should seem to be exceeding your prerogative, but if the voices of hundreds of thousands of your fellow-citiens should summon you to Grady, of Toronto, very ably supnch a task, you would not, we are ported the groom. rersuaded, shrink from undertaking At the commons

"This is not business, Mr. President, it is not politics; it is something much higher and finer. May God help you to render this great service to your country and crown you with: the blessings that belong to the peacemaker."

Among those who have already attached their signatures to this petition are Louis J. Kaufman, of Brooklyn, first vice-president of the Federation of Catholic Societies of America; John A. Henneberry, president of the New York State Council of Catholic Benevolent Legion; Oswald Maure, of New York, president of the New York State Council of the Catholic Knights of America; Frederick Hoenighausen, of Brooklyn, vice-president of the Central Society of America; Joseph Frey, of New York, a member of the executive America: Alphonso G. CATHOLIC PROTEST AGAINST BLASPHEMY.

Brooklyn, Sept. 29.-Catholics to the number of twenty thousand, most of whom are members of the Holy great rally desterday to protest against blasphemy. There were in removement was spoken of as one deveneration of God's name.

Fifteen churches in the diocese were designated as central rallying points, and the different parades were in streets in the district in which the rallying thurch was located. Bishop McDonnell reviewed the parade in his district and heartily sanctioned this great protest against blasphemy, which is held annually under the supervision of Vicar-General P. J. McNamara The Vicar-General, as part of the demonstration, delivered an address in the pro-Cathedral, Mention of the rally was made in all the churches in Brooklyn yesterday morning and the men in the various parishes were invited to join in the demonstration.

In a letter sent by Vicar-General McNamara to pastors, which was read in all the churches yesterday, Mgr.

McNamara said: "It is hoped that the demonstration this year will, more than ever before, by its magnitude, make an ablding impression upon the minds and hearts of Catholics and non-Catholics alike, and that the lively

MARRIAGD. A wedding which was charming in its simplicity, and to which only relatives and a very few friends were Catholic Societies requesting just bidden, was that of Mr. D. Harrigan, such a course as that adopted by the of Stratford, and Miss Florence M. Dowd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dowd, which took place in St. l'aul's Church, Gravenhurt, on Tuesday morning

Despite the inclemency of weather, the church was filled with the many friends of the young couple and the sacred edifice looked very beautiful, having been artistically decorated by the bride's friends with a variety of palms, flowers and shaded lights.

Punctually at eight o'clock the bride entered the church to Mendellsohn's Wedding March and leaning on the arm of her father. She looked very graceful and lovely, attired in a travelling costume of navy blue Venetian cloth, with strap trimmings, a Russian jacket trimmed with panne velvet, and opening over a dainty cream blouse of Liberty silk, and a white felt hat with long drooping plumes. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, and was assisted by her sister Miss May Dowd, who was gowned in a most becoming frock of pearl grey crepe de chene, having white chissen trimmings, steel buckles, large picture hat, and carrying a handsome bunch of pink roses. Mr

At the commencement of the Nuptial Mass, Mr. Robert Moore sang in his musical voice a very appropriate hymn, which was well rendered, and at the Offertory Miss Clara Clairmont interpreted with much expression and clearness Millard's "Ave Maria," the accompaniment being played on the violin with marked ability by Miss Marie Smith, of Toronto. Miss Marie Smith also sang of in an appreciative and inspiring manner, a hymn suitable for the occasion.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests were driven to the bride's home, which was fittingly decorated, the drawing and luncheon rooms being artistically adorned with quantities of autumn flowers and foliage, and where a dainty dejeuner was served, and at which time the many good wishes of the guests were offered to the bride and groom, the committee of the Central Society of bride following the time-honored cus-America: Alphonse G. Koeble, of tom of making the first cut in the wedding cake.

A few of the guests present were: Mr and Miss Harrigan, Stratford, Mr. Grady, Toronto; Miss May Dowd, Toronto; Miss Marie Smith, Toronto, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. La Franiere, Mrs. J. Clairmont, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. W. J. Moore, Gravenhurst; Rev. Father Collins, Bracebridge; Misses Anna Scott, Clara and Mabel Clairmont, Florence Moore and Anna Sullivan, of Gravenhurst. The many beautiful and costly presents received attested to the high Name Society, participated in the esteem and ropularity in which the great rally resterday to protest gifts was a handsome marble clock from the choir of St. Paul's Church, ality fifteen separate parades, but the of which the bride was a member. The bridegroom's gift to the bride monstration, to publicly manifest was a sear coac, and to monstration, to publicly manifest maid and groomsman, pearl crescent

Mr. and Mrs. Harrigan left on the 10.50 train for Toronto and castern points, and upon their return will re-side in Stratford Miraculous Nothing like it Haw Ever been heard of-in Newfoundland, where the Story comes from it has Created a Profound Sensation.

Cottel'a Cove, New Bay, Newfoundland, Oct. 6 .- (Special) .- This part of the Island has been thoroughly aroused by the most miraculous cure of a man named Joseph Boon.

For eight years this man had been siling and for seven years of this time he was unable to work. He had Back Ache and Kidney Complaint, In fact he was all pains and aches. He had been treated from time to time by several doctors and although he always carefully attended to their several prescriptions exactly as or dered by them, he got no relief, but was slowly growing norse. Finally he went to the Hospital shere he remained for seven months, only to be sent home as an incurable

He has tried every remedy he could hear of, electric belts, liniments, oils and other medicines but all of no avail. No one ever thought he could ever be well again.

However, one day he picked up newspaper containing an account of how Mr. Richard Quirk, of Fortune Harbor, had been cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills. After reading this Mr. Boon made up his mind to try this remedy and at once began treatment.

He used altogether twenty-one boxes before he was able to walk again, but now he is able to attend to his daily duties as strong and vigorous as any men along the coast. Mr. Boon is a fisherman and is at present opgaged at lobster fishing with no viought whatever of his old time Back Ache and other pains.

BANQUET TO HON. CHAS. FITZ-PATRICK IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Oct 7.-Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Minister of Justice, was tendered a banquet to-night by St. Patrick's Society and friends. In the course of his speech Mr Fitzpatrick said "The Irish Catholics in Canada are in a minority, and this is a distinct disadvantage so long as the qualifications for public positions are made to depend upon consideration of race and creed rather than upon fitness and capacity to do service to the State If a position is to be assigned a Catholic, then we are supposed to form a part of the English-speaking minority. If, on the other hand, language is a requisition, then we are of the Catholic minority. In either case we are in the position of the man between the upper and lower millstone,"

FOR THE · OVERWORKED,-What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause. A disordered liver means disordered stomach, and a disordered etomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the victim feets sick all over. Parmelce's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

LOUISIANA O'LEARY.

The St. Louis Exposition has adopted little Louisiana O'Leary, born on the grounds a few weeks ago. Her parcias work for wages on the fair exhibit, and are poor. Louisiana was baptized Sunday week. Colonel Isaac Taylor, director of the World's Fair buildings, was chosen as god-father, and Miss Florence Hayward, well-known society woman and writer, was the godmother. The christening was held in front of the Administration Building. The Jeffer-son Guards were called out to add dignity to the occasion. Father Casey baptized the child after many lavish presents were given the little one. Strangers who had never before been upon the site were struck with the oddity of the event, and gave cash to help raise the inlant.
